

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

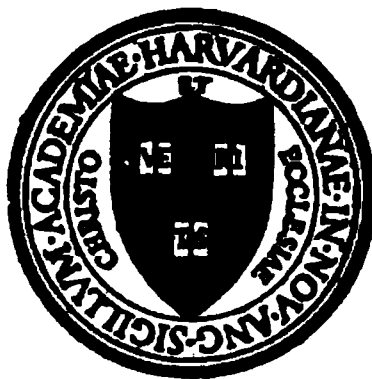

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. A SELECTION FROM THE BEST BOOKS OF 1911

WITH NOTES

PREFATORY NOTE

To the Librarian:

This is an annotated list of 250 books published in 1911, selected by the New York State Library and recommended to the public libraries of the State. To aid in choosing small collections of new books three classes are indicated: books marked a, of which there are 20, are suggested to libraries which must confine their additions within narrow limits; 30 others marked b are also proposed to libraries that can buy 50 books; and 50 marked c may be added to a and b to make up 100 books. The remaining 150, including some reference books and a few more costly publications, are worthy careful consideration by libraries that can buy more than 100 books and by those wishing to enlarge resources in special subjects. Many of the unmarked works are of the highest merit.

It is of course impossible for any board to determine which 100 or 200 books are absolutely the best; still less could it make a selection which would fit the needs of every small library in the State. Books marked c may be a in value in certain cases. The best general advice may, and sometimes should, be rejected in view of actual needs, and the librarian should of course be better able to determine such needs than a distant board of advisers.

Considerable doubt exists in the minds of those responsible for the list, whether these markings are of practical value to libraries, and unless there is some expression in favor of retaining the plan, the letters will probably be dropped next year. Expression of individual opinion, for or against, from those using the list will be welcomed.

It is thought best to inform the smaller libraries about some books which would be of high practical value to them, though probably too expensive to be bought from the ordinary fund. Special circumstances may sometimes justify buying such a work at the sacrifice of several cheaper ones. Occasionally, too, some generous friend or local club expresses a wish to make a town library a substantial gift. If the librarian can make prompt and definite suggestions it is an advantage to the community, and the satisfaction of the benefactor is materially increased.

We can not too strongly emphasize the advice which we have for several years quoted in full from the Journal of New Jersey Libraries, October 1903: Do not buy subscription books; avoid books issued in parts; ask advice before purchasing expensive reprints.

Finest Orations, Noblest Essays, Royal Flim Flams, Huge Anthologies, and the like all come to the secondhand man. Get them of him, if you must. In a small library they are generally almost useless. In subscription books, cases like this are not uncommon. Maspero wrote several large and learned volumes, in French, on Egypt and Chaldea. They were translated and published in three or four volumes in England, costing libraries in this country about $5 each. An American publisher reprints them in 12 small volumes with a few additional colored cuts, on heavier paper and in larger type and offers them through agents for $84—and libraries buy them!

Do not buy "sets" or complete editions of authors. Buy the volumes you need and as you need them. A complete set always includes several volumes you do not need. Specify the edition you wish of standard books when you can, unless you find a bookseller able and willing to select them wisely for you.

While this list has been prepared with special reference to smaller public libraries it will also be of much service to schools. Not all the books listed, however, are recommended for school use. There are some books in fiction which have not enough positive value either as literature or as a spur to historical study to justify their purchase for a school, yet which serve a legitimate purpose in the public library by providing wholesome entertainment for a very different class of readers. All titles under the heading "Children's books" are recommended for those school libraries which undertake to provide wholesome entertainment as well as useful information.

In accordance with the statement in the preface of the Tentative selection, only the more popular type of book dealing with technical subjects has been recommended here. Libraries in need of more advanced technical literature will find the annual list prepared by the applied science department of Pratt Institute Free Library, Brooklyn, entitled Technical Books of 1911, sent free on application, a most valuable aid.

This list, like its predecessors since 1897, has been prepared under the general direction of Martha T. Wheeler of the State Library staff.

REFERENCE BOOKS

- 370.3 Monroe, Paul & others. A cyclopedia of education.
5v. v.1-2. Macmillan $5 n ea.
- 11-1511 Aims to give information on every division of educational practice. Completeness of treatment is not designed. Completeness of scope is attempted. Articles are by specialists and are provided with short bibliographies and a good system of cross references. Emphasis is on American subjects and utilitarian education. Binding and typography are satisfactory.
v. 1 Annals of Amer. Acad. 38:308; Dial, 50:349; Educ. Rev. 42:421; Nation, 92:481.
v. 2 Annals of Amer. Acad. 40:273; Elem. Sch. Teacher, 12:240; Nation, 93:608.
- 371.365 b Schauffler, R. H. comp. Memorial day (Decoration day). (Our Amer. holidays) Moffat $1 n
- 11-6709 Anthology of poetry and prose dealing with the Civil War and representing both sides. Most are short selections suitable for children's recitation in school celebrations.
Mrs N. U. Wallington's American history by American poets (Duffield, 2v. $1.50 n ea. 811.08) is an anthology of poems on American history arranged chronologically by events treated.
- 11-9932 They range from the discovery to the Hudson-Fulton celebration. Indexes and historical notes. Few are of high quality but the collection will be useful.
Schauffler, N. Y. Times Rev. 16:322, May 21, '11.
Wallington, Dial, 50:450; Lit. Digest, 42:1212.
- 383 c Phelps, E. M. comp. Selected articles on the parcels post. (Debaters' handbook ser.) H. W. Wilson $1 n
- 11-35968/4 Like other volumes of the series contains a brief, a bibliography, chiefly of periodical references, and reprinted articles, each in three divisions, general, affirmative and negative.
In the same series E. C. Robbins's Selected articles on the open versus closed shop (331.88) is the same in plan, but E. D. Bullock's Selected articles on child labor (331.3) is intended for the general reader rather than the debater and contains a classified bibliography of the subject and reprints of 28 articles designed to cover all phases of the problem.
- 603 Hopkins, A. A. ed. The Scientific American cyclopedia of formulas. Munn $5 n
- 11-409 Practically a new book although it includes about 30 per cent of the material in the 28th edition of the Scientific American cyclopedia of receipts, notes and queries, increased to 15,000 formulas by up-to-date selections from American and foreign technical periodicals. Classified arrangement and index.
Engin. Record, 63:231; Lit. Digest, 42:413.
- 620.8 b Merriman, Mansfield & others, ed. American civil engineers' pocket book. Wiley $5
- 11-1327 Valuable reference book, written by experts in the subjects covered. More convenient and up to date than the present edition of Trautwine. Good index.
- 808.5 Robbins, E. C. The high school debate book. McClurg $1 n

- 11-30808 After practical introductory advice on the value of debating and method of preparing briefs, 18 subjects are considered. For each, negative and affirmative briefs and references are given, as in the Debaters' handbook volumes, which already cover six of these subjects. This book does not give reprints of articles, but references are limited to books and periodicals easily available.
- 910.4 Baedeker, Karl. The Mediterranean; a handbook for travellers. Scribner $3.60 n
- 11-28378 Important addition to the separate volumes on the Mediterranean countries, in part based on them, comprising chiefly information about sea routes, seaport and some inland towns, Madeira, the Canary islands, and coasts of Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia. 38 maps and 49 plans.
- A11-2011 J. E. C. Fitch's Mediterranean moods (Dutton $4 n, 914.67) consists of gracefully written, vivid impressions of the Balearic isles and Sardinia, embracing life of people, scenery and noteworthy incidents of travel. 1 color plate, 2 maps and 32 halftones.
Fitch, Dial, 51:96; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:538, Sept. 10, '11; Sat. R. 111:717; Spec. 106:448, Mar. 25, '11.
- 911 Shepherd, W. R. Historical atlas. (Amer. historical ser.) Holt $2.50
- 12-35091 Serviceable, well-proportioned work partly based on Putzger's Historischer schulatlas, but especially planned for American schools and colleges. Well-executed historical maps from 1450 B. C. to present. Full index of towns.
- Maps 12-5 Ramsay Muir's New school atlas of modern history (Holt $1.25 n) has the same aim but more limited scope, 120 maps covering European history from 395 A. D. to the present, with maps to show the possessions of European countries. Has also text giving outline of the period covered and index of countries only.
- A11-2574 J. G. Bartholomew's Literary and historical atlas of America (Everyman's lib. Dutton 35cn, (911.7) gives in compact form physical, historical and modern maps of North and South America, a few plans of battles, a chapter on coinage, gazetteer of places having a literary and historic interest and index of towns. Decidedly useful, though less satisfactory than the corresponding volume on Europe. About 100 maps and plans.
Shepherd, Amer. Hist. Rev. 17:676; Nation, 94:544.
Muir, Ath. 1911, 1:69; Independent, 71:260.

PHILOSOPHY AND ETHICS

- 113 c Bergson, H. L. Creative evolution. Holt $2.50 n
- 11-3948 Brilliant and original work, aiming to show that the evolutions of life and of intelligence are interdependent. An important contribution to the study of the subject, in parts difficult reading but full of interest even to those without scientific training. Patrick
- 11-18828 Geddes & J. A. Thomson's Evolution (Home univ. lib. Holt 50c n, 575) is a short, popular outline of the principal theories of evolution, with a history of their development to the present day. Bibliography. J. W. Judd's Coming of evolution (Cambridge manuals of sci. and lit. Putnam 40c n, 575) is a brief but interesting sketch of the gradual shaping of the theory of evolution in the minds of Lyell, Darwin and other scientists, the expression of it in their works and its influence upon science. Illustrations from portraits.
- 11-19211

Bergson, Ath. 1911, 1:411; Dial, 51:253; Nation, 92:648; Nature, 87:475.

Judd, Ath. 1910, 2:705; Nature, 85:297; Spec. 106:652, Apr. 29, '11.

- 123 c Palmer, G. H. The problem of freedom.
Houghton $1.25 n
- 11-29828 Lowell Institute lectures discussing the ancient problem of fate and free will. Scholarly, impartial in viewpoint and lucid in expression.
Dial, 52:399; N. Y. Times Rev. 17:127, Mar. 10, '12.
- 170 Dawson, W. J. The book of courage. Revell $1.25 n
- 11-27326 Sympathetic, inspiring essays on the cultivation of a brave spirit in meeting the vicissitudes of life — failure, lost friendships, sudden tragedy, leaving familiar things, ill-health, bereavement, old age, etc.
N. Y. Times Rev. 16:632, Oct. 22, '11; Outlook, 99:391, Oct. 14, '11.
- 170 b Vorse, Mrs M. M. H. Autobiography of an elderly woman. Houghton $1.25 n
- 11-26626 The half-humorous, half-sorrowful complaints and confessions of a grandmother who finds herself wrapped in the cotton-wool of her children's mistaken kindness and laid on the shelf, with her intellect as active and her zest for living as keen as ever. The book will appeal to elderly women and should open the eyes of too devoted, lovingly despotic daughters. A. L. A. Booklist
Nation, 94:90; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:787, Dec. 3, '11; Outlook, 99:431.
- 172 Abbott, Lyman. America in the making. (Yale lectures on the responsibilities of citizenship)
Yale Univ. $1.15 n
- 11-10765 Five addresses which display breadth of view and practical as well as idealistic and stimulating qualities. They describe prevailing conditions, point out political, economic, social and religious problems, and declare that the solution lies in a realization of the principles of Christian brotherhood, justice, mercy and reverence.

RELIGION

See also Children's books, pp. 47, 51

- 207 c Hodges, George. The training of children in religion.
Appleton $1.50 n
- 11-10757 Discusses practically from viewpoint of liberal theology, subjects of vital importance in religious training of children under fifteen, as the being, nature and manifestation of God, prayer, the Bible, silent instruction of example, the use of Sunday, qualifications of a Sunday school teacher, etc. See also note on his Child's guide to the Bible under Raymont, following.
Lit. Digest, 42:1014; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:355, June 4, '11.
- 220 b Raymont, Thomas. The use of the Bible in the education of the young. Longmans $1.25 n
- E12-119 Valuable handbook for teachers, parents and students, presenting for the first time a complete survey of the Bible as a means

- of religious instruction, from the double viewpoints of modern Biblical research and modern pedagogy.
- 12-17 Designed for young people, but useful also to teachers and parents is Dean George Hodges's Child's guide to the Bible (Doubleday $1.20 n), which treats briefly and simply of scope, literary forms, progress of the Bible and history of Israel and apostolic Christianity. 10 reproductions of paintings.
Raymont, Biblical World, 38:434; Independent, 71:1040.
Hodges, Independent, 72:1067; N. Y. Times Rev. 17:178, Apr. 31, '12.
- 220.52 Faris, J. T. The romance of the English Bible.
Westminster Press 25c
- 11-8093 Slender little book telling in a brief, simple, vivid way the Bible's stormy history from the days of the manuscripts to the American revised version, 1901.
- A11-2376 Another useful little introduction to the subject is John Brown's History of the English Bible (Cambridge manuals of sci. and lit. Putnam 40c n), somewhat more ambitious, fuller on the personal side and in picturesque details, but less satisfactory in connecting with the earlier history and in neglecting to allude to the American revised version.
- 11-13348 A. W. Pollard's Records of the English Bible (Oxford Univ. $2.50 n), a highly valuable book for scholars and students, collects 63 original documents, previously unpublished or not easily accessible, relating to the making, printing and publishing of the English translations of the Bible, from Tyndale's New Testament of 1525 to the version of 1611. An introduction (75p. presents a history of these translations.
Brown, Sat. R. 111:784.
Pollard, Amer. Jour. of Theol. 15:484; Ath. 1911, 1:470; Outlook, 98:80; Spec. 106:651, Apr. 29, '11.
- 230 Hodges, George. Everyman's religion.
Macmillan $1.50 n
- 11-26625 Interesting interpretation of the vital elements and practice of Christianity. Its simplicity, liberality and reasonableness will appeal to the average man.
- 12-9635 Rudolf Eucken's The truth of religion (Theological translation lib., Putnam $3 n, 201) is a brilliant and valuable work dealing speculatively but reverently with the significance of religion to the whole of life, and concluding that while Christianity meets all spiritual needs, its transient and human accretions must be separated from its divine and eternal elements.
Hodges, Biblical World, n. s. 38:434.
Eucken, Ath. 1912, 1:334; Outlook, 100: 701, Mar. 23, '12.
- 232 c Clarke, W. N. The ideal of Jesus. Scribner $1.50 n
- 11-22395 Unfolds the ideal of Jesus for human life and applies it to the kingdom of God, righteousness, the filial life, liberty, justice, wealth, the church etc. A deeply spiritual appreciation emanating from mature Christian experience.
Ath. 1911, 2:554; Biblical World, n. s. 38:425; Independent, 71:1268.
- 261 a Butterfield, K. L. The country church and the rural problem. (Carew lectures, Hartford Theological Seminary, 1909) Univ. of Chic. $1 n
- 11-2041 Short but suggestive treatment, clearly stating the American rural problem and the part which can be taken by the churches and the churches only, in its solution. Suggests remedies for the

- difficulties besetting country ministers and urges need of good men in this work. The rural church and community betterment compiled by the Y. M. C. A. International Committee (Ass'n Press $1) gives the minutes and addresses of the Rural Church Conference held in New York, December 1910, and although reaching no definite conclusion contains many suggestions.

Butterfield, Amer. Jour. of Sociol. 17:125; Nation, 92:426.

Y. M. C. A., Outlook, 98: 1013.

- 261 King, H. C. The moral and religious challenge of our times. Macmillan $1.50 n

- 11-31945 Sympathetic, inspiring, concise survey and interpretation of the new movements of modern life, offering reverence for personality as the guiding and determining principle in all human progress.

SOCIOLOGY

See also Children's books, p. 47

- 324.73 c Childs, R. S. Short-ballot principles. Houghton $1 n

- 11-25692 Breezy, clear-headed exposition of the advantages of a ballot so short that voters can inform themselves concerning each candidate and of the benefits of the commission plan in city government.

Educ. Rev. 42:523; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:620, Oct. 15, '11; Outlook, 99:362.

- 325.26 Ovington, M. W. Half a man. Longmans $1 n

- 11-16291 Interesting study of the status of the negro in New York City, his housing, sanitary and moral conditions, children, means of livelihood, effects of race prejudice, etc., published under the supervision of the Greenwich House Committee on Social Investigations.

Amer. Jour. of Sociol. 17:414, Nov. '11; Annals of Amer. Acad. 38:947, Nov. '11; Dial, 51:137; Nation, 93:424; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:422, July 2, '11; Survey, 26:760, Aug. 26, '11.

- 331 Henderson, C. H. Pay-day. Houghton $1.50 n

- 11-26201 Proposes as a solution of the problem of social regeneration, the alliance of an education which unfolds and develops the spirit with an industry administered for use instead of profit. Thought-provoking, graphic and persuasive, though readers will disagree with author's Utopian theories and conclusions.

N. Y. Times Rev. 16:644, Oct. 22, '11; Nation, 94:411.

- 331.8 Brown, F. K. "Al Priddy", pseud. Through the mill.

Pilgrim Press $1.35 n

- 11-23520 Simple, graphic narrative giving in autobiographic form the experiences of an English boy of ten brought to New England by a drunken uncle and aunt and working for years in a cotton mill in New Bedford. Enlarged from articles in Outlook.

Dial, 52:21; Outlook, 99:341; Survey, 27:1346.

- 331.8 a Living without a boss, A. Harper $1 n

- 11-23028 Interesting narrative of a city newspaper man who unexpectedly receives "the blue envelop," and starts life again with his wife in a small village. With a capital of $800 and courage, resourcefulness and initiative he becomes a self-respecting business man.

- 11-35154 Another story. Will Carleton's One way out (Small $1.20 n) opens with the same problem—a clerk without a position—but offers another solution, more novel and detailed but less attractive: The clerk emigrating with his family to the slums, wins his way to independence through hard work, study and thrift.

- 331.8 Streightoff, F. H. The standard of living among the industrial people of America. (Hart, Schaffner and Marx prize essays in econ.) Houghton $1 n

11-8117 An attempt to show the living conditions of America's working class, summarizing with the aid of charts and statistical tables the results of recent trustworthy investigations in regard to unemployment, incomes, housing, food, clothing, thrift, health, intellectual and social life. Useful to social workers and economists. Bibliography.

11-23370 Making both ends meet by Mrs S. A. Clark and Edith Wyatt (Macmillan $1.50 n) describes in sympathetic but unimpassioned style, personal investigations initiated by the National Consumers' League, of the income and outlay of New York working girls employed in shops, laundries and factories and living away from home.

11-13739 L. M. Bosworth's The living wage of women workers (Supplement to Annals of Amer. Acad. of Polit. and Soc. Sci. pap. 75c) presents the results of a similar investigation into the income and expenditure of 450 Boston wage-earning women. More valuable than Making both ends meet through its interpretations, summaries and tables.

- 331.86 Solenberger, A. W. One thousand homeless men; a study of original records. (Russell Sage foundation pub.) Charities Pub. Com. $1.25

11-13151 Author was in charge of central district of Chicago Bureau of Charities 1900-4, and gives an interesting and valuable analysis and discussion of the records "of applicants, bearing on the causes of homelessness, characteristics of the homeless, their individual treatment, their environment and the social remedies." Author's death prevented a summing up and conclusion. Appendixes give the material in tabular form, account of the cheap lodging houses of Chicago and short treatment of the homeless men of Minneapolis. Index.

- 335 a Skelton, O. D. Socialism; a critical analysis. (Hart, Schaffner and Marx prize essays in econ.)

Houghton $1.50 n

11-5216 One of the clearest and most logical presentations of the case against socialism that has yet been made (1911). Author's wide reading, keen power of analysis and criticism, brilliant epigrammatic style, and sense of humor have combined to produce a work of great value and interest. The bibliography is the best that has yet been published. J. L. LeRossignol in Jour. of Polit. Econ. 19:798.

- 337.3 Tarbell, I. M. The tariff in our times. Macmillan $1.50 n

11-26206 Readable, popular history of American tariff bills from the Morrill bill of 1860 to the Payne-Aldrich bill of 1909, surveying their ethical, personal, economic and political aspects and asserting that they have never fairly embodied public opinion.

Nation, 93:499; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:847, Dec. 24, '11; Spec. 108:912, June 8, '12.

- 338.8 Wyman, Bruce. Control of the market; a legal solution of the trust problem. Moffat $1.50 n 11-30803 A clear exposition of the author's theory that "all businesses which have a virtual monopoly" are public businesses and subject to control by the state; therefore he advocates regulation of the trusts by law rather than the attempt to destroy them. Author, professor of law at Harvard.

Annals of Amer. Acad. 41:354; Jour. of Polit. Econ. 20:425; N. Y. Times Rev. 17:115, Mar. 3, '12.

- 352 Bradford, E. S. Commission government in American cities. (Citizen's lib. of economics, politics and sociol.) Macmillan $1.25 n

11-30432 Useful, popular introduction, sketching history from beginnings of movement in Galveston, 1901, to adoption by 150 cities in 1911, and considering modifications, advantages and objections.

11-23372 In City government by commission, ed. by C. R. Woodruff (National Municipal League ser. Appleton $1.50 n) are timely, able papers by W. B. Munro, E. S. Bradford, Rear-admiral Chadwick, A. B. Hart and others, written for the National Municipal League. Editor contributes 10 admirable chapters on history, principles, results etc.

11-32243 Thirty scholarly, valuable essays by E. S. Bradford, J. A. Fairlie, D. F. Wilcox, R. S. Childs, and others, are contained in Commission government in American cities (Amer. Acad. of Polit. & Soc. Sci. $1.50, pap. $1). Grouped under Underlying principles and typical plans, Problems, Objections, limitations and modifications, Results in typical cities.

- 353.7 c Williams, Henry. The United States navy. Holt $1.50 n

11-28288 Clearly written handbook answering simply and briefly the questions constantly asked about the navy's history, organization, personnel, classes of ships, explosives, the designing and building of warships, etc. Author, naval constructor, United States navy. Illustrated by halftone photographs and diagrams.

- 355 Angell, Norman, pseud. (R. N. A. Lane). The great illusion; a study of the relation of military power in nations to their economic and social advantage.
Putnam $1.50 n

11-25728 A study of military power, to prove that prosperity is not the result of successful wars or preparation for them. Brilliant if not always economically sound in argument. Enlarged from the pamphlet Europe's optical delusion.

11-2235 H. M. Chittenden's War or peace (McClurg $1 n, 172.4) is a sane and comprehensive statement, by an American army officer, of the disadvantages of war. Neither of these books advises present disarmament but each looks toward extended federation of nations to secure future peace.

11-2052 J. Novicow's War and its alleged benefits (Holt $1 n, 172.4) takes up one after another the supposed arguments in favor of war and disproves them with a theatrical violence sometimes unconvincing but always interesting.

- 362.5 c Johnson, Alexander. The almshouse: construction and management. (Russell Sage foundation pub.)

Charities Pub. Com. $1.25

11-13148 Very practical, readable, friendly little volume, treating problems of location, capacity, construction, administration, and care of inmates, including chapters on care of sick and mentally defective. Ought to be in the hands of every superintendent of the poor, county supervisor, official inspector or voluntary visitor.

Survey, 26:626, July 29, '11

Appendixes (100 p.), illustrations from photographs and plans.

Amer. Econ. Rev. 1:883, Dec. '11; Annals of Amer. Acad. 38:946, Nov. '11.

- 396 Schreiner, Olive. Woman and labour. Stokes $1.25 n

11-7240 Eloquent plea for the opening of all fields of activity to women, that their deplorable state of economic parasitism upon men may be counteracted and humanity in general benefited. Fragment, though complete in itself, of a more ambitious work destroyed during the Boer war.

Ath. 1911, 2:214; Bookman, 33:425; Dial, 50:470; Independent, 70:959; Polit. Sci. Q. 26:576; Survey, 26:839.

- 396.3 b Allen, W. H. Woman's part in government whether she votes or not. Dodd $1.50 n 11-29421 Opportune book aiming to incite study of and practical interest in municipal and social betterment and efficient democracy. Its pungent, epigrammatic questions and statements are challenging, suggestive and stimulating to men as well as women.

Bookman, 34:431; Nation, 94:65; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:848, Dec. 24, '11; North Amer. Rev. 195:130; Survey, 27:1581.

- 613 c Ogden, H. N. Rural hygiene. (Rural sci. ser.)
Macmillan $1.50 n

11-1193 Clear, nontechnical and, in general, accurate treatment of the broad field of sanitation. Half deals with the location, construction and ventilation of houses and barns, with water supply and sewage disposal for country houses and half with personal hygiene, emphasizing prevention and quarantine rather than causes and treatment.

11-6972 Two volumes of the Young farmer's practical library (Sturgis 75c n ea.) cover in more detail, parts of the same field. C. J. Lynde's Home waterworks; a manual of water supply in country homes, 628, takes up different methods of obtaining water for all purposes and, with less fulness, sewage disposal. H. F. Harris's

11-20912 Health on the farm enlarges upon personal hygiene especially the hygiene of food (including approved receipts) with sections on the care of infants and sick, avoidable diseases and accidents.

11-1295 A more general and scientific survey of the subject, including the problems of cities and states, is Mrs E. H. S. Richards's Conservation by sanitation (Wiley $2.50, 628). It embodies the substance of a college course for sanitary engineers and gives laboratory exercises but is sufficiently untechnical for much wider use. Bibliography.

- 917.94 a Muir, John. My first summer in the Sierra.
 Houghton $2.50 n
- 11-14183 Diary of a trip pin 1869 to the headwaters of the Merced and Tuolumne rivers and the Yosemite region. Author accompanied a flock of 2000 sheep, but accounts of camp life are secondary to the enthusiastic and poetic descriptions of nature and of sometimes thrilling experiences. Beautifully illustrated from photographs with some sketches made on the trip.
- 11-5255 J. S. Chase's Yosemite trails (Houghton $2 n) is hardly less charming in its way, describing with spirit and detail, partly with a view to guidebook use, the Yosemite valley and the high Sierra as seen on three expeditions especially to the less frequented parts. This also gives much attention to flora and fauna. Illustrations from photographs and map.

940.1 Cambridge medieval history planned by J. B. Bury.
8v. v.1 The Christian Roman Empire and the foundation of the Teutonic kingdoms. Macmillan $5 n ea.

11-29851 First volume of a comprehensive work on medieval European history each chapter being written by a specialist in the period and each volume provided with an index, maps, chronological tables, and a bibliography divided by chapters. This volume covers the history of the Roman empire from Constantine almost to Justinian and the origin of the Teutons. Some of the sections are practically identical with articles in the new Encyclopedia Britannica.
4-21616 The whole work follows the scheme of the now completed Cambridge modern history 940.5, planned by Lord Acton 13v., of which v. 13 (Macmillan $4 n) consists of genealogical tables, various other lists and the general index to the whole work.

La Farge. Cortissoz, Royal. John La Farge.

Houghton $4 n

- 11-11181 Authorized memoir by an intimate friend with whom La Farge collaborated. Presents in felicitous style the subtle and vivid thinker, the fastidious talker, the delightful man of the world, sacrificing criticism of his stained glass work and painting to an affectionate portrayal of his personality. Nation, 92:513. 15 photogravures, including 3 portraits and reproductions of paintings.

- 11-27318 Another notable artist biography is The life and works of Winslow Homer (Houghton $6 n) by W. H. Downes, a friend, critic and enthusiastic admirer. Draws artist's portrait from letters and personal reminiscences, and traces chronologically and in detail his development as the "first American painter." Bibliography, lists of pictures, portraits and about 100 reproductions in sepia of paintings and sketches.

Stowe. Stowe, C. E. & L. B. Harriet Beecher Stowe; the story of her life by her son and her grandson.

Houghton $1.50 n

11-12848/2 Valuable for family reminiscences and interesting for side lights on the political events of the Civil War period. Her early life in her father's strict Calvinistic household is especially well described. A centennial anniversary volume, and rather a study of her character and personality than of her literary work. 8 illustrations, including portraits.

Dial, 50:469; Nation, 93:143; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:363, June 1, '11; Outlook, 98:465.

Thomas. Thomas, Mrs R. F. Memoirs of Theodore Thomas. Moffat $3 n

11-29847/2 Valuable contribution to the annals of music as well as a sympathetic and most satisfactory portrayal, by his widow, of America's foremost musical conductor, whose invincible purpose was the musical education of the people. Drawn from intimate personal knowledge and all other available sources. 28 illustrations, including portraits.

Bookman, 34:533; Dial, 51:462; Nation, 93:503.

Tolstoi. Rolland, Romain. Tolstoy; tr. by Bernard Miall. Dutton $1.50 n

11-27476 Psychological study of the various phases through which Tolstoi passed and the reflection of these phases in his works. Rolland is so far (1911) the only man of creative genius who has given us his conception of the creative genius of Tolstoi. He speaks with full understanding and therein, perhaps, lie the charm and value of his work. Athenaeum, 1911, 2:768

12-39007 Paul Birukoff's Life of Tolstoy (Cassell $1.50 n) is condensed from author's three volume work in Russian on which Tolstoi collaborated. A brief, sympathetic, first-hand sketch of life and appreciation of spiritual development. 18 illustrations, including several portraits; list of works.

11-29393 Complete data may be found in N. H. Dole's Life of Lyof N. Tolstoi (Crowell $2 n), which is based on the work of Birukoff, Maude, and minor biographers. Facts and interpretations are presented in a sincere and kindly spirit, but in a rather bald style. Portrait and 30 halftones. Appendixes on chronology of life and writings, Tolstoian colonies, and Tolstoi in the eyes of his contemporaries.

Wagner, W. R. Family letters of Richard Wagner; tr. by W. A. Ellis. Macmillan $1.85 n

11-35977/1 Intimate letters (1832-74) to his mother, sisters and other relatives, but chiefly to his half-sister Cecilie and her husband, Eduard Avenarius. Full of family affection and interesting personal detail. Pittsburgh

11-16280 Though a torso (Wagner died in 1883 and this work closes with 1864), My life, 2v. (Dodd $8.50 n.) takes its place among the world's great autobiographies. Author tells a plain tale, sparing himself no more than others. He gives glimpses into the workshop of his genius and throws a flood of light on the musical conditions of his time. There are many comments on great musicians — Liszt, Schumann, Mendelssohn, Berlioz, Meyerbeer, Franz, Bülow, Saint-Saëns and a host of others. Nation, 92:536. 2 portraits.

Family letters, Ath. 1911, 2:398; Nation, 93:427; Outlook (Eng.) 28:666.

a Buckrose, Mrs J. E. Down our street.

Putnam $1.35 n

- 11-35697 Leisurely story of the ups and downs of life in a shabby street in an English city. The discernment and discrimination of the telling make commonplace characters alive and lovable.
Nation, 93:58; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:369, June 11, '11; Spec. 106:326, Mar. 4, '11.

Burnett, Mrs F. H. The secret garden. Stokes $1.35 n

- 11-21580 Though sentimental, highly improbable and irritating in its abnormal situations, this fantastic story of the adventures of three children in an overgrown, walled-in Yorkshire garden is so full of literary charm and the freshness, delight and healing atmosphere of out-of-doors that it pleases many readers, old and young.
Ath. 1911, 2:621; Bookman, 34:183; Nation, 93:290; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:526, Sept. 3, '11; Outlook, 99:136.

Cameron, Margaret (Mrs H. C. Lewis). The pretender person. Harper $1.30 n

- 11-26607 Light, amusing travel novel, in the form of letters, relating the story of some tangled love affairs. Mexican in background, its descriptions of sights and scenes are of interest to the fireside traveler and the genuine tourist. 16 halftones.
Outlook, 99:680.

Chesterton, G. K. The innocence of Father Brown.

Lane $1.30 n

- 11-25052 A dozen ingenious detective stories, their novelty lying in the fact that seemingly impenetrable mysteries are solved by a stupid looking little priest who has been made wise in wickedness through the confessions of criminals.

- 614.84 Jenks, Tudor. The fireman. (What shall I be ser.) McClurg $1.25
- 11-31145 Brief, simple account of the duties and training of firemen, the organization of fire departments in large cities and history of their development in this country.
- 629.4 c Collins, F. A. Second boys' book of model aeroplanes. Century $1.20 n
- 11-27822 Supplements The boys' book of model aeroplanes by clear, detailed directions for making up-to-date (1911) models. Fully illustrated by working drawings and halftones. Includes rules for contests, constitution and by-laws for a club, and glossary.
- 699 Beard, D. C. Boat-building and boating. Scribner $1 n
- 11-26018 Practical book for amateurs. Gives clear and definite instruction for making and handling boats from raft to canoe, small sailboat and simple, rather crude motor boat. 238 diagrams and other drawings.

- 782.3 Chapin, A. A. Königskinder (Royal children).
Harper $1.25
- 11-26450 The libretto of Humperdinck's opera developed into a pretty fairy tale. The chief motives are given at beginnings and ends of chapters. Illustrations from photographs of scenes in the opera.
Lit. Digest, 43:1042.
- 793 Keyes, A. M. When mother lets us play. (When mother lets us)
Moffat 75c
- 11-22402 Contains charades, puzzles, conundrums, puppet shows, shadow plays, etc. Its stimulation of the child's originality and ingenuity is an excellent feature. Illustrated in black and white.
- 11-29999 Of this same series and price is Constance Johnson's When mother lets us keep pets (636), which contains simple, practical advice to children on selection, care and feeding of dogs, cats, rabbits, guinea pigs, mice, squirrels, parrots, canaries and other birds, chickens, ponies, goats, aquarium fish and "little wild things." Short bibliography. Illustrated attractively from line drawings.
Keyes, N. Y. Times Rev. 16:555, Sept. 17, '11.
- 796 Grinnell, G. B. & Swan, E. L. ed. Harper's camping and scouting; an outdoor guide for American boys.

- 11-12259 A comprehensive compilation of practical, clear and detailed information on all phases of camp life, mountaineering, Boy Scouts, open-air life for girls, caravaning, fishing, hut and tent building, and the organization and conduct of large camps. Sufficiently comprehensive to serve as a manual for camp directors. Well and helpfully illustrated. A. L. A. Booklist
Lit. Digest, 42:1208; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:416, July 2, '11; Rev. of Rev. 44:123.
- 812.49 c Arkwright, Ruth. Brownikins and other fancies;
music by J. W. Wilson; illus. by Charles Robinson.
Stokes $1.50
- 12-39027 Contents: Brownikins; Bibi; St Nicholas; Fairy bells; Baby New Year.
Operettas to be acted by children, excellent in music and text. The colored plates on dark brown mounts and small colored line drawings are admirable.
- 12-35375 For younger children is Lady Florence Bell's The singing circle (Longmans $1.25 n, 784.4), an attractive picture book of action songs, other songs and dances, with words and music, and diagrams for figures. Includes nursery and other familiar rhymes, with a selection from Stevenson's Child's garden of verses.
Bell, Spec. 107:1015, Sept. 9, '11.
- 910 Dana, R. H. jr. Two years before the mast.
Houghton $1.50 n
- 11-35887 Attractive new edition containing author's supplement describing a visit to California, introduction and additional chapter by his son, appendix describing the parts of a ship, maps, portrait of author and index. Illustrated by E. Boyd Smith, with 8 colored plates and black-and-white chapter head drawings.
- 11-26924 It is not easy to choose between this and the edition of Macmillan ($2 n), which lacks the new material, but has a concluding chapter on the sailor's life by the author and a brief introduction by Sir Wilfred Grenfell. 19 effective colored illustrations by Charles Pears are rather richer in color and more realistic in style than those by E. Boyd Smith.

914.92 a Perkins, Mrs L. F. The Dutch twins.

Houghton $1 n

11-25745 Exceptionally delightful book for little folks, describing child life in Holland. Charminglly illustrated from author's crayon sketches.

11-23499 Marta in Holland (Little people everywhere, Little 60c) by E. B. MacDonald and Julia Dalrymple, is for children somewhat older. It imparts by means of a pleasant little story, information about country, people, customs, history and art. 9 good halftones.

940.1 Tappan, E. M. When knights were bold.

Houghton $2 n

11-28668 Spirited and interesting picture of life in castles and manors, monasteries and towns during the middle ages. The description of the customs of knights is especially full. Many illustrations are from contemporary pictures.

Independent, 71:1311; Lit. Digest, 44:442.

944 Macgregor, Mary. The story of France told to boys and girls. Stokes $2.50 n

A11-2640 Simply written, interesting history from earliest times to establishment of present republic. 20 effective colored illustrations and a table of kings.

Sat. R. 112:212; Spec. 107:528, Oct. 7, '11.

FAIRY AND FOLK TALES

843.89 c France, Anatole, pseud. (J. A. Thibault). Honey-bee; a translation by Mrs John Lane; illustrated by Florence Lundborg. Lane $1.50 n

12-801 Tells how lovely, golden-haired Honey-bee and George of Blanchelande ventured to the crystal lake, where George was captured by the nixies and Honey-bee by the kind dwarfs. Imaginative and poetical in style and pervaded by a humorous and wise philosophy. The illustrations, artistic in conception and coloring, are very satisfying.

Acad. 81:sup. Dec. 9, '11, p. 7; Outlook (Eng.) 28:752; Spec. 107:935, Dec. 2, '11.

398.2 Grimm, J. L. K. & W. K. The fairy tales of the brothers Grimm; illus. by Arthur Rackham; tr. by Mrs Edgar Lucas. Doubleday $1.50 n

W10-177 A good selection from Grimm's tales, with 12 fascinating colored illustrations and 55 in black and white.

839.7369 Lagerlöf, S. O. L. Further adventures of Nils.

Doubleday $1.20 n

11-24098 Continues The wonderful adventures of Nils in 22 freshly and vividly imagined stories. Nils, once an idle, cruel boy, is finally restored to his family, his character transformed by his flight with wild geese over Sweden. Reflects love of country and Swedish life and customs.

Bookman, 34:555.

823.89 b Leamy, Edmund. The golden spears and other fairy tales. FitzGerald $1 n

11-31506 Seven fairy tales founded on Irish folk-lore, told for children in colloquial, but poetic language, with a true zest for valor and magic, fairies and princesses. First American edition of an English book.

Bookman, 34:558; Lit. Digest, 44:28; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:823, Dec. 10, '11.

BIOGRAPHY FOR CHILDREN

Bayard. Hare, Christopher, pseud. Story of Bayard, the good knight, without fear and without reproach.

Dutton $2

12-35555 Relates with much sympathy and charm the life and exploits of the Chevalier Bayard, known as "The perfect knight." Based on the chronicles of the Loyal Servitor and others. 8 colored plates and head and tail pieces illustrative of contemporary devices, trappings etc. contribute to author's success in producing a picture of the period (1474-1524).

Spec. 107:833, Nov. 18, '11.

Dickens. Moses, Belle. Charles Dickens and his girl heroines. Appleton $1.25 n

11-25703 Successfully written biography for young people with the emphasis on Dickens's youth and the children in his novels. Gives some alluring extracts, without betraying plots.

c Edison. Meadowcroft, W. H. Boy's life of Edison. Harper $1.25

11-29109 Well-written, interesting and stimulating account of Edison's life and inventions, written by a member of his staff and published with his approval. Emphasizes his intense and constant application as a secret of his success. Portraits and other halftone reproductions.

225.92 Paul, St. Grierson, Mrs E. W. Life of St Paul for young people. Macmillan $1.50 n

12-35554 Simple, conservative narrative of the principal incidents in his career, related with a moderate and legitimate use of the imagination against a carefully described background. Well printed, but rather luridly illustrated.

Plutarch. Plutarch's lives for boys and girls; being selected lives freely retold by W. H. Weston; illus. in color by W. Rainey. Stokes $2.50 n W12-22 Twelve lives of Greeks and Romans, selected for their exhibition, by example or contrast, of patriotism, justice, courage, fortitude and temperance. Attractive in binding, printing and colored illustration.

CHILDREN'S STORIES

a Brown, E. A. Four Gordons. Lothrop $1.50

11-12124 Pleasant story of well-bred but human boys and girls, in its wholesomeness, character drawing and naturalness, recalling Miss Alcott's books.

- c Dix, B. M. Friends in the end. Holt $1.25 n
- 11-27803 Wholesome and interesting story of two girls of twelve and fourteen spending the summer on a White mountain farm. The situations are rather hackneyed but the treatment and atmosphere are fresh.
- Forrester, I. L. The Polly Page ranch club. (Polly Page ser.) Jacobs $1 n
- 11-35888 Follows The Polly Page yacht club. Tells how Polly and her girl friends earned money for their vacation on a Wyoming ranch, how they learned to ride ranch ponies, went camping in the mountains, helped to locate a dinosaur etc. The girls continue to be democratic, happy and full of energy.
- Hammond, Harold. West Point: its glamour and its grind. Cupples $1.25
- 10-7825 Gives in almost negligible story form, a simple, straightforward account of the routine of cadet life at the United States Military Academy. Illustrations from photographs.
- Hughes, Thomas. Tom Brown's school days; with an introd. by W. D. Howells; illus. by Louis Rhead. Harper $1.50
- 11-27304 Attractive edition of this famous English story, uniform with the Rhead editions of Robinson Crusoe, and Swiss family Robinson. Bound in red, well printed on good paper and illustrated in black and white from numerous drawings made at Rugby.
- Knipe, A. A. The last lap. Harper $1.25
- 11-24115 Continues the school career of Bunny Reeves, hero of the Captain of the eleven. Track athletics and an experience at a Barnegat life-saving station sustain the interest, and Bunny's manly attitude toward teachers, betting and professionalism in athletics distinguish this among recent school stories.
- 11-11447 Noteworthy for its emphasis on the importance of perseverance is J. P. Earl's School team on the diamond (Penn $1.25) a wholesome story of baseball, competition for an essay prize and a spring holiday at a sugar camp.
- 11-23836 R. H. Barbour's For Yardley (Appleton $1.50) is a jolly story of school fun and athletics. Some high spirited boys publish a clever burlesque of the school paper and play a practical joke on a rival school for which one boy suffers fitting punishment.
- Marryat, Frederick. The children of the New Forest, with illustrations by E. B. Smith. Holt $1.35 n
- A10-2445 New edition of this historical romance for young people, similar in its excellent form and illustration to the Holt edition of Cooper's Last of the Mohicans. 8 colored plates illustrate exciting scenes and a black and white drawing heads each chapter.
- a Mason, A. B. Tom Strong, Washington's scout. Holt $1.25 n
- 11-26252 Very readable, patriotic and informing story of the Revolution, relating the adventures of a boy and a trapper who serve as scouts. Washington, Hale, André, Arnold, Cornwallis and other historical characters are introduced naturally. Well-chosen illustrations, 6 maps.

Rankin, Mrs C. W. The castaways of Pete's Patch.
(Dandelion ser.) Holt $1.25 n

11-28814 Relates pleasingly and with humor the experiences of an unpremeditated camping party on the shores of Lake Michigan in which the four girls of Dandelion Cottage and The adopting of Rosa Marie and several grown ups are the leading figures. The characterization is good and the story is marred only by the introduction of one cheap and rather melodramatic episode.

Seton, E. T. Rolf in the woods; the adventures of a boy scout with Indian Quonab and little dog Skookum.
Doubleday $1.50 n

11-18473 Adventures of a fifteen year old orphan boy who lived for several years with an Indian in the North woods, joining with him in trapping, hunting, fishing, scouting, and fighting in the War of 1812. Dedicated to boy scouts and full of scout and wood lore. Full page and marginal drawings by author.

Ath. 1911, 2:525; N. Y. Times Rev. 16:495, Aug. 13, '11; Spec. 107:937, Dec. 2, '11.

c True, J. P. Scouting for Light Horse Harry. (Stuart Schuyler ser.) Little $1.50

b Wiggin, Mrs K. D. S. (Mrs George Riggs). Mother Carey's chickens. Houghton $1.25 n

11-23500 Attractive story of the widow and four children of a naval officer who come to live in a Maine village and spread happiness in spite of their poverty. Prettily illustrated. Appeared in Ladies' Home Journal.

Bookman, 34:184; Lit. Digest, 43:497; Nation, 93:241.

Bibliog & Standard books. BUYING LIST OF BOOKS FOR SMALL LIBRARIES

ZAIDEE BROWN

NEW EDITION REVISED BY CAROLINE WEBSTER

PREFACE

This list has been prepared for small village libraries in New York State, especially those that have only a little money to spend for books. Expensive books and expensive editions have therefore been omitted. It is believed that all the editions recommended, however, are fairly satisfactory. In many cases, the better edition and its price are given after the cheaper one.

In buying, it is suggested that about one-third of the money be spent for nonfiction, one-third for fiction and one-third for juvenile books (including both fiction and other works). Of course the proportion may be altered to suit circumstances. It is recommended that whenever possible books be bought in the special library binding.

The prices given are the regular list prices, and libraries usually get at least one-third discount, except in the case of net books, when it is usually 10 per cent. The total cost of the following books should be from one-fourth to one-third less than the total of prices as given. Often it is profitable to buy of dealers in second-hand books and remainders of editions. Responsible dealers will guarantee books to be in good condition.

As the following list is intended merely as an aid in buying, regular cataloging rules have not been followed. It should therefore not be used as a guide for the form of the author's name. When there is a choice, the best known form of the author's name or a well-known pseudonym is used.

In this edition there is no change from the character of the first list. The same general arrangement is retained and in most cases the same subject headings used. Every class is thoroughly revised and while there is a slight increase in the number of titles in sociology, science, useful arts and amusements, it results in a net increase of but 78 titles in the entire list. The fewest changes are in the list of children's books. One or two good inexpensive editions of standard books are added and some of the strikingly good stories of the past two years included. In a small library it is not important to buy the very latest child's story. To buy the best must be the aim of a library in the purchase of its children's books.

CLASSIFICATION

The Decimal classification numbers have been added. Except in travel and history, only three figures have been given, for in a small library it is not well to subdivide classes too much. Where two class numbers are given, the first is advised unless in a particular library books of the same sort have already been given the second. The object of classification is, of course, to bring like books together. When new numbers are given, they should correspond with those used previously; that is, a library using B for biography must continue to do so (unless all biography numbers are changed) when new biographies are added even though the A. L. A. Booklist or this list numbers it 921. The classification of children's books differs slightly from the classification used in the adult collection. It has been based largely upon the numbering used in Miss Kennedy's Suggestive list of children's books, the use of which list is advised in making a fuller selection of children's books. It will also be found most valuable in its descriptive notes on the books here listed.

MAGAZINES

The list of magazines included is that indexed in the Reader's guide abridged (H. W. Wilson Co., Minneapolis $4). There are, of course, more magazines in this list than a library with a book fund of $200 should subscribe for; but we recommend that a selection be made from this list and advise spending one-fifth of such an income on magazines and binding. In order to have State aid in the purchase of magazines they must be bound. The importance of magazines in a small library can not be too strongly emphasized. They do more to bring patrons to the library and to keep the library abreast of the times than any one other thing, and if a magazine index is purchased, which is strongly advised, the bound numbers are useful for reference.

In selecting magazines the library should consider the needs of the entire community and should see that as far as possible all tastes are considered. No matter how good they may be do not subscribe for three or four magazines which cover the same field while other fields are neglected.

In buying magazines it is well to purchase from one agent and have all subscriptions expire at the same time, preferably the first of January. In placing orders preference should of course be given to the local dealer if his prices are as low as those of the magazine agency. It is advisable to submit a list of desired magazines to an agency as well as to the local dealer before the order is placed. Following is a list of responsible dealers:

J. W. Grumiaux	Le Roy, N. Y.
J. M. Hanson	Lexington, Ky.
Henry Malkan	18 Broadway, New York City
W. H. Moore	Brockport, N. Y.
G. E. Stechert & Co.	151-55 W. 25th st., New York City
A. C. McClurg & Co.	Chicago, Ill.

EDITIONS

The Wisconsin Library Commission in the introduction to its Suggestive list of popular books for a small library says: "A very small library should have an unusual proportion of books by the old authors, commonly called 'standard.' As there are many editions of the best of such works, and as most of the cheap editions are very poor, book committees should be very careful in selecting the editions as well as in selecting the titles. To order simply Arabian nights in a cheap edition may bring a copy that is so poorly made as to be almost valueless or a full translation that is thoroughly objectionable."

In making this list an effort has been made to select the most satisfactory of the inexpensive editions of the standard authors. In the case of libraries having more means it will sometimes be found better to buy more expensive editions. In buying the copyrighted books of the list there is usually no choice.

In buying books in science, political and social economy and the useful arts, book committees should always buy the latest editions. In this particular we can not emphasize too strongly the advice which has been quoted for several years in the Prefatory note to the Best books list from the Journal of New Jersey Libraries, October 1903: "Do not buy subscription books; avoid books issued in parts; ask advice before purchasing expensive reprints.

"Finest Orations, Noblest Essays, Royal Flim Flams, Huge Anthologies and the like all come to the secondhand man. Get them of him, if you must. In a small library they are generally almost useless. In subscription books, cases like this are not uncommon. Maspero wrote several large and learned volumes, in French, on Egypt and Chaldea. They were translated and published in three or four volumes in England, costing libraries in this country about $5 each. An American publisher reprints them in 12 small volumes with a few additional colored cuts, on heavier paper and in larger type and offers them through agents for $84 — and libraries buy them!

"Do not buy sets or complete editions of authors. Buy the volumes you need and as you need them. A complete set always includes several volumes you do not need. Specify the edition you wish of standard books when you can, unless you find a bookseller able and willing to select them wisely for you."

OTHER AIDS TO BOOK SELECTION

The State Library will give further help at any time in selecting books, by giving lists of the best books on a certain subject, or by looking over lists of books that a library expects to buy. On request, it will mention other books of the same sort that are preferable to those on the list submitted, if such are known.

In so short a list as this many books must be omitted that are fully as desirable as those included. The compilers of this list grant that to be most useful any catalog of book titles should be annotated. In the present case, however, the selection has been rigid, the number of titles purposely so small as to prove no embarrassment to even the smallest library, and it is believed that the very inclusion in a classified list like this is sufficient annotation for the present purpose. Those wishing longer lists or descriptive notes on books in this list, should consult the following:

BOOKS FOR ADULTS; ARRANGED BY SUBJECT

This part of the list has been made rather long, in proportion to the others, to allow choice to suit local conditions, and also that the list may serve as an aid in buying for some time. Even a very small library should buy some books from each group, but those chosen will vary to suit different places.

The list includes more books on the subjects that experience has shown to be popular, such as books on animals and travel; and fewer books on the subjects for which there is less demand, such as history. That is, the choice is based on probable popularity, rather than on the absolute value of the books. The list is made for a small village library whose work is mainly circulating books for general reading.

Additional books on the different subjects will be found in the list of children's books. Many books are equally interesting to children and adults.

The A. L. A. catalog and Supplement and the annual Best books will furnish additional titles in any subject desired.

This list is arranged under the following headings, in the order named:

Reference books	Housekeeping and cooking
Conduct, mental hygiene, etc.	Sewing and fancy work
Religion	Home decoration
Social conditions, citizenship, law etc.	Domestic architecture and building
Education (including home training of children)	Carpentry and handicraft
Etiquet	Art
Holidays	Music
Writing and speaking English	Games and amusements
Science, miscellaneous	Literature
Geology	Essays and miscellaneous prose
Botany	Poetry
Animals	Plays
Insects	Travel and description
Birds	Biography, collective
Industries, inventions, electricity	Biography, individual
Medicine, hygiene, sanitation and gymnastics	Indians
Agriculture	History (except American)
Gardening	American history
	Fiction

History (except American)

The list on history is very brief, and those wishing additional titles should consult the A. L. A. Catalog (part I, pages 265-72 and pages 335-66) and the Supplement, 1904-11 (pages 181-84 and pages 226-44). There is usually little demand for history for general reading in proportion to the demands for other books. In time, a library should own the best standard histories; but these may be added by degrees, and the titles are available in other lists, such as the A. L. A. Catalog.

These books edited by Lang are made up of extracts from the so-called "colored" fairy books, edited by him. The original books, called the Blue fairy book, Green fairy book, etc., are published by Longmans at $1.60 and $2. They are reprinted with poorer paper and print by Burt at $1 and by Grosset at 25c. The Red and the Violet books may be obtained of Longmans in library binding, which is very desirable.

- 398 Lansing, M. F. ed. Fairy tales. 2v. Ginn 35c ea.
- 398 Longmans fairy tale books: (supplementary readers)
as follows: Cinderella, 20c; Red Riding Hood, 20c;
Jack the Giant Killer, 20c; Sleeping beauty, 20c;
Whittington, 30c; Princess on the glass hill, 30c;
Prince Darling, 40c.

These are small books, strongly bound, made up from the Blue fairy book, edited by Lang. They are excellent for little children.

PERIODICALS RECOMMENDED FOR THE SMALLEST LIBRARIES¹

American Magazine. (Monthly) N. Y. 1905-1912. v.60-75. $1.50

Indexed in Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged.

Continuation of Leslie's Magazine. Pays especial attention to political reform movements, sociological matters and biography but also contains good short stories and at least one serial of merit. Generally considered by librarians to be one of the best of the cheaper magazines.

Atlantic Monthly. Boston. 1857-1912. v.1-110. $4

Indexed in Poole, Abridged Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged.

Probably the most uniformly excellent from a literary standpoint of any American magazine. Unusually good fiction and poetry, excellent literary criticism, and one of the few American magazines which deliberately encourages the general essay. Much attention given also to political, sociological, economic and philosophical subjects treated in a scholarly but semipopular manner. Excellent paper and typography but no illustrations and few advertisements. Of limited circulation but useful in almost any library for reference purposes and usually read by at least the more thoughtful people in any community.

¹The titles in this list have been selected by Miss Caroline Webster and Mr Asa Wynkoop of the New York State Library, from a longer list compiled by Mr Frank K. Walter of the New York State Library School, who is also responsible for the annotations. Mr Walter's full list has been printed and is for sale by the American Library Association.

Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine. N. Y. 1881–1912. v.23–84. $4

Continuation of Scribner's Monthly.

Indexed in Poole, Abridged Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide, and Readers' Guide Abridged.

A thoroughly high-grade general magazine. History, art and travel receive much attention while the fiction is almost always of high grade and interesting. The illustrations are particularly good. Wood-cuts, engraved half-tones, and color plates are features. The fiction makes it popular for reading room use or circulation and the nonfiction is generally of decided reference value. It should be noted that volume 1 of the Century (new ser.) succeeds volume 22 of Scribner's Monthly and is consequently listed in Poole and elsewhere as volume 23 of the entire series.

Indexed in Poole, Abridged Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged.

The official organ of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle. Lists of required reading with questions and review outlines and suggested programs for local circles are regular features. Includes most subjects treated in general magazines with the exception of fiction. The intentionally simple treatment of topics makes it particularly useful to readers of but little formal education.

Current Literature. (Monthly) N. Y. 1888–1912. v.1–53. $3

Indexed in Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged.

The subtitle, "a review of the times," indicates the general character of the magazine. Includes as general divisions, Review of the world, Persons in the foreground, Finance and industry, Science and discovery, Religion and ethics, Music and drama, Literature and art, Recent poetry, Recent fiction and the critics. Frequent condensed or summarized articles from recent books or periodicals. Extended criticism, with frequent quotations from recent drama. In plan and scope resembles both the Literary Digest and Review of Reviews. Good half-tone illustrations.

Educational Review. (Monthly) N. Y. 1891–1912. v.1–44. $3

Indexed in Poole, Abridged Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged. There is also an Analytical Index to volumes 1–25 (1891–Mar. 1903). $3

"On the whole the best educational journal now published but deals only with methods of teaching in high schools and colleges and offers little or nothing to the grade teacher. The contributors are for the most part recognized authorities on their respective subjects. Treatment of subjects generally aims to be scholarly and not technical, but both subject and treatment are beyond the average teacher in the small city and town." Jones

Everybody's Magazine. (Monthly) N. Y. 1899–1912. v.I–28. $1.50

Indexed in Abridged Poole, Library Index and Readers' Guide (since Jan.1909).

Ranks with the American and McClure's as one of the better cheap magazines and like them devotes much space to movements for social and political reform.

Harper's Monthly Magazine. N. Y. 1850–1912. v.I–124. $4

Indexed in Poole, Abridged Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged.

Ranks with the Century and Scribner's as an excellent general magazine, and has about the same general scope, dealing more with travel and popular science and rather less with history, biography and general literary criticism than the Century. The short stories are good and the serials usually appear later in book form. The illustrations are very good. The color plates have improved greatly in the past few years. Complete bound sets of Harper's are common and cheap but a full set is seldom necessary and requires at least an Abridged Poole's Index to make its contents accessible.

Independent. (Weekly) N. Y. 1848–1912. v.I–73. $3

Originally a religious weekly but now a weekly magazine with a distinctly ethical tendency but nonsectarian bias. Current events and important world movements are discussed in signed articles by prominent men and women. Both sides of important questions are usually represented. Literature and the drama receive considerable attention and there are numerous unsigned book reviews of varying length. The scope has been widened to include nearly all important social activities, and the reference value, particularly of the last ten or twelve volumes, is high. The editorials are candid and fairly impartial.

Ladies' Home Journal. (Monthly) Philadelphia 1883–1912. v.I–29. $1.50

Indexed in Readers' Guide, Library Index and Readers' Guide Abridged.

The most widely read and widely imitated of any woman's magazine and always popular for reading room use. Serials and short stories are of undoubted moral tone but of varying literary merit, and frequent articles on biography and current social movements. Much addicted to reform articles of all kinds from hints on etiquette for young girls to reform of educational institutions from primary school to college. All phases of domestic economy are treated, from cooking and fashions to plans of moderate priced houses. Distinctly popular in appeal and sometimes so obvious in its advice as to irritate people of broad training and culture, but on the whole it exerts a very wholesome influence.

McClure's Magazine. (Monthly) N. Y. 1893–1912. v.I–38(?). $1.50

Indexed in Poole, Abridged Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged.

Considered by many the best of the cheaper magazines for library use. Similar in scope and general character to the American magazine and Everybody's. Biography and history have been prominent, especially in the earlier volumes. In later years the magazine has become more aggressive in reform movements, but while often partisan it is seldom hysterical or morbid. Its articles on political and social affairs are often useful in reference work. The fiction maintains a high average of interest as well as of literary merit. "A first-class second-class magazine."

National Geographic Magazine. (Monthly) Washington 1888-1912. v.1-23. $2.50

Indexed in Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide Abridged, and Readers' Guide (since Jan.1909).

Published by the National Geographic Society and sent free to members. Deals with manners and customs of different people, travel and description, natural resources and commercial activities in a broad sense. Reliable and scientific, interesting and non-technical. Numerous half-tone illustrations from photographs. A great aid in teaching geography and commercial geography and of interest to general readers.

North American Review. (Monthly) N. Y. 1815-

Indexed in Poole, Abridged Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged. Semi-monthly from September1906-August1907 (v.183-186).

An admirable review of topics of current importance by recognized authorities, political and social matters receiving the most prominence. The occasional book reviews are excellent. The whole set is in constant use by debaters and students of economics and sociology. In recent years it has been under the same general editorship as Harper's Weekly and reflects something of the same general editorial policy.

Outlook. (Weekly) N. Y. 1893-1912. v.48-101. $3

Continuation of Christian Union which comprises v.1-47 of the series.

Indexed in Poole, Abridged Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide Abridged.

One of the best known weeklies dealing with current events. Still maintains a distinctly religious tone though it is practically free from sectarian or theological bias. The regular numbers are chiefly devoted to discussions of social and political matters with one or two literary articles; the monthly "magazine numbers" contain more illustrations, fiction, and more matter of a general literary character. The book reviews are generally fair but rather colorless, especially the briefer ones. The editorials are always worthy of attention but within the last four or five years have become known as the expression of the personalities of the leading editors rather than impartial discussions. Shares with the Independent the distinction of being one of the most timely reference aids on current questions.

Review of Reviews. American. (Monthly) 1890–1912. v.1–46. $3

Indexed in Poole, Abridged Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged.

Original and condensed or digested articles on current movements. Particular attention to politics and sociology, but literature, drama and art also included. The "Progress of the world" section is a good summary of events of the month, American and foreign. The "Cartoons of the month" make it popular in reading rooms. Articles are too brief for students but useful for information, too recent to be present in more formal articles or books.

St Nicholas. N. Y. 1873–1912. v.1–39. $3

Indexed in Readers' Guide, Library Index and Readers' Guide Abridged.

A popular, well-illustrated magazine for young people. Short stories, serials, articles on history, biography, travel and nature study. Special pages for small children. The articles are almost without exception well written, wholesome and interesting. Back volumes are well worth getting. There is a general index ($4) to v. 1–27.

Scientific American. (Weekly) N. Y. Series 1. 1845–1859. v.1–12; Series 2. 1859–1912. v.1–107. $3

Indexed in Engineering Index, Library Index, Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged.

"The purpose of this journal is to record accurately, simply and interestingly, the world's progress in scientific knowledge and industrial achievement." Includes also articles on anthropology and archeology. Brief descriptions, with some illustrations, of "recently patented inventions" and reviews of new scientific books. As a scientific newspaper it is much read by men and older boys.

Scribner's Magazine. (Monthly) N. Y. 1887–1912. v.1–52. $3

Indexed in Poole, Abridged Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged.

Somewhat smaller and cheaper than the Century and Harper's Magazine with which it ranks in quality, general scope and illustrations. Many of the articles, particularly on art and general literature, are of permanent reference value. Should not be confused with Scribner's Monthly, the predecessor of the Century.

Survey. (Weekly) N. Y. 1897–1912. v.1–28. $2

Formerly the Charities Review and Charities and the Commons.

Indexed in Poole, Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged.

"A journal of constructive philanthropy" dealing with all movements, public and private, which aim at social improvement. Earnest but not partisan, optimistic but practical, inclined to favor labor as against capital, especially in recent volumes, but generally fair in its presentations. Much used by high school debaters and extensively read particularly in cities and the large towns.

World's Work. (Monthly) N. Y. 1900-1912. v.1-24. $3

Indexed in Poole, Abridged Poole, Library Index, Readers' Guide and Readers' Guide Abridged.

Made up of comments and papers on current events and current movements. "The march of events" is composed of brief well-written editorials on persons and occurrences of present prominence. The general articles are fresh and interesting and touch on the moral and intellectual welfare of the country as well as on its material prosperity. Excellent half-tone portraits and other illustrations. Covers, without duplicating or imitating, much the same general ground as the Review of Reviews.

A SELECTION FROM THE BEST BOOKS OF 1912 WITH NOTES

PREFATORY NOTE

To the Librarian:

This is an annotated list of 250 books published in 1912 and recommended to the small public libraries of the State. To aid librarians who desire help in making a first selection of a smaller number of books from the 250 here listed, about 100 have been marked with a *. These are merely suggested for first purchase, as it is of course impossible for any book board to determine what large group of books is absolutely the best, still less could it make a selection which would fit the needs of every small library in the State. The librarian may find that a number of the unmarked books, many of which are of the highest merit, meet much better the demands of her community. Some excellent publications of the year have been reluctantly omitted from the list, either because their cost is greater than most small libraries can afford, or because their subject matter is highly specialized and limited in interest to the very few; or sometimes a good book has not been included because an equally satisfactory or better treatment of the subject has previously been recommended, and its space has been utilized to include a book which deals with a fresh subject or supersedes an older treatment.

The discontinuance of the publication of the annual Tentative list of best books necessitated a new plan of obtaining outside opinions on the books of the year. Tentative lists on various subjects were therefore prepared and sent to specialists and librarians for votes, almost all of whom cordially responded. The book board wishes to express its gratitude for the prompt and valuable cooperation it received from many busy people whom it would wish to mention by name if space permitted.

We can not too strongly emphasize the advice which we have for several years quoted in full from the Journal of New Jersey libraries, October 1903: Do not buy subscription books; avoid books issued in parts; ask advice before purchasing expensive reprints.

Finest Orations, Noblest Essays, Royal Flim Flams, Huge Anthologies, and the like all come to the secondhand man. Get them of him, if you must. In a small library they are generally almost useless. In subscription books, cases like this are not uncommon. Maspero wrote several large and learned volumes, in French, on Egypt and Chaldea. They were translated and published in three or four volumes in England, costing libraries in this country about $5 each. An American publisher reprints them in 12 small volumes with a few additional colored cuts, on heavier paper and in larger type and offers them through agents for $84 — and libraries buy them!

Do not buy "sets" or complete editions of authors. Buy the volumes you need and as you need them. A complete set always includes several volumes you do not need. Specify the edition you wish of standard books when you can, unless you find a bookseller able and willing to select them wisely for you.

While this list has been prepared with special reference to smaller public libraries it will also be of much service to schools. Not all the books listed, however, are recommended for school use. There are some books in fiction which have not enough positive value either as literature or as a spur to historical study to justify their purchase for a school, yet which serve a legitimate purpose in the public library by providing wholesome entertainment for a very different class of readers. All titles under the heading "Children's books" are recommended for those school libraries which undertake to provide wholesome entertainment as well as useful information.

In accordance with the precedent of former years only the more popular type of book dealing with technical subjects has been recommended here. Libraries in need of more advanced technical literature will find the annual list prepared by the applied science department of Pratt Institute Free Library, Brooklyn, entitled Technical books of 1912, sent free on application, a most valuable aid.

This list has been prepared under the general direction of Mary E. Eastwood of the State Library staff.

REFERENCE BOOKS

- 016 A. L. A. catalog, 1904-1911. Class list: 3000 titles for a popular library; edited by E. L. Bascom.
A. L. A. Pub. Board $1.50
- 12-16399 Covers the period from the A. L. A. catalog of 1904 through 1911. Each title has full imprint, brief descriptive note, decimal classification number and suggested subject headings. Special lists of children's books (372 titles), of books in the A. L. A. catalog of 1904 now (1912) out of print, and of books in that catalog since issued in new editions. Separate subject and author indexes.
- 028.5 Olcott, F. J. The children's reading.
Houghton $1.25 n
- 12-27449 A trustworthy guide for parents and librarians, by an expert on juvenile literature. Discusses tersely and readably the influences of good and bad books, children's tastes, and the literature best suited to different ages. Contains list of 100 good stories to tell and an extended purchase list with directions for buying.
- 8-36693 Course of study for normal school pupils on literature for children (Modern Amer. lib. economy, Elm Tree Press, paper $1 025) by J. S. Harron, Corinne Bacon and J. C. Dana, gives twelve lessons on children's literature and the tastes of children in reading including carefully made "tests" and lists of books. Rather expensive but useful both to teachers and librarians.
Olcott, Lit. Digest, 45:1078; Outlook, 102:864.
- 029.6 Orcutt, W. D. The writer's desk book. Stokes 60c n
- 12-20803 Excellent, compact reference work giving information on punctuation, capitalization, spelling, division of words, indention, spacing, italics, abbreviations, accents, numerals, faulty diction, letter writing, postal regulations and miscellaneous matters.
- 12-25112 This is admirably supplemented by Eleanor Banks's Correct business and legal forms; a reference manual for stenographers, secretaries and reporters (Putnam $1.25 n 808.6), which deals more fully with many of these subjects, with all kinds of business correspondence and adds sections on court documents, legal papers, wills and other forms. Both books are indexed.
Orcutt, Independent, 73:1260.
- 203 Schaff-Herzog encyclopedia. New Schaff-Herzog encyclopedia of religious knowledge; ed. by S. M. Jackson. 12 v. v. 12. Funk $5 ea.
- 8-20152 Concludes this important work begun in 1908. Based on the third German edition of Realencyklopädie für protestantische theologie und kirche, articles from which have been revised and condensed with new material added. Involves a wide range of subjects, theological, ecclesiastical, historical, biographical, practical, covering more territory than any recent work of wide scope. Written from the Protestant and liberal viewpoint and of value to American and English students. Useful bibliographies.
Am. Jour. Theol. 16:495; Nation, 94:545.
- 770 Jones, B. E. ed. Cassell's cyclopaedia of photography.
Cassell $3.75 n
- 12-1233 Excellent reference work on photographic practice, the result of the cooperation of many experts. Aims to include every accepted photographic term and to survey the whole province of photography, gives particular attention to needs of working-photographer, amateur and professional. Contains biographies of men not now living who have claims to distinction in this field. Profusely illustrated by 4 color, 19 monochrome plates and many cuts in text.

822.33 Onions, C. T. A Shakespeare glossary.

Oxford Univ. 85c n

W12-65 The best Shakspeare glossary of moderate compass on the market.
Nation, 94:422.

Compiled in the light of researches made for the great Oxford English dictionary of which the author has been an editor for fifteen years. Gives exact references and illustrative examples.
Ath. 1912, 1:139; N. Y. Times, 17:74, Feb. 11, '12.

PHILOSOPHY, ETHICS, CHILD PROBLEMS

110 Bergson, H. L. An introduction to metaphysics; tr. by T. E. Hulme. Putnam 75c n

12-26704 A lucid exposition of the starting point of M. Bergson's metaphysics — that from intuition one can pass to analysis, but not from analysis to intuition — and, incidentally, of what he means by intuition. Ath. 1913, 1:304.

Authorized translation, revised by the author with additional material, of the essay first published in France, 1903.

Independent, 73:1259; N. Y. Times, 17:665, Nov. 17, '12.

136.7 *McKeever, W. A. Farm boys and girls. (Rural sci. ser.) Macmillan $1.50 n

12-5544 Practical discussion and suggestions on education, mental and spiritual, home and family life, reading, religion, social and business training, etc. Bibliographies and interesting illustrations.
Annals Am. Acad. 44:173; Dial, 53:360.

136.77 Puffer, J. A. The boy and his gang. Houghton $1 n

12-6234 Suggestive, interesting and constructive study of the gang instinct, predatory impulse, wanderlust etc. in boys of adolescent age. By an experienced worker among boys. 7 illustrations.
Am. Jour. Sociol. 18:272; Dial, 52:360.

172.1 Baldwin, S. E. The relations of education to citizenship. (Yale lectures on the responsibility of citizenship) Yale Univ. Press $1.15 n

12-23901 Six lectures by the governor of Connecticut (1912) outlining the part which colleges should take in preparing students for citizenship and the responsibilities of the college graduate as voter and private citizen, office-holder, creator of public opinion and upholder of Christian ideals.

Annals Am. Acad. 47:289; Ath. 1912, 2:757; N. Y. Times, 17:667, Nov. 17, '12.

176.5 *Addams, Jane. A new conscience and an ancient evil. Macmillan $1 n

12-8827 In its presentation of facts connected with the system of commercialized vice, no more convincing, sane, startling yet optimistic volume is likely to reach the public than this.

Athenaeum, 1912, 1:592.

Appeared in part in McClure's Magazine.

Am. Jour. Sociol. 18:271; Nation, 94:594; No. American R. 195:358.

RELIGION

- 230 Dinsmore, C. A. The new light on the old truth.
Houghton $1.25 n
- 12-23955 Seven addresses by the pastor of the First Congregational Church of Waterbury, Conn., on the modifications of doctrine resulting from modern criticism. Made to a group of business and professional men originally, they have a directness and practicality which will appeal to readers caring little for most religious works.
- 12-1401 S. D. McConnell's Christianity (Longmans $1.20 n) contains an incisive statement of some changes in belief wrought by the new theology with critical but hopeful discussions of the condition of the church and personal Christianity today. Chapters 5 to 10 embody almost entirely author's earlier book, Evolution of immortality, which presented his theory of conditional immortality.
Dinsmore, Independent, 74:153.
- 232 * Grenfell, Sir W. T. The adventure of life. (William Belden Noble lectures, 1911) Houghton $1.25 n
- 12-6247 Four stimulating addresses dealing vigorously and pungently with Christianity as an adventure worth testing for its value to the individual and society.
Dial, 52:325; N. Y. Times, 17:158, Mar. 24, '12; Outlook, 100:158 and 101:43.
- 232.9 * Gilbert, G. H. Jesus. Macmillan $1.50 n
- 12-21978 Admirable popular study of Jesus and the gospels generally in accord with the results of modern Biblical scholarship. First, sources are discussed and their historic contribution estimated, followed by illuminating treatments of the "historical" and "legendary" Jesus.
Am. Jour. Theol. 17:130, Bib. Wor'd, n. s. 41: 68; Nation, 96:418.
- 237.2 Brown, W. A. The Christian hope. (Studies in theology) Scribner 75c n
- 12-18496 Tells in clear and simple language the story of the rise, history, and the present state of the Christian hope of immortality. Author is (1912) professor of systematic theology in Union Theological Seminary.
A little masterpiece, making superfluous for the present any other vindication of the claims of immortality.
Prof. George Herbert Palmer.

- 261 * Rauschenbusch, Walter. Christianizing the social order. Macmillan $1.50 n
- 12-26399 Brilliant, searching and constructive sequel to author's Christianity and the social crisis. Fearlessly attacks capitalism and points out that it is the work of Christianity through a form of Christian socialism "to regenerate morally the controlling forces of economic life."
- 12-13475 R. F. Cutting's The church and society (Amer. social progress ser. Macmillan $1.25 n) shows how the church can be and is being a force in social uplift, illustrating by specific examples of what some churches are doing. Discusses the church's relation to the public school, police, public health, children, and formation of public opinion.

- 13-1088 In Charles Stelzle's American social and religious conditions (Revell $1 n), the problems of city and country life, women and children in industry, the immigrant, negro, Indian, Spanish-American, new frontier, etc. are presented in detail with the facts both tabulated and diagrammed and a reckoning of both religious and social factors. Concludes with definite, constructive suggestions to the church.

SOCIOLOGY

- 321.4 * Munro, W. B. ed. The initiative, referendum and recall. (National municipal league ser.)
Appleton $1.50 n
- 12-15182 Collection of fifteen papers by Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson, A. Lawrence Lowell, George H. Haynes and other authorities, explaining the methods and development of direct legislation, and presenting the good and bad features of its operation in various places throughout the country.
- 12-22027 Initiative, referendum and recall published as the September 1912 number of the Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science (pap. $1) has a precisely similar scope being a collection of 18 papers, duplicating Munro in two cases only.
- 12-863 Documents on the state-wide initiative, referendum and recall compiled by C. A. Beard and B. E. Shultz (Macmillan $2 n) includes all the state constitutional amendments on the subject in force August 1911, those now (1912) pending adoption, several of the most significant statutes elaborating constitutional provisions, some illustrative papers showing system in ordinary municipalities and commission-governed cities and 6 important judicial decisions. Contains also a valuable historical and descriptive introduction.
- 12-15186 D. F. Wilcox's Government by all the people (Macmillan $1.50 n) is an ardent defense of direct legislation by a strong partisan. Based on the "conception that government is a public cooperation, not a private industry" and confined to theory. Decidedly biased but interesting.

321.8 Weyl, W. E. The new democracy. Macmillan $2 n

12-2074 An analysis of past and present political and economic conditions and tendencies in the United States which point, the author thinks, to the development of a new "social democracy" through universal education, government ownership and regulation. Brilliant and stimulating though neither novel nor unprejudiced.

Am. Jour. Sociol. 18:262; Annals, Am. Acad. 44:199; Dial, 52:396; Lit. Digest, 44:828; Nation, 94:412; Survey, 28:634.

324.3 Goodwin, G. D. Anti-suffrage; ten good reasons.

Duffield 50c n

12-10644 Defines the position of antisuffragists in America by stating briefly and clearly their reasons for opposing the unrestricted franchise for women.

12-1074 Of Dr Kaethe Schirmacher's The modern woman's rights movement; an historical survey, translated from the second German edition by C. C. Eckhardt (Macmillan $1.50 n), the Nation, 94:369, says: A veritable cyclopedia of information, carefully gathered from authoritative sources regarding the status and progress of the woman's rights movement throughout the world. Dr Schirmacher writes as an advocate, and is at times pretty caustic in her treatment of conservatives and opponents.

325.73 * Roberts, Peter. The new immigration.

Macmillan $1.60

12-21945 A vivid, readable and appreciative portrayal of the immigrant from southeastern Europe, his quality, industrial efficiency, social life, and relation to the native born American. Based on authoritative reports, wide personal observations, and experiences of other social workers, and presented largely by means of anecdote and incident.

Nation, 96:287; N. Y. Times, 17:573, Oct. 13, '12; Outlook, 102:596; Survey, 29:206.

327.73 Kawakami, K. K. American-Japanese relations.

Revell $2 n

12-35359 A Japanese journalist's interpretation and defense of Japan's foreign policies in regard to Manchuria, Korea, and the immigration question, written with the avowed purpose of dispelling the growing misunderstanding by the American people.

Annals Am. Acad. 44:166; Dial, 53:239; Nation, 95:566; N. Y. Times, 17:95, Feb. 25, '12; Outlook, 101:316.

329 Stanwood, Edward. History of the presidency from 1897 to 1909. Houghton $1.75 n

12-23681 Continuation, on the same plan, of author's History of the presidency published 1898, Houghton $2.50 (see A. L. A. catalog, 1904). It covers in a compact and impartial manner, the presidential campaigns of 1900, 1904 and 1908 and the important political events of the period. Concludes with a chapter on "The evolution of the presidency."

- 331.1 * Beman, L. T. comp. Selected articles on the compulsory arbitration of industrial disputes. (Debaters' handbk ser.) H. W. Wilson $1 n
- 12-1499 Contains briefs for debate; bibliography (28p.); articles (general, affirmative and negative), quoted in whole or in part, from recent periodicals, books, pamphlets and government publications.
- 331.8 Washington, B. T. The man farthest down. Doubleday $1.50 n
- 12-22002 Describes author's seven weeks' investigation of Europe's lowest laboring classes, and contrasts the more favorable conditions under which the negro lives and works in America.

- 335 Cross, I. B. The essentials of socialism. Macmillan $1 n
- 12-5830 Planned as a handbook for the reader or a textbook for the classroom, this admirably dispassionate, clear and concise little volume endeavors to tell precisely what socialism is and to give fairly the arguments for and against its characteristic doctrines. Excellent bibliographies.
- 12-16985 John Spargo's Applied socialism (Huebsch $1.50 n) consists of lectures delivered at the Rand School of Social Science, 1908-9, which present with warm enthusiasm an interpretation of the principles of socialism in their application to the state, property, personal liberty, the family, religious freedom, etc.
- 12-6101 Socialism and character by V. D. Scudder (Houghton $1.50 n) is written in attractive literary style enriched by apt quotations. It is replete with stimulating and suggestive ideas; and while it can not appeal to the class-conscious revolutionary political socialist, it will undoubtedly supply the needs for just such a discussion as Christian socialists and others have long felt.

- 352.02 Bruère, Henry. The new city government. Appleton $1.50 n
- 12-23480 Practical, authoritative discussion, based on a careful survey of ten commission-governed cities, tracing the history of the commission government movement and comparing and tabulating methods and results. Author, director of the N. Y. Bureau of Municipal Research (1912).
- 12-26006 W. B. Munro's Government of American cities (Macmillan $2.25 n 352.073) is a treatise of the highest competence and value upon the powers and duties of the administrative organs of American municipal corporations.
American Historical Review, 18:435.

Authoritative both for the history and development of our city government and for the presentation of the considerations for and against proposed changes in it. Nation, 96:84. Author is (1912) professor of municipal government at Harvard.

- 12-27210 C. A. Beard's American city government (Century $2 n 352.073) is more popular and more superficial, supplying in convenient and readable form information on the newer experiments in municipal democracy with emphasis on the social and economic rather than political functions, which were treated in author's companion volume, American government and politics. Illustrations from photographs.

- 12-12163 Efficiency in city government 352.073 published by the American Academy of Political and Social Science at $1, also as the May 1912 number of the Annals, consists of papers by experts on the application of the principles of efficiency to the various departments of city government, on training and on bureaus of municipal research.

- 353 * Haskin, F. J. The American government.

Lippincott $1 n

- 12-35365 Account in everyday language of the actual working of the United States government, presenting many interesting items of information not easily gathered elsewhere. Each chapter has been read and approved by the head official of the department or bureau whose work is described therein. Twenty-four halftone photographs.

Ath. 1912, 2:59; Dial, 52:363; Nation, 94:369.

- 353.9775 McCarthy, Charles. The Wisconsin idea.

Macmillan $1.50 n

- 12-7674 An enthusiastic exposition, by an ardent advocate, of the recent progressive legislation in Wisconsin which has aimed to improve the economic and political conditions of its citizens. Quotes largely from statutes and reports. Bibliography.

- 12-10638 F. C. Howe's Wisconsin; an experiment in democracy (Scribner $1.25 n) covers much the same ground in an equally optimistic manner but is at once more popular and better written and less valuable to the student and reformer. Devotes more space to the career of La Follette and to the unique political influence of the University of Wisconsin. Bibliography.

- 396 Tarbell, I. M. The business of being a woman. Macmillan $1.25 n
- 12-24007 Invigorating essays on the social and economic opportunity furnished woman by the home, and on the need that home activities be met in a professional spirit. Reprinted from the American Magazine.
- 12-24301 Why women are so (Holt $1.50 n) by M. R. Coolidge, formerly associate professor of sociology at Leland Stanford University, attempts to trace the development of the woman of 1800 into the woman of today. Its thesis, that "the characteristic behavior called feminine is an attitude of mind produced by coercive social habits of the past," is interestingly presented.
- 12-27808 Ellen Key's The woman movement, translated by M. B. Borthwick (Putnam $1.50 n) is an acute, significant study of the effect of the general emancipation of women upon the outer world, feminine psychology, status of daughters, spinsters, men and women at large and finally upon marriage and motherhood. Dial, 54:175.
- 12-12674 Woman and social progress by Scott and Nellie M. S. AGRICULTURE

- 630 *Hunt, T. F. The young farmer; some things he should know. Judd $1.50

12-25092 Sensible, practical advice to young men about to take up agriculture as a vocation. Treats of choice of location, methods of acquiring land, rotation of crops, live stock, marketing, how to estimate profits and other phases of the subject.

- 631 Van Slyke, L. L. Fertilizers and crops; or, The science and practice of plant-feeding. Judd $2.50 n 12-10790 Authoritative work by the chemist of the Agricultural Experiment Station at Geneva, N. Y., treating in turn principles of soil fertility, the sources and composition of fertilizers, factors in their selection and use in crop growing.

Nature, 90:131.

- 632 Sanderson, E. D. Insect pests of farm, garden and orchard. Wiley $3 n

12-2287 Standard, comprehensive treatise on economic entomology, describing life history, habits, and methods of exterminating harmful insects east of the Rocky mountains; arranged by specific crop attacked. Over 500 illustrations and index. Rewritten and enlarged from his Insects injurious to staple crops, 1902.

12-26716 W. C. O'Kane's Injurious insects (Macmillan $2 n) covers much the same field in slightly more popular manner, devoting more space to the general habits of insects and to insecticides and less to individual description. Includes pests of domestic animals and houses. Six hundred illustrations from photographs. Bibliographic reference for each insect and full index.

Sanderson, Science, n. s. 35:929.

O'Kane, Nation, 96:314.

- 634 Waugh, F. A. Beginners' guide to fruit growing. Judd 75c

12-12380 Simple yet thorough and authoritative treatment for the novice, of the elementary practices of propagation, planting, culture, fertilization, pruning, spraying, renovating of old orchards, etc. Each process is fully illustrated and all the commoner fruit trees discussed.

12-15458 M. C. Burritt's Apple growing (Outing 70c n) is a valuable, compact handbook slightly more advanced than the above but intended for the average farmer rather than the professional grower. It takes up each process and in addition the outlook for apple growing, storing, marketing and cost. Applies especially to western New York. Revised from lectures at Cornell University.

Burritt, Independent, 73:446.

- 634.9 Elliott, S. B. Important timber trees of the United States. Houghton $2.50 n 12-10293 A manual of practical forestry treating of the problems of tree-growing and forest restoration and describing in detail each of the most profitable and useful varieties of trees. Illustrated from photographs.

Dial, 52:439; Independent, 72:1430; Nation, 95:108.

- 636.1 Harper, M. W. The training and breaking of horses.
(Rural sci. ser.) Macmillan $1.75 n
- 12-6045 Excellent work, the best in its field (1913). Gives sensible advice for correct training for various purposes, proper harness, prevention and correction of bad habits, and care and treatment. Illustrated from photographs.
Ath. 1912, 1:683; Nation, 95:291.
- 636.5 Robinson, J. H. Principles and practice of poultry culture. (Country life education ser.) Ginn $2.50 n
- 12-2284 Authoritative presentation of poultry husbandry by the editor of Farm-Poultry. Treats of the poultry industry, production, reproduction and the poultry fancy. While its primary purpose is to serve as a textbook for agricultural college students, it meets all the requirements of a general treatise. By far the most complete presentation we have seen. Contains nearly 600 illustrations, an exhaustive bibliography, and a carefully prepared index.
Adapted from Nation, 94:269.
- 12-9700 A useful popular manual by a practical breeder is A. T. Wheeler's Profitable breeds of poultry (Outing 70c n). Written in a brisk and assertive manner, it deals with six breeds — Plymouth Rocks, Wyandottes, Orpingtons, Rhode Island Reds, Mediterranean, and Cornish.
Wheeler, Nation, 95:196.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY

- 640 Bruère, M. B. & R. W. Increasing home efficiency.

- 709.45 Powers, H. H. Mornings with masters of art.
Macmillan $2 n
- 12-15677 Interpretation and discriminating appreciation of the development of Christian art — mainly Italian painting — from the fourth to the sixteenth century, with especial emphasis on its ideals. The pictures described (125) are reproduced from the "University prints" prepared by the Bureau of University Travel, of which author is president (1913).
N. Y. Times, 17:704, Dec. 1, '12; School Arts Mag. 12:268.
- 720.9 Lethaby, W. R. Architecture. (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) Holt 50c n
- 12-35691 Brief but surprisingly informing historical summary from Egyptian, Babylonian and Cretan origin to modern England, tracing clearly influence of the various architectural schools on its development. Index and short bibliography but scantily illustrated, a defect which is absent in H. H. Statham's Short critical history of architecture (Scribner $3.75 n) which covers practically the same field more fully and is well and abundantly illustrated from photographs, drawings and plans. Helpful chronological charts, glossary of terms and an index to both text and illustrations.
- 12-29420
- 6-10483 F. M. Simpson's History of architectural development (Architects' lib. 3v. Longmans $4 n ea.) is a standard work both scholarly and readable of value alike to architect and layman. Two volumes have been previously issued: v. 1, Ancient, early Christian and Byzantine, 1905; v. 2, Mediaeval, 1909. v. 3, The renaissance in Italy, France and England brings the history to the present time (1911) in these countries. Excellently illustrated and with an index in each volume.

- 791 * Burrell, C. B. "Caroline French Benton," pseud. Fairs and fetes. Estes $1.35 n

12-19378 Novel and varied suggestions for fairs and other money-making entertainments. The arrangement is by seasons. Eight illustrations give hints for costumes.

12-24596 The party book by Winnifred Fales and M. H. Northend (Little $2 n 793) is designed primarily for home entertainments, dinners, luncheons, receptions, special occasions. Provides useful information as to invitations, pretty and often elaborate table decorations and games, and receipts for unusual refreshments. Twenty illustrations from photographs.

Much of the material in these books has appeared in women's magazines.

- 791 Chubb, Percival & others. Festivals and plays in schools and elsewhere. Harper $2 n

12-18802 M. M. Needham's Folk festivals; their growth and how to give them (Huebsch $1.25 n) duplicates little of the above, except in pointing out the value of these celebrations. Written informally, with homely anecdotes, it traces their history in different countries; offers practical suggestions for choice of subjects and describes several festivals which the author has managed.

12-9418 C. D' A. Mackay's Patriotic plays and pageants for young people (Holt $1.35 n 812) includes two original pageants with full directions for staging and costuming and indoor or outdoor production. Eight scenes each dealing with the youth of an American hero are selected for use as separate one-act plays.

12-35735 J. E. C. Lincoln's The festival book (Barnes $1.50 n), a thin quarto, contains dances, revels and musical games for May day, including words, music, diagrams of dances, with explicit directions, and descriptions of costumes and other properties. Illustrations from photographs.

Dial, 53:378; Nation, 95:566; N. Y. Times, 17:739, Dec. 1, '12; Outlook, 102:568, 648.
- 814 * Repplier, Agnes. Americans and others.
Houghton $1.10 n
- 12-25129 Fourteen essays on various aspects of contemporary manners — politeness, humor, goodness and gayety, enthusiasm, charity etc. Shrewd in observation, rich in literary allusion, and pervaded with piquancy and wit.
Nation, 95:616.
- 814 * Woodbridge, Elizabeth. Jonathan papers.
Houghton $1.25 n
- 12-9940 Refreshing, light essays on the out-of-door pleasures of the writer and her husband, which take the form of berrying, trout fishing, duck shooting, walking, gardening etc. Related with considerable dialogue, humor and enthusiasm.
Dial, 52:424.
- 820.9 Lang, Andrew. History of English literature from "Beowulf" to Swinburne.
Longmans $1.75 n
- 12-40671 Although a short compendium of the whole of English literature, it has both freshness and originality. It consists of a chronologically arranged series of brilliant and epigrammatic sketches of individual authors with little attempt at tracing general tendencies and developments. The omissions are surprisingly few. American writers are included. Index.

- 13-1665 Oliver Elton's Survey of English literature, 1780-1830, 2v. (Longmans $6 n) is a more scholarly and detailed study of the romantic movement which, like the above, disclaims historical intent and is even more interesting and illuminating. Notes and index.

- 821.08 *Stevenson, B. E. comp. The home book of verse,
American and English, 1580-1912. Holt $7.50 n

12-24754 A comprehensive anthology of over three thousand complete poems by eleven hundred authors, including with the best English poetry of these centuries, popular favorites and the work of living poets. Arrangement is by themes. Full table of contents and indexes of authors, titles and first lines. The use of thin paper makes possible the binding of 3742 pages in one volume, but it is objectionable for library usage. Good margins and readable type.

12-24901 T. R. Lounsbury's Yale book of American verse (Yale Univ. Press $2.25 n 811.08) is an attractively bound and printed collection of some 250 poems arranged chronologically by authors. "Puts forth no pretense of being representative but contains specimens of all sorts of poetry — serious, light, contemplative, pathetic, humorous, satiric, even travesty and "vers de société." No living writers are included. Indexes of authors and titles.

917.94 * Muir, John. The Yosemite. Century $2.40 n

12-11005 Describes with poetic beauty of language and intimate knowledge of nature, the wonders of the "incomparable Yosemite," its storms, waterfalls, birds, trees, geological formation, and early history, introducing many personal experiences. For the use of tourists, it gives detailed accounts of excursions in the valley, with distances and prices. Three folding maps and 32 admirable illustrations from photographs.

The first part of Chase's Yosemite trails (Best Books 1911 p. 32) covers this same ground to some extent but is more of a personal narrative.

Muir, Bellman, 12:627; Dial, 52:429; Lit. Digest, 44:1165; Nation, 94:472; N. Y. Times, 17:253, Apr. 28, '12.

917.95 * Williams, J. H. The guardians of the Columbia; Mount Hood, Mount Adams and Mount St Helens.

Author, Tacoma, Wash. $1.50 n

12-20313 The slight but enthusiastic text describing the forests, geologic formation, Indian legends, etc. of these mountains of the Northwest is merely an accompaniment to the more than 200 excellent halftone reproductions of striking photographs of the mountains and their surroundings from all points of view. Eight in color are less satisfactory. Includes maps and information for tourists.

Nation, 95:411.

918 * Bryce, James. South America; observations and impressions. Macmillan $2.50 n

12-22020 Scholarly, just and optimistic; the result of four months' travel supplementing years of study. Describes the countries individually and discusses the problems of the continent as a whole, touching but slightly on political matters. Maps, bibliography.

Contains nothing that can be counted new or in the least unknown, but yet the writer's personality gives it a charm that nothing can impair. R. B. Cunningham Graham in Sat. R. 114:422.

12-24864 Caspar Whitney's The flowing road (Lippincott $3 n) tells of five separate overland and river expeditions into the densely wooded region lying between the Amazon and the middle course of the Orinoco and describes the country with freshness and spirit, giving enough detail to make the reader understand the conditions of travel. Nation, 96:10.

Small maps and 53 halftones.

12-8994 Algot Lange's In the Amazon jungle (Putnam $2.50 n 918.1) is a record of unusual and dangerous exploration in the rubber forests at the headwaters of the Amazon. Related simply but dramatically and conveying valuable information on the cannibal Mangeroma tribe. Two maps and many excellent halftones.

name, the point at issue involving the interests of the settlement. Entertaining, with good local color and an interesting love story. Lit. Digest, 45:1020.

* Locke, W. J. The joyous adventures of Aristide Pujol. Lane $1.30 n

12-22809 Fantastic episodes ranging from selling corn cure to adopting a baby, in the life of a quick-witted, vivacious and kind-hearted Provençal, something of a vagabond and a good deal of a man. Reprinted from the American Magazine.

Bookman, 36:307; Nation, 95:385; N. Y. Times, 17:598, Oct. 13, '12.

Lucas, E. V. London Lavender. Macmillan $1.35 n

12-21324 A delightful, piquant, irresponsible story with scarcely a vestige of plot, being a medley of character sketches, anecdotes, clever talk and humorous comment. Characters from Over Bemerton's, Listener's lure and Mr Ingleside reappear.

Nation, 95:538; N. Y. Times, 17:595, Oct. 13, '12; Outlook (Eng.), 30:532; Outlook, 102:651; Spec. 109:377, Sept. 14, '12.

Macnaughtan, S. Peter and Jane; or, The missing heir. Dodd $1.25 n

11-14720 Pleasant, light reading — with likable characters — opening with scenes from English country life and closing with interesting, if improbable, adventures in Argentina.

Ath. 1911, 2:386; N. Y. Times, 17:184, Mar. 31, '12; Spec. 107:1020, Dec. 9, '11; Outlook (Eng.), 28:514.

Newlin, Katharine. Penelope intrudes.

Cassel $1.25 n

12-40661 Fresh, simple story of a vivacious, generous-hearted American girl who visits a household of somewhat prejudiced English cousins. Author's interpretation of both the English and American temperament is sympathetic.

Nicholson, Meredith. A Hoosier chronicle.

Houghton $1.40 n

12-6222 Study of political and social life in Indiana with a love story involving the mystery of the heroine's parentage. Possibly too deliberate and serious to please the readers of author's previous stories.

- * Wells, H. G. Marriage. Duffield $1.35 n
 12-21729 Problem story of the marriage of a young English scientist and a charming college-bred girl whose extravagance threatens to wreck their happiness. Distinguished by excellent characterization and wholesomeness of treatment but unconvincing in its solution. Ath. 1912, 2:241; Atlantic, 111:697; Dial, 53:383; Nation, 95:358; Sat. R. 114:305.
- Wharton, Edith. The reef. Appleton $1.30 n
 12-25996 Psychological, painful story of Americans abroad, analyzing the unhappiness caused four characters by the temporary transgression of two of them. Displays great cleverness of diction and marvelously subtle character study. Bookman, 36:562; Dial, 54:306; Nation, 95:564; N. Y. Times, 17:685, Nov. 24, '12; Spec. 109:1019, Dec. 14, '12.
- Whitechurch, V. L. Left in charge. Doubleday $1.20 n
 12-22513 Quietly humorous story of an English village and the rivalry, during the vicar's temporary absence, between the substitute clergyman, who has his own ideas, and the vicar's daughter who thinks she is "left in charge." Nation, 96:258; N. Y. Times, 17:661, Nov. 10, '12; Outlook, 102:505.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS

- 566 Mix, J. I. Mighty animals. American Bk Co. 40c n
 13-35260 Describes in simple language the more important prehistoric animals, their probable appearance and habits, how their bones have been preserved and discovered and how skeletons are put together for museums. Interestingly illustrated from photographs and drawings. The cover is crude in coloring and decoration.
- 570.4 Sharp, D. L. The spring of the year. (Dallas Lore Sharp nature ser.) Houghton 60c n Spring, 12-15828 This, with the author's Fall of the year, 1911 and Fall, 11-27189 Winter, 1912 (same publisher and price), forms a series
 Winter, 12-15921 covering the school year intended to interest children in nature study. Each volume contains thirteen essays appropriate for the season, many of which have appeared in periodicals or in other collections, notably the Lay of the land. Children will find them pleasant, lively and truthful. Notes for teachers at the end are the only textbook feature. Illustrated from spirited and sympathetic drawings by Robert Bruce Horsfall. Lit. Digest, 45:582.
- 608 * Maule, H. E. Boy's book of new inventions. Doubleday $1.60 n 12-26378 A scientist talks to an interested boy about the inventions developed for general use within the last ten years — aeroplanes, Tesla's wireless transmission of power, motion pictures, thermit process, Tesla turbine, uses of concrete, gasoline engines, wireless telegraphy, etc. Supplements author's Stories of invention, Baker's Boy's book of inventions and Second boy's book of inventions. School Arts Mag. 12:349.

- 621.384 * Collins, F. A. The wireless man. Century $1.20 n 12-24015 Excellent, popular account of the work of professional and amateur wireless operators on land and sea. Instruments, theory and use by the United States army and navy are simply described and many true incidents of rescues effected by wireless messages briefly but graphically told. Thirty-two illustrations from photographs.
- 639 Rolt-Wheeler, Francis. The boy with the U. S. Fisheries. (U. S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.50 12-25846 Gives a description of the work of the bureau of fisheries through the adventures of an enthusiastic boy who, wishing to join it, observes its operations on the Pacific coast, Columbia river, in Bermuda, Florida etc. Fifty-one illustrations from photographs.
- 674 Bassett, S. W. The story of lumber. Penn 75c n
12-12867 Describes in story form, through the experiences of a fifteen year old boy in his uncle's lumber camp in New Brunswick, the operations involved in preparing lumber for the market, varieties of trees, methods of conservation, etc. Based on Gifford Pinchot's Primer of forestry. Illustrated.
- 790 Bailey, C. S. Girls' make-at-home things. Stokes $1.25 n
12-22943 Ingenious suggestions for little girls, telling them how to make several kinds of dolls, paper dolls' houses and furniture, play jewelry and other toys, as well as simple Christmas presents from handy and inexpensive materials.
12-22152 Boys' make-at-home things by C. S. & M. E. Bailey (Stokes $1.25 n) for slightly older children is chiefly devoted to simple carpentry, showing how to make a work bench, turning lathe, toy train and boats, Noah's ark, jointed animals, marble bag, etc.
Both are fully illustrated from photographs and the book for boys has working diagrams.
- 796 * Seton, E. T. The book of woodcraft and Indian lore. Doubleday $1.75 n 12-29572 This is the eleventh edition of the author's Birch-bark roll; designed to show how to live the outdoor life, giving the activities, laws, customs, and amusements of the Woodcraft Indians as developed in his camps for boys and setting forth his glorification of the Indian. Includes the author's share in the Boy scouts of America, The Boy Scouts' Official handbook, parts of his Foresters' manual and much new material. Many drawings by author.
Nation, 96:63; N. Y. Times, 17:797, Dec. 29, '12; Outlook, 102:864.
- 797 * Claudy, C. H. Battle of base-ball. Century $1.50 n
12-12145 Readable and reliable discussion of baseball strategy, with a chapter by Christy Mathewson on "How I became a big league pitcher." Written for boys but will be enjoyed by all lovers of the game. Forty-eight halftone photographs.
N. Y. Times, 17:266, Apr. 28, '12.
- 797 * Davis, C. G. ed. Harper's boating book for boys. Harper $1.75 12-11682 Clear, interesting chapters by experts, giving instruction in swimming, making toy boats, and building and managing all kinds of real boats — canoes, sailboats, motorboats etc. Includes history of the Harvard-Yale boat races 1852-1912, and a dictionary of mechanical and electrical terms. Helpful illustrations and diagrams.

Lit. Digest, 45:586.

812 Stevenson, Augusta. Children's classics in dramatic form. Book 5. Houghton 60c n

10-4577 Three historical plays, on Nathan Hale, Joan of Arc and Benedict Arnold, and eight dramatizations of stories such as Dickens's Christmas carol and Scott's Ivanhoe. Designed for reading or acting by children of the seventh and eighth grades. They are longer and have larger casts than those in previous books of the series.

Doubleday 60c n ea

12-12660 Excellent practical versions of As you like it, Comedy of errors, Julius Caesar, Merchant of Venice, Midsummer night's dream, and The tempest, abridged and arranged for reading or acting by children or amateurs. Right-hand pages are devoted to the text, the left-hand to stage directions, diagrams of stage, sketches of costumes, etc. Each volume contains "a few general rules or customs of acting," colored frontispiece and end papers.

827 Swift, Jonathan. Gulliver's voyages to Lilliput and Brobdingnag; illus. by P. A. Staynes. Holt $2.25 n

A13-1365 Admirable edition substantially bound and well printed on thick paper with good margins. Suitably expurgated for children and appropriately illustrated with eight colored plates and many line drawings in the text — some tinted with red.

838.6 Aesop. Aesop's fables; a new translation by V. S. V. Jones. Doubleday $1.50 n

12-29984 Thoroughly satisfactory edition as to text, type, paper and binding. Illustrated by Arthur Rackham with thirteen delightful, grotesque, colored plates and many black and white drawings. Ath. 1912, 2:496.

904 Baldwin, James. Fifty famous people. American Bk Co. 35c n

12-21617 Short stories for young children, simply and interestingly told, recounting episodes in the childhood of great men of all times and countries.

914.1 Williamson, Margaret. John and Betty's Scotch history visit. Lothrop $1.25

12-21159 The American brother and sister of the author's John and Betty's history visit (see Best Books 1910, p. 42) go to Scotland with English friends and their adventures and impressions of historic sites are described in an equally vivacious manner. Twenty-four illustrations from photographs.

12-21321 Donald in Scotland by E. B. McDonald and Julia Dalrymple (Little people everywhere, Little 60c) has the same aim though it covers less territory, is meant for somewhat younger children and is more nearly related to fiction. It tells of the visit of a boy from the lowlands to two children in the highlands and the latter's return visit. Nine photographic illustrations.

- 914.6 * McDonald, E. B. & Dalrymple, Julia. Josefa in Spain. (Little people everywhere) Little 60c

12-21320 In this tale of Josefa, the gypsy child, finally adopted by a rich Spanish family, stories from history and descriptions of the most distinctive and picturesque aspects of national life are interestingly given. Nine illustrations from photographs.

- 915.2 * Perkins, L. F. The Japanese twins. Houghton $1 n

12-25844 Tells very delightfully about the home life in Japan of Taro and Take aged five, and about many Japanese customs. Attractively illustrated by author's crayon sketches. Companion to author's Dutch twins.

Independent, 73:1372; Lit. Digest, 45:1079.

- 917.8 * Schultz, J. W. With the Indians in the Rockies.

Houghton $1.25 n

12-23115 Interesting account of hunting days in the 60's, telling how a boy of seventeen and his young Indian friend were cut off by snow and forced to shift for themselves for the winter. Six illustrations.

FAIRY AND FOLK TALES

- 398.2 * Baldwin, James. The sampo; illustrated by N. C. Wyeth. Scribner $2 n

12-23922 An admirable adaptation for children of the Finnish folk epic, the Kalevala, noteworthy for style, interest, and attractiveness of printing and illustration. The adventures center about the wonder-smith who forged the sampo (mill-of-bounty) as part of the price to be paid for the Maid of Beauty.

Nation, 95:436; N. Y. Times, 17:653, Nov. 10, '12.

- 398.2 Jatakas. Jataka tales; ed. by E. C. Babbitt.

Century $1 n; School ed. 40c n

12-40653 Indian fables and animal stories, from one of the sacred books of the Buddhists, simply and acceptably retold for children. Silhouette illustrations.

The school edition, reprinted from same plates with same illustrations, is very satisfactory for library usage. The binding is plainer but more secure, and the paper less stiff. Smaller in size through a reduction in the margins.

- 398.2 Macdonell, Anne. The Italian fairy book.

Stokes $1.50

W12-21 Excellent selection from Italian fairy and folk tales of thirty-seven stories, skilfully adapted by the author for English speaking children. A few have familiar motives.

Acad. 80:759, Dec. 16, '11; Independent, 70:122; Sat. R. 112; sup. Dec. 9, '11, p. 5.

- 398.2 Rhead, L. J. Bold Robin Hood and his outlaw band.

Harper $1.50

12-23204 Like Pyle's version, this follows the ballads, but unlike it, aims at historical accuracy which necessitates the inclusion of some cruel and unpleasant incidents. Similar to Pyle in manner, but different in arrangement; occasionally other versions are followed and some additions made. The illustrations, also by the author, are reminiscent of Pyle but not so uniformly attractive.

- 398.2 Wheeler, Post. Russian wonder tales. Century $2.50 n
12-24264 Twelve well-told fairy tales from Russian folklore, each with a charming illustration in color by the Russian artist, I. A. Bilibin.
 Outlook, 102:694.
- 398.2 Whitehorn, A. L. Wonder tales of old Japan; illus. by Shozan Obata. Stokes $1.25 n
- W12-39 Twenty-one Japanese folk tales which the author has enlarged without destroying the atmosphere. Children will find them novel and interesting. Animals figure largely, as do dragons and goblins. Good paper and print and 12 appropriate colored plates by a Japanese artist.

BIOGRAPHY FOR CHILDREN

- * Columbus. Moores, C. W. The story of Christopher Columbus. Houghton 75c n
- A12-1047 Excellent short biography combining all possible historical accuracy with vivid narrative style. Illustrations are largely from old prints.
 Cath. World, 96:115; N. Y. Times, 17:378, June 23, '12.
- Lang, Mrs L. B. (Mrs. Andrew Lang). The book of saints and heroes; ed. by Andrew Lang.
 Longmans $1.60 n
- 12-24314 Simply but effectively related legends and stories of twenty-three Christian saints told somewhat after the manner of fairy tales and modifying the horrors of martyrdom and torture. Arranged in approximately chronological order, from Dorothea to Vincent de Paul. The 30 illustrations of which 12 are in color, are similar to those of the Lang fairy books.
 Ath. 1912, 2:497; Spec. 109:787, Nov. 16, '12.
- Raleigh. Buchan, John. Sir Walter Raleigh.
 Holt $2 n
- A13-1364 Spirited biography for boys, telling the story of Raleigh's life in eleven chapters, each written vividly in the first person by an imaginary friend or follower. Portrait, map on end papers and colored wash drawings.
 Outlook, 102:694; Rev. of Rev. 46:636; Spec. 107:800, Nov. 11, '11.

CHILDREN'S STORIES

- Barbour, R. H. Crofton chums. Century $1.25 n
- 12-22560 Lively and entertaining school story portraying life in a home-like boarding house and the fun and athletics of very natural boys. Unfortunately includes the too common caricature of a man teacher who improves under the boys' counsel.
- * Brown, Alice. The secret of the clan.
 Macmillan $1.25 n
- 12-23927 Adventures of four merry girls who live with a delightful step-grandmother, call themselves "the tribe," and are as honorable, as full of charm, and occasionally as absurd as girls in their early teens can be. Style and characterization are excellent. A touch of grown-up melodrama slightly disfigures the story.

- * Dix, B. M. Betty-bide-at-home. Holt $1.25 n 12-21143 Interesting story of a daughter who sacrifices her college career to stay at home and help her mother. Several of the characters are somewhat overdrawn and a few of the situations forced, but the story is admirable in its attitude and lessons.
- * Gilchrist, B. B. Helen over the wall; the adventure with the fairy godmother. Penn $1.20 n 12-25385 Attractive, rather fanciful story for girls about twelve, unfortunately the first of a series. Helen, imaginative, lively and quick-tempered, goes reluctantly to spend a month with an invalid aunt, discovers a fairy godmother and an engaging family over-the-wall, and is surprised to find this her happiest summer.
- Holland, R. S. The knights of the Golden Spur. Century $1.25 n
 12-22557 Tells with spirit and enjoyment how a little modern English boy, by means of a magic amulet, was enabled to go back in the centuries and have an adventure typical of the times with each of his favorite heroes — Sir Launcelot, Richard Coeur de Lion, Little John and others.
- Jacobs, C. E. "Emilia Elliott" pseud. The S. W. F. club. Jacobs $1 n
 12-19326 Cheerful, pretty story of three sisters, daughters of a minister in the small town of Winton, Vermont. As they can not afford to go away for the summer, they organize a club for "seeing Winton first," and realize the pleasant possibilities of a vacation at home.
- Lucia, Rose. Peter and Polly in summer. Amer. Bk Co. 35c n
 12-40658 Simple little stories for young children of the good times of a boy and girl on a farm. Attractively illustrated.
- * Masefield, John. Jim Davis. Stokes $1.25 n
 A13-480 Spirited, well-written story for boys, told by the hero, an English lad of twelve, who is kidnapped by smugglers on the Devonshire coast in the early nineteenth century and passes through dangerous adventures.
 Ath. 1911, 2:516; Outlook (Eng.) 30:220; Sat. R. 112:527.
- * Maynard, Colton. Elliott Gray, Jr., a chronicle of school life. Revell $1 n 12-5554 School story of a new and attractive type in which the theme is the "tone of the school." The young hero, whose father is a graduate of this New England school, has inherited its traditions and high standard of character and faces seriously his responsibilities to help maintain them, while remaining natural and fun-loving.
- * Sienkiewicz, Henryk. In desert and wilderness; tr. from the Polish by M. A. Drezmal. Little $1.25 n 12-3599 Thrilling story of the adventures in Africa of a resourceful Polish boy of fourteen and a delicate English girl of eight who have been kidnapped by treacherous natives. An astonishing amount of information about climate, fauna, flora, and tribes is conveyed and made much more than readable. Will fascinate boys and girls of twelve and over.

Tomlinson, E. T. The young minute-man of 1812.

Houghton $1.50

12-24201 The adventures founded upon fact of a boy of seventeen with the American troops on the lakes in 1814.

Young, Martha. When we were wee. (Every-child's ser.)

Macmillan 40c n

12-21603 Simple, lifelike stories of the play times and original home-made toys of ten children who lived on their grandmother's Alabama plantation during "war times." Illustrated in part by contemporary portraits. An attractive volume in a mediocre series, with secure but ugly binding.

* Zwilgmeyer, Dikken. Johnny Blossom, tr. by Emilie Poulsson.

Pilgrim Press $1 n

12-22553 Remarkably natural interpretation of child life, relating with understanding and sympathy, the scrapes, repentances, and good times of a ten year old Norwegian boy. Will be appreciated also by grown-ups. The colored illustrations are very happy. Outlook, 102:693.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS NOTABLE ESPECIALLY FOR THEIR ILLUSTRATIONS

741 Moore, C. C. Twas the night before Christmas.

Houghton $1 n

12-28683 An attractive edition of this children's classic amusingly and effectively illustrated with 12 colored plates, ornamental initial letters, marginal sketches, cover design, picture end papers and title page by Jessie Wilcox Smith.

Robinson, W. H. Bill the minder.

Holt $3.50 n

A12-1693 Fairy tale or tales relating the adventures of the small boy, Bill, the minder of children, and his charges. Rather negligible as a story but worth getting, if the library can afford it, for the numerous and delightful illustrations by the author, especially the 16 colored plates, which depict with happy whimsicality and high artistic merit, delectable babies and odd creations both animal and human.

Ath. 1912, 2:498; Dial, 53:454; Sat. R. 114, sup. Dec. 7, '12, p. 10.

Smith, E. Boyd. The seashore book.

Houghton $1.50 n

12-22138 Companion volume to the Farm book, with story text; exists chiefly for the attractive full-page drawings in color and marginal black and white illustrations which picture rowing, clamming, a ship's building and launching, good times on the sand, etc. Independent, 73:1361.

741 Smith, Jessie Wilcox, illus. Dickens's children.

Scribner $1 n

12-22525 Ten sympathetic and appealing colored pictures of children from Dickens's stories. Short quotations from the text accompany them. Appeared in Scribner's Magazine. Bookman, 36:391.

- 741 Tailor and the crow (The); an old rhyme with new drawings by L. Leslie Brooke. Warne $1 n
- A13-1363 Six colored plates and some 30 drawings in black and white illustrate this nursery rhyme with great spirit and detail.
Spec. 107:1016, Dec. 9, '11.
- 12-25536 Winter, Milo. Billy Popgun. Houghton $1.50 n
- A pretty though not notable fairy tale of a little boy's dream charmingly illustrated by the author with 8 colored plates and black and white chapter headings, full of life and fancy as they follow Billy's adventures with animals and fairies.

PREFATORY NOTE

To the Librarian:

This is an annotated list of 250 books published in 1913 and recommended to the small public libraries of the State. The selection has been based on the personal examination of individual books by the members of the book selection section in charge of the preparation of the list, on a collating and reading of book reviews, and on the votes of librarians and experts in various fields. Each book of fiction (adult and children's) has been read by several specially qualified readers and has been selected with considerable care. As this deliberate, evaluative work is necessarily largely done when the publishing year is ended and when the books can be seen together and in perspective, the list is later in appearance than other current book lists, but the Library believes that both its present and permanent value is materially increased by this method of preparation. The book selection section acknowledges its gratitude to the librarians and specialists to whom it sent tentative lists for votes, and who so promptly and cordially responded.

To aid librarians who desire help in making a first selection of a smaller number of books from the 250 here listed, 100 have been marked with a *. These are merely suggested for first purchase, as it is of course impossible for any book board to determine what large group of books is absolutely the best, still less could it make a selection which would fit the needs of every small library in the State. The librarian may find that a number of the unmarked books, many of which are of the highest merit, meet much better the demands of her community. Some excellent publications of the year have been reluctantly omitted from the list, either because their cost is greater than most small libraries can afford, or because their subject matter is highly specialized and limited in interest to the very few; or sometimes a good book has not been included because an equally satisfactory or better treatment of the subject has previously been recommended, and its space has been utilized to include a book which deals with a fresh subject or supersedes an older treatment. It is suggested to librarians that they watch current catalogs of remainder and second-hand sales for the inclusion of the more expensive books. Some entries in this list have already appeared in remainder catalogs at an appreciable reduction in price.

We can not too strongly emphasize the advice which we have for several years quoted in full from the Journal of New Jersey Libraries, October 1903: Do not buy subscription books; avoid books issued in parts; ask advice before purchasing expensive reprints:

Finest Orations, Noblest Essays, Royal Flim Flams, Huge Anthologies, and the like all come to the secondhand man. Get them of him, if you must. In a small library they are generally almost useless. In subscription books, cases like this are not uncommon. Maspero wrote several large and learned volumes, in French, on Egypt and Chaldea. They were translated and published in three or four volumes in England, costing libraries in this country about $5 each. An American publisher reprints them in 12 small volumes with a few additional colored cuts, on heavier paper and in larger type and offers them through agents for $84 — and libraries buy them!

Do not buy "sets" or complete editions of authors. Buy the volumes you need and as you need them. A complete set always includes several volumes you do not need. Specify the edition you wish of standard books when you can, unless you find a bookseller able and willing to select them wisely for you.

While this list has been prepared with special reference to smaller public libraries it will also be of much service to schools. Not all the books listed, however, are recommended for school use. There are some books in fiction which have not enough positive value either as literature or as a spur to historical study to justify their purchase for a school, yet which serve a legitimate purpose in the public library by providing wholesome entertainment for a very different class of readers. All titles under the heading "Children's books" are recommended for those school libraries which undertake to provide wholesome entertainment as well as useful information.

This list has been prepared under the general direction of Mary E. Eastwood of the State Library staff.

REFERENCE BOOKS

- 016.3 Shurter, E. D. & Taylor, C. C. Both sides of 100 public questions briefly debated. Hinds $1.25 n
- 13-8251 Suggestive rather than exhaustive handbook, specially useful for high school debaters, giving affirmative and negative arguments and brief, selected lists of references for each of a hundred timely questions. Suffers for lack of an index. Dial, 54:349; N. Y. Times, 18:305, May 18, '13.
- 029.6 Manly, J. M. & Powell, J. A. A manual for writers. Univ. of Chicago Press $1.25 n
- 13-20818 Practical handbook aiming to fill "the need for information on rules of writing and practices in printing." A revision for writers of the Manual of style (ed. 1 1906 50c n; ed. 2 1910 75c n) which was for printers only. Covers field of Orcutt's Writer's desk book (Stokes 60c n Best Books 1912, p. 5) with additional chapters on preparation of manuscript for the printer, illustrations, stages through which a book passes in the making and typographical practices and terms. Index.
- 031 Walsh, W. S. comp. A handy book of curious information. Lippincott $3.50 n
- 13-19475 Alphabetically arranged articles gleaned from newspapers, Notes and queries, and other sources on such miscellaneous subjects as buttons, playing cards, the roller-coaster, mission furniture, croquet, Big Ben of Westminster, weathercocks etc. Supplements compiler's Handy-book of literary curiosities and Curiosities of popular customs. Dial, 56:30; Nation, 98:304; Spec. 112:103, Jan. 17, '14.
- 032 Britannica year book, 1913; ed. by Hugh Chisholm. Encyclopaedia Britannica Co. $2.25
- 13-7829 A valuable reference book in itself, but intended primarily to supplement the 11th edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica. Expert contributors cover progress, 1911-12, in politics, science, literature, education, religion, art, industry etc.; history and statistics of individual countries are added, in which England and America are given most space. The India paper on which it is printed is unsatisfactory for library usage. Index. Ath. 1913, 1:517; Independent, 75:98; Survey, 30:376.
- 370.3 Monroe, Paul, ed. A cyclopedia of education. Macmillan 5v. v. 5. $5 n ea.
- 11-1511 Volume 5 (for note on v. 1-2 see Best Books 1911, p. 6) completes this important work, "the first competent and really comprehensive conspectus of education in English." Athenaeum, 1914, 1:261
- As a reference book for facts in educational history and biography and concerning national and state systems of public instruction and educational institutions, the work fills a distinct want and is of unquestioned value. Nation, 98:244, Mar. 5, '14.
- 395 Roberts, H. L. Cyclopaedia of social usage. Putnam $2.50 n
- 13-21071 Covers very comprehensively and somewhat formally the whole code of social intercourse.

- 424 Flemming, L. A. comp. Synonyms, antonyms and associated words. Putnam $1.25 n

13-6271 Handy desk manual, convenient, inexpensive, and, though incomplete, the most comprehensive book of its kind yet published (1913).

Ath. 1913, 1:521; N. Y. Times, 18:319, May 25, '13; Outlook, 104:39.

PSYCHOLOGY, ETHICS, CHILD PROBLEMS

- 136.77 McKeever, W. A. Training the boy. Macmillan $1.50 n

13-3235 The most complete discussion (1913) of the "boy problem," treating it very concretely and with a large fund of understanding, sympathy and hopefulness. All aspects of character building from infancy to adolescence are covered under the five parts, industrial, social, habit, vocational and service training. Bibliographies at ends of chapters and good index. A. L. A. Booklist. School R., 21:711; Survey, 29:908.

- 150 Münsterberg, Hugo. Psychology and industrial efficiency. Houghton $1.50 n

13-2474 Systematic application of experimental psychology to the service of economic tasks, with the purpose of finding for every occupation the best fitted personality and of securing the best possible work from every man in his place. Pittsburgh.

Engin. N., 69:812; Jour. Philos., 10:528; Jour. Pol. Econ., 21:778; Lit. Digest, 47:540; Nation, 96:368; N. Y. Times, 18:127, Mar. 9, '13.

- 171.1 Smith, G. B. Social idealism and the changing theology. Macmillan $1.25 n

13-7550 Points out the causes of the gradual separation of theology and ethics since the time of Christ and urges the alteration of the former to meet the latter's present standards in order that Christianity may again become an integral part of popular life. Revised from the Nathaniel William Taylor lectures, 1912, Yale Divinity School.

Am. Jour. Theol., 17:639; Bib. World, n. s. 42:59; Outlook, 104:263.

RELIGION

- 240 King, H. C. Religion as life. Macmillan $1 n

13-12008 Simple, direct and convincing talks from a liberal and broadly constructive viewpoint, on religion as a guide to the fullest realization of life.

N. Y. Times, 18:344, June 8, '13; Outlook, 104:770.

- 261 Gill, C. O. & Pinchot, Gifford. The country church. Macmillan $1.25 n

13-13568 Carefully summarized and tabulated results of an investigation undertaken in Windsor county, Vermont, and Tompkins county, New York (chosen as typical country districts). Shows decline in church going and church activity in general in the last twenty years and suggests remedies.

Lit. Digest, 47:1019; Nation, 97:102; N. Y. Times, 18:468, Sept. 14, '13; No. American R., 198:427.

- 261 Womer, P. P. The church and the labor conflict. Macmillan $1.50 n

- 13-12299 Discusses in a stimulating and readable way what should be the attitude of the church toward some of the more definite social problems, such as woman and child labor, open or closed shop, use of violence, justice for the wage earners, etc. Author believes that its mission is to contribute moral inspiration rather than political leadership. Bibliography and index.

Ath. 1913, 2:128; Bib. World, n. s., 42:123; Jour. Pol. Econ., 21:783; N. Y. Times, 18:451, Aug. 31, '13.

- 268 *Cope, H. F. Efficiency in the Sunday school.

Doran $1 n

- 12-27814 A real contribution to Sunday school literature, presenting a broad-minded, well-founded interpretation of the Sunday school as an institution for the development of Christian character. Discusses from fresh viewpoints, organization, curriculum, music and worship, extension work, social life, the lesson, rural schools, etc. Bibliography for the teacher.

SOCIOLOGY

Helpful list of references and outline for social survey. Of interest to general readers and business men as well as civic workers.

Educational R., 46:424; Outlook, 104:343; Survey, 30:502.

- 359 Neeser, R. W. A landsman's log.

Yale Univ. Press $2 n

- 13-5454 The civilian author's diary written on board the battleship Kansas during a four months' cruise (1913) in Caribbean waters. Gives an enthusiastic account of life aboard a modern battleship, in time of peace, "than which" says the Nation, "no better description can be found." Well illustrated from photographs.

Dial, 54:346; Nation, 97:38.

- 364 Coulter, E. K. Children in the shadow.

McBride $1.50 n

- 13-5056 From his experiences in the Big Brother movement and as clerk in the New York children's court, author pictures the actual conditions of life of the neglected children of the streets. He points out the responsibilities of parents and community and makes a stirring appeal for an awakened social conscience. Halftone photographs.

N. Y. Times, 18:180, Mar. 30, '13; Outlook, 104:38; Survey, 30:249.

- 385 Dunn, S. O. Government ownership of railways.

Appleton $1.50 n

- 13-25916 He examines the various arguments for and against government ownership of railroads, and reviews the experience of other countries in which the railroads are owned and operated by the state. His conclusions are distinctly adverse to the policy of government ownership in the United States. Dial, 56:70.

By editor of the Railway Age Gazette. Index.

- 13-23758 The truth about the railroads (Houghton $1.25 n) by Howard Elliott, a New England railway official, contains eight frank addresses whose central thought is that railroads can not operate efficiently under present inconsistent federal and state restrictions. Dunn, Engin. N., 71:385; Nation, 98:242; Rev. of Rev., 49:250. Elliott, N. Y. Times, 18:734, Dec. 14, '13.
- 396 Spencer, A. G. Woman's share in social culture. Kennerley $2 n
- 13-35265 Penetrating survey of social and industrial problems confronting modern women, at the same time reviewing the part played by women in the social culture of the past. Appeared in The Forum. Has atmosphere, perspective, human interest and is full of stimulus to thought and of an admirable justice and rightmindedness. C. A. P. Comer in Dial, 54:342.
- 13-13087 The unrest of women, by E. S. Martin (Appleton $1 n) contains seven humorous, slight but thought-provoking chapters on the significance of the woman suffrage movement and feminine unrest in general. Viewpoint is genially anti-suffrage. Spencer, Dial, 54:342; N. Y. Times, 18:118, Mar. 2, '13; Survey, 30:437. Martin, Lit. Digest, 47:688; N. Y. Times, 18:420, Aug. 3, '13; Survey, 30:645.
- 396.5 Laselle, M. A. & Wiley, K. E. Vocations for girls. Houghton 85c n

917.94 Torrey, Bradford. Field days in California.

Houghton $1.50 n

13-1989 Fifteen charming essays on bird life in California including the Yosemite and the Grand Cañon, with a chapter on the pleasures of reading a checklist. Photogravure portrait, eight excellent halftone photographs and index.

Though inferior to some of his earlier books in firmness of style, it is clearly superior in vivacity and mellow wisdom.
Nation, 96:264.

Dial, 54:149; Independent, 74:1301.

917.98 Underwood, J. J. Alaska, an empire in the making.

Dodd $2 n

13-10598 Lively journalistic account of the scenery and resources of Alaska and its advantages for tourists and settlers, mingled with the experiences of the author, a fourteen years' resident. Closes with a survey of history. Fifty-seven illustrations from photographs and map. Needs an index badly.

Dial, 55:119; Nation, 97:82; N. Y. Times, 18:325, June 1, '13.

918.1 Tomlinson, H. M. The sea and the jungle.

Dutton $2.50 n

A13-1172 Narrative of the voyage made by an enthusiastic English journalist in a tramp steamer from Wales to Para, Brazil, thence two thousand miles up the Amazon and Madeira rivers to San Antonio Falls. Graphic descriptions and anecdotes of sea life and tropical forests mingle with the yarns of his shipmates.

Dial, 54:348; N. Y. Times, 18:161, Mar. 23, '13; Spec., 110:619, Apr. 12, '13.

919.69 Castle, W. R. jr. Hawaii, past and present.

Dodd $1.25 n

13-8091 Excellent handbook, authoritative, up to date, and readable, covering history, commerce, industry, and natural beauty of the islands. Appendix contains valuable information for travelers. Twenty-four halftones from photographs and map.

N. Y. Times, 18:305, May 18, '13.

919.8 Stefánsson, Vilhjálmur. My life with the Eskimo.

Macmillan $4 n

13-24327 Extremely interesting account of author's second expedition to northern Canada and Alaska to study habits of the Eskimo. With only one companion (Dr R. M. Anderson, who contributes a chapter on the expedition's natural history collection) he lived among various tribes, 1908-12, and discovered the blond Eskimo of Coronation gulf and Victoria island. Sixty illustrations from photographs, maps and index.

Ath., 1914, 1:57; Dial, 55:479; Nation, 98:84; N. Y. Times, 18:704, Nov. 30, '13; Spec., 112:391, Mar. 7, '14.

919.9 Scott, R. F. Scott's last expedition; arranged by Leonard Huxley, with a preface by Sir C. R. Markham. 2v.

Dodd $10 n

13-25345 The record of one of the great tragedies of geographical exploration, inspiring in its picture of human endurance and unfaltering courage. Volume 1, gives Captain Scott's diary; volume 2, describes the journeys and scientific work of the other members of the expedition with Doctor Atkinson's account of the search for the lost explorers. Notably fine illustrations and maps.

13-771 In The South pole 2v. (translated by A. G. Chater, Keedick $10 n) Captain Roald Amundsen tells in a modest, yet enthusiastic style of his successful expedition 1910-12. Appendixes give scientific results. Illustrations and maps are much inferior to Scott's.

Few small libraries can conscientiously buy these expensive volumes from book funds, yet they are so remarkable for human interest and the spirit of adventure, and so important in the history of exploration, that a "Best Books" list could not overlook them. They are included here in the hope that the librarian may persuade public-spirited friends in the community to add them to the library's resources.

- 949.6 Gibbs, Philip & Grant, Bernard. The Balkan War: adventures of war with cross and crescent.
Small $1.20 n
- A13-564 Vivid, interesting reports of Balkan War operations as viewed by two newspaper correspondents, one with the Bulgarian, the other with the Turkish army. Map and numerous illustrations from photographs.
No early book of the war has in so small a compass more of what the reader wishes to know. Dial, 54:411.
- War 13-79 With the Turks in Thrace, by Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett (Doran $3 n) is an entertaining personal record of a war correspondent's experiences and affords the most satisfactory account (1913) of the war from Turkish viewpoint. Folding map, excellent illustrations from photographs and index.
- 13-3854 Hermenegild Wagner, in With the victorious Bulgarians (Houghton $3 n), gives a comprehensive picture of the war as he witnessed it from Bulgarian headquarters. His style is cumbersome, and the accuracy of some statements is questioned, but "the book is a condensed encyclopedia of Bulgarian history, biography and politics and will have permanent value for the student of Balkan affairs in the future." Nation, 96:307.

- 973 Bassett, J. S. Short history of the United States.
Macmillan $2.50 n
- 13-18509 Comprehensive, impartial survey from the discovery to 1912, designed rather as a work of reference or textbook than for general reading. One-third of the whole is devoted to period since the Civil War. Securely sewed on tapes, full index, bibliography with each chapter.
Gives a just and well-proportioned emphasis to social, economic and military factors as well as political. The difficult problem of selection and elimination has been skilfully handled and accuracy of a high degree characterizes the book. Nation, 97:235.
- 0-1554 Volume 8 of J. B. McMaster's History of the people of the United States from the Revolution to the Civil War, (Appleton $2.50 n) finishes a work of which the first volume appeared in 1883 (see A. L. A. Catalog and Supplement). This volume covers 1850-61 and like its predecessors is not a connected narrative but a series of essays on social and economic conditions, consisting almost entirely of extracts from newspapers and other contemporary sources. Contains four maps and an index.
- 2-4002 James Schouler's History of the reconstruction period, 1865-77 (Dodd $2 n) is the 7th and last volume of his History of the United States of America under the constitution, v. 1, 1880 (Dodd $2 n ea.) (See A. L. A. Catalog). This volume comprises mainly a vindication of President Johnson and the author's own recollections of Grant's administrations. Contains an index to the seven volumes which is not very satisfactory.

- 973 Powell, E. A. Gentlemen rovers. Scribner $1.50 n
- 13-20203 Nine spirited sketches of the deeds of as many American soldiers of fortune, "overlooked by history and forgotten by fame. Even their names hold no significance for their countrymen of the present generation, yet they played great parts in our national drama." Illustrated.
N. Y. Times, 18:610, Nov. 9, '13; Outlook, 105:498.
- 973.35 Allen, G. W. Naval history of the American Revolution. 2v. Houghton $3 n
- 13-9743 Scholarly, detailed history of maritime activities of both cruisers and privateers in the war of independence. Based on thorough study of the original sources from which it quotes largely. Nineteen illustrations from portraits and contemporary pictures, 14 maps, bibliography and index.
- 13-21458 This is supplemented rather than duplicated by Capt. A. T. Mahan's important, authoritative Major operations of the navies in the war of American independence (Little $3 n) which treats largely of important actions between the French and English fleets and less of famous but smaller fights participated in by our own navy. Fourteen illustrations, chiefly portraits, eight maps, 15 battle plans, glossary and index. First published as a chapter in Clowe's Royal navy 7v. (Little 1897-1903).

- 973.6 MacDonald, William. From Jefferson to Lincoln.
(Home univ. lib.) Holt 50c n

13-9742 An admirably condensed yet readable survey of United States history from 1815 to 1860, "restricted chiefly to the exposition of three lines of development, namely, constitutional growth, the rise and progress of political parties and slavery." Short bibliography and index.

Am. Hist. R., 19:176; N. Y. Times, 18:563, Oct. 19, '13.

- 973.7349 Young, J. B. The battle of Gettysburg. Harper $2 n

13-13217 The most interesting and satisfactory book on the subject for the lay reader. Author, a Union officer, knows the ground intimately, has read the literature of the campaign and writes clearly. His judgments of men and movements are, on the whole, such as have come to be accepted by critical authorities. Appendixes give the rosters of the two armies, etc. Adapted from Nation, 97:171.

Seventeen maps, 8 illustrations from contemporary prints and index.

N. Y. Times, 18:377, June 29, '13; No. American R., 198:139.

- 973.782 Dawson, Sarah Morgan. A Confederate girl's diary.
Houghton $2 n

13-20779 The actual diary kept, in Baton Rouge, New Orleans and elsewhere, by a young girl through the Civil War. Of interest as a story as well as for its graphic descriptions of the hardships of life in war time, and showing unusual fairness to the North.

Dial, 55:363; Independent, 76:314; Spec., 112:98, Jan. 17, '14.

- 974 Jenkins, Stephen. The old Boston post road.
Putnam $3.50 n

13-25381 Traces with an ample accompaniment of historical comment the oldest and most northerly of the mail routes connecting New York and Boston in colonial times. Two hundred well-chosen illustrations from both early and later sources, maps, bibliography and index are all fittingly supplied. Dial, 55:533.

- *Dix, B. M. Mother's son. Holt $1.35 n
- 13-22210 Sequel to Betty-bide-at-home, a story for girls, (Best Books 1912, p. 50) but this is a novel and not dependent on the former story for interest. Betty is now the author of a successful tale, "The toy soldier," whose hero she had seen in Germany. Met again in Boston he proves more of a man than she had thought.
Bookman, 38:433; Nation, 97:483.
- *Drake, Maurice. WO2. Dutton $1.35 n
- A13-2058 Most of the action takes place on the sea and the talk is of a salty flavor, quite delightful to a landsman. It is not often that detective work, vagabond adventure and love-making are more pleasantly mingled. Nation, 97:238.
N. Y. Times, 18:488, Sept. 21, '13.
- *Farnol, Jeffery. The amateur gentleman. Little $1.40 n
- 13-35198 A fascinating romance of England in the early nineteenth century whose hero, young Barnabas Barty, stalwart, high-souled son of an ex-prize-fighting innkeeper, having inherited a fortune, goes up to London to become a gentleman.
Dial, 54:464; Lit. Digest, 46:779; Nation, 96:336; N. Y. Times, 18:147, Mar. 16, '13; Outlook, 103:732; Spec. 110:1066, June 21, '13.
- Ferber, Edna. Roast beef, medium. Stokes $1.20 n
- 13-6546 These incidents in the life of a "lady drummer" are crammed with the cheerful, everyday reasonableness by which our nation chiefly lives. Atlantic, 112:698.
Humorous and slangy but human and wholesome. Reprinted from the American Magazine.
N. Y. Times, 18:232, Apr. 20, '13.
- Findlater, Mary & Jane. Penny Monypenny. Dutton $1.35 n
- A13-709 Excellent novel of a charming Scotch girl in love with an erratic half-cousin of winning personality and artistic temperament. Leisurely in development and marked by both humor and pathos.
- A13-710 Crossriggs by the same authors (Dutton $1.35 n) is an admirable portrayal of the life of the gentlefolk of a small Scotch village. Alexandra, the heroine, who preserves her courage and sense of humor under the burden of supporting her family and concealing a hopeless love, is unusually real.
- A13-482 Seven Scots stories by Jane Findlater (Dutton $1.35 n) consists of quiet tales of great delicacy, showing exceptional insight into character and skilful delineation of the surroundings of humble rural folk. Five colored illustrations.
Little dialect is used in any of these books.
All, N. Y. Times, 18:115, Mar. 2, '13.

- *Fox, John, jr. The heart of the hills. Scribner $1.35 n
 13-4614 Kentucky story in which the shots fly rather fast, whether among primitive feudists of the mountains or in the political struggles and "tobacco war" of the blue-grass region, but throughout the author keeps in mind the more serious purpose of describing both sections and their inhabitants.
- 13-21265 Lucy Furman's Mothering on Perilous (Macmillan $1.50 n) gives in diary form the amusing and pathetic experiences of a teacher in a mission school in the Kentucky mountains. Evidently based on fact. Illustrations from drawings. Appeared in the Century.
 Fox, Bookman, 37:664; Dial, 54:464; Life, 62:42; Nation, 96:548; N. Y. Times, 18:155, Mar. 23, '13.
 Furman, Bookman, 38:557; N. Y. Times, 18:646, Nov. 23, '13.
- Glasgow, Ellen. Virginia. Doubleday $1.35 n
 13-8758 A realistically conceived story of the transition from old to new in Virginia, in which the heroine, the ideal woman of a past generation, makes the tragic mistake of not keeping up with her husband and his world.
 Bookman, 37:536; Lit. Digest, 47:388; Nation, 96:524; N. Y. Times, 18:244, Apr. 20, '13; No. American R., 197:856; Outlook, 104:260.

 12-28406 An absorbing tale of love and gold-hunting in the vivid setting of New Guinea shores and forests.
 Dial, 55:151; N. Y. Times, 18:140, Mar. 16, '13; Spec., 109:862, Nov. 23, '12.
- *Hannay, J. O. "G. A. Birmingham", pseud. General John Regan. Doran $1.20 n
 13-23878 High spirited farce-comedy, a novelization of author's successful play of the same name. An American joker, an ingenious local doctor and a human reluctance to confess to ignorance induce a lazy Irish village to consider the erection of a statue to a nonexistent hero.
 Bookman, 38:542; Dial, 56:22; N. Y. Times, 18:646, Nov. 23, '13; Sat. R., 116:306.
- *Harrison, H. S. V.V.'s eyes. Houghton $1.35 n
 13-35387 Inspiring, engaging story of a society girl's moral development through the influence of an unwordly young slum doctor. The ending is sad but inevitably so.
 Ath., 1913, 1:645; Bookman, 37:454; Dial, 55:19; Lit. Digest, 47:253; Nation, 96:524; N. Y. Times, 18:336, June 1, '13; Outlook, 104:260.
- Hay, Ian, *pseud. (Ian Hay Beith). Happy-go-lucky. Houghton $1.25 n
 13-19073 The hero, Dicky Mainwaring, called by his schoolmates the "Freak" (the English title of the book) is a cheerful, impulsive young aristocrat whose kind-heartedness and democratic sympathies constantly get him into positions which shock his conventional family — most of all does his love affair.
 Dial, 55:358.
- Hichens, Robert. The way of ambition. Stokes $1.35 n 13-18476 The struggle between the native bent of a retiring musical genius and his wife's ambition for his speedy popular fame is depicted with ability and without the morbidity of much of the author's work.

Bookman, 38:312; Nation, 97:263; N. Y. Times, 18:458, Sept. 7, '13; Sat. R., 116:400; Spec., 111:660, Oct. 20, '13.

Hill, F. T. The thirteenth juror. Century $1.20 n

13-20823 "A tale out of court" showing how unscrupulous lawyers by taking advantage of technicalities may so delay the decision of a case as to bring tragedy to those concerned. Contains humor and character-drawing and many lawyers' stories. Appeared in the Outlook.

Maxwell, W. B. General Mallock's shadow.

Appleton $1.30 n

A13-476 An English army officer who has brooded over his undeserved military disgrace for fifteen years and has reached the verge of insanity finds an opportunity to retrieve his reputation. The love interest is furnished by the romances of his daughters. A well-written, deliberate story.

Bookman, 37:205; Dial, 54:303; N. Y. Times, 18:136, Mar. 9, '13.

- *Mitchell, S. W. Westways. Century $1.40 n
 13-19503 Chronicle of village life in central Pennsylvania and of a house divided against itself by the Civil War.
 Probably no other writer could have exhibited this cross-section of American life, 1855-65, in just such proportion and in so humane and philosophical a spirit. Dial, 55:359.
Bookman, 38:361; Nation, 97:384; Sat. R., 117:87.
- *Moore, F. F. The devil's admiral. Doubleday $1.25 n
 13-3069 Modern pirate story, bristling with conspiracy, murder, mutiny, terrific fights and timely escapes. It has a lusty, full-blooded vigor at once rare and exhilarating. Will appeal especially to men and boys.
Bookman, 37:462; Dial, 54:305; Independent, 75:395; N. Y. Times, 18:168, Mar. 23, '13.
- Nicholson, Meredith. Otherwise Phyllis. Houghton $1.35 n
 13-18956 An exceedingly wide-awake and distinctly attractive specimen of young American womanhood gives courage and contentment to a lonely father, skilfully keeps at bay a trio of interfering aunts, alternately exasperates and delights a doting old uncle and other wise takes a hand in the affairs of a small Indiana town.
Bookman, 38:200.
Dial, 55:361; Nation, 97:287; N. Y. Times, 18:497, Sept. 28, '13.
- Parker, Sir Gilbert. The judgment house. Harper $1.35 n
 13-5686 Powerful, melodramatic story of the complications in which the beautiful and too ambitious heroine involves the men who love her. Scene, London and South Africa during the Boer War. Plot is elaborate and sometimes too slow-moving and marred by occasional unpleasant situations. Appeared in Harper's Magazine.
Bookman, 37:442; Dial, 55:149; Nation, 96:599; N. Y. Times, 18:156, Mar. 23, '13.
- Phillpotts, Eden. Widecombe fair. Little $1.35 n
 13-7336 A bird's-eye view of a Dartmoor village portraying, by skilfully interwoven stories, contrasting character sketches and graphic nature descriptions, the daily lives of the inhabitants during a period of four years. A masterpiece of well-chosen detail, more cheerful than is usual with the author.
Atlantic, 112:692; N. Y. Times, 18:328, June 1, '13; Spec., 110:544, Mar. 29, '13.
- *Prouty, O. H. Bobbie, general manager. Stokes $1.25 n

- 398.3 Mother Goose. Old nursery rhymes; illustrated by Arthur Rackham.
Century $2.50 n
- 13-23425 Charming edition containing a good selection of nearly 300 rhymes handsomely printed in large type on serviceable paper and with a picture cover, decorated title page, more than sixty black and white illustrations—both humorous and pretty—and 12 fantastic and attractive colored plates.
Bookman, 38:439; N. Y. Times, 18:694, Nov. 30, '13.
- 398.3 ——— Our old nursery rhymes. McKay $1.50 n
- A14-1392 A fascinating book. Contains 30 Mother Goose rhymes with music—"the original tunes harmonized by Alfred Moffat"—and as many full page plates in which children, toys and animals are represented in delicate colors with great imaginative insight by H. Willebeek Le Mair.
- A14-1393 A companion volume, Little songs of long ago (same publisher, price and artist), presents thirty different rhymes in the same charming manner.
- A14-1388 Most of the same pictures, on much smaller scale but still good
- A14-1389 may be had (McKay 35 cents each) in the little Nursery rhyme series of four volumes called respectively, Auntie's, Grannie's,
- A14-1390 Mother's and Nursie's little rhyme book, each of which contains
- A14-1391 12 of the rhymes from the larger books without the music.
- 398.4 Brock, H. M. illustrator. The old fairy tales; comprising Puss in boots and Jack and the bean stalk.
Warne $1 n
- A14-1387 A delightful presentation of these two old favorites. Besides large type, substantial paper, picture cover and end papers, each story has several black and white illustrations and eight brightly but not garishly colored plates.
- 398.4 Hauff, Wilhelm. Caravan tales and some others; freely adapted and retold by J. G. Hornstein.
Stokes $1.35 n
- A13-271 Attractive new renderings of six of Hauff's famous eastern stories to which is added an original story by the editor in Hauff's manner. Published in a handsome, substantial binding with charming colored illustrations by Norman Ault.

Contents: Caliph Stork; The death ship; Little Mook; The false prince; The golden whistle; The wonder-child; The rusty key.

Spec., 109:937, Dec. 7, '13.

BIOGRAPHY FOR CHILDREN

Sheridan. Goss, W. L. Boys' life of General Sheridan.
Crowell $1.50 n

- 13-17669 Spirited biography for older children marred by too much personal comment by the author. Deals chiefly with the battles of the Civil War in which Sheridan took part but also with his campaigns against the Indians and other services. Maps and illustrations.

CHILDREN'S STORIES

- *Brown, E. A. Uncle David's boys. Lothrop $1 n
13-17407 Wholesome and interesting story of the pleasant summer vacation spent by a party of boys and girls in northern Vermont, in a country house which boasted a mystery.

N. Y. Times, 18:649, Nov. 23, '13.

- *Dickinson, A. D. & Skinner, A. M. ed. The children's book of Christmas stories. Doubleday $1.25 n
13-21356 An excellent collection of 35 short stories by Dickens, Andersen, Susan Coolidge, and many less known authors, gathered chiefly from periodicals. Valuable for the story-teller as well as interesting for children's reading. Table of contents distinguishes between stories for younger and older children. Colored frontispiece.

Forrester, I. L. The Polly Page motor club.

- Jacobs $1 n
14-619 Polly and her school friends spend four weeks of their vacation on an automobile trip in Virginia and clear their expenses by reporting to the state roads committee on old unused highways. Like the previous Polly Page books, sprightly and well bred but rose colored.

- France, Anatole. Girls and boys. Duffield $2.25 n
13-23883 Twelve delicately colored full-page plates and many pen and ink illustrations by Boutet de Monvel of quaint, prim little French children, accompanied by simple stories of child life in town and country.

- *Gilchrist, B. B. Helen and the uninvited guests; the adventure with the yellow-goggles lady. Penn $1.25 n 13-22816 Tells how Helen's proud plans for keeping house for her older brother and the twins during her mother's absence are upset by the unexpected arrival of odd and determined Mrs Lanbury. True to girl nature and admirable in intent. Sequel to Helen-over-the-wall.

- Grinnell, G. B. Jack the young cowboy. Stokes $1.25 n
-3-17970 Straightforward, often exciting, story of Jack's summer with the cowboys on his uncle's ranch. Full of interesting information about round-ups, branding, stampedes, cow-ponies etc. Seventh volume in "Jack" series.

- *Hough, Emerson. Young Alaskans in the Rockies.
Harper $1.25 n
- 13-19122 Uncle Dick, engineer, takes his Alaskan nephews on an adventurous vacation trip through the Canadian Rockies and down the Columbia river. Good local color. Follows Young Alaskans on the trail.
Bookman, 38:317; Independent, 76:459.
- Kirkland, Winifred. The boy editor. Houghton $1 n
- 13-20585 Unhackneyed school story, the interest centering about the editing of the high school paper and the attempts of a clever girl to rouse a brilliant but selfish boy to a sense of responsibility towards his schoolmates, the school and the town. Suggests high ideals of public service and loyalty.
- Lagerlöf, S. O. L. The wonderful adventures of Nils;
tr. from the Swedish by Velma Swanston Howard.
Doubleday $2.50 n
- A13-2300 New edition, with broad margins, decorated end papers, satisfactory paper and cover and 24 strikingly original, fanciful, colored illustrations by Mary Hamilton Frye. First published in the United States in 1907.
- Lang, Mrs L. B. (Mrs Andrew Lang) The strange story book. Longmans $1.60 n
- A13-2612 Thirty-five stories gathered from mythology and other sources, of mysterious happenings among ghosts, pirates, witches etc. Twenty-fifth and last volume of the fairy book series edited by the late Andrew Lang. For older children. Illustrated by H. J. Ford.
Independent, 76:357; Sat. R., 116, sup. Nov. 29, '13; Spec., 111:692, Nov. 1, '13.
- Mason, A. B. Tom Strong, boy-captain. Holt $1.25 n
- 13-17998 Follows Tom's varied adventures after the Revolution in an Indian raid, on a flat-boat voyage from Pittsburgh to New Orleans, in Shay's rebellion, etc. Washington, Burr, Franklin and other real characters appear. Historical background and details are described with care and accuracy, but as a story, more perfunctory than Tom Strong, Washington's scout, to which it is a sequel. Illustrated.
- *Pearson, E. L. The voyage of the Hoppergrass.
Macmillan $1.35 n
- 13-22818 A highly diverting yarn of the adventures of three boys, a cat-boat and the friends and foes made on a summer cruise. Will be enjoyed by readers "from eight to ninety-seven or eight."
N. Y. Times, 18:632, Nov. 16, '13; Outlook, 105:711.
- Scott, Sir Walter. Ivanhoe; with illustrations by E. Boyd Smith. Houghton $2.50 n
- 13-35889 An excellent edition with complete text, good type and paper, decorative cover design and 13 artistic illustrations in color (3 of which cover two pages each) which will appeal especially to children.
- Sewell, Anna. Black Beauty: the autobiography of a horse. Stokes $2 n
- A14-1394 Attractive and durable edition, sewed on tapes, clearly printed on lightweight paper and neatly bound. Decorative end papers and 18 well-drawn colored plates by Cecil Aldin.

Smith, E. Boyd. The railroad book. Houghton $1.50 n

Stevenson, R. L. Kidnapped; illustrated by N. C. Wyeth. Scribner $2.25 n

13-22512 A noteworthy edition, uniform with that of Treasure Island (1911) with the same excellent type and paper and 14 effective colored plates by the same artist. Map.

Wallace, Dillon. The wilderness castaways.

McClurg $1.25 n

13-18715 Two boys, a self-reliant young sailor and the spoiled son of a New York millionaire, are lost from a hunting party in Hudson bay and experience many adventures and hardships before they manage to return to civilization. Told with great spirit and shows thorough knowledge of the region.

LIST OF BOOKS IN THE LIBRARY FOR THE BLIND

SUGGESTIONS FOR USING THE LIBRARY

Foundation. A collection of books in embossed types for the blind was begun by the State Library March 19, 1896. Mrs Salome Cutler Fairchild was appointed librarian for the blind and held the position from 1896 to 1905.

Plan and aim. In starting the work the whole subject of reading for the blind was thoroughly examined, that all plans might be based on their peculiar needs. Visits were made to the institutions for the blind in New York City, Philadelphia and Baltimore and cordial help was received from William B. Wait, Edward E. Allen and F. D. Morrison, the superintendents of those institutions.

The aim of the New York State library for the blind is to lend books, music and current magazines printed in raised type to blind persons in New York State. The collection now numbers between 4000 and 5000 books and pieces of music printed in five different systems: American Braille, English Braille, Line letter, Moon type, and New York point.

If you wish to borrow from the library, make out a list of books, magazines and music which you would like and send it addressed: State Library for the Blind, Albany, N. Y.

Give author and title of each work wanted, taken from the finding list, and always specify the type, for example,

New York point	Dickens	David Copperfield
American Braille	Fiske	Mississippi Valley in the Civil War
Moon type	Goldsmith	Vicar of Wakefield

Mention also any types you are able to read besides those in which you send for books, and state what system you prefer.

At least ten titles should be put on each list as some of the books which you ask for may already be lent to other readers.

Time books may be kept. Books and music may be kept one month; if you wish to keep any of them longer, write to the librarian and, unless wanted by another reader, they will be lent to you for two weeks more. Magazines should be read quickly and returned by themselves. Primers may be kept as long as needed. Alphabet sheets need not be returned.

Transportation. The postal laws allow books for the blind to be sent free through the mails, if the printed labels provided by the library are used in each case. On account of the size and weight of the books, postmen are not required to deliver the packages, but some readers write that they have been able to make arrangements for delivery by parcel post.

In returning books by mail, the printed label, which is laid in the book pocket of each book sent out, must be pasted on the outside of the package. Always return the book in the same wrapping in which it was sent. No package weighing more than 4 pounds should contain more than one volume.

If your postmaster should decline to accept a book which you wish to return, please retain the book and notify the librarian for the blind at once.

Care of the books. All who use this library should take the utmost care of the books. Look out for the two dangers, soiling and wear.

- 1 Keep the books clean.

- 2 Rest the fingers lightly on the letters. Pressure would soon make the book unreadable. A certain sum is appropriated for the library each year. If every one is careful in using the books now in the collection, all this money can be spent for new books. If some readers are careless it will be necessary to spend part of it in buying new copies of soiled and worn books. The following extract from a borrower's letter shows the result of such carelessness: "I found dots and complete letters erased. It seems to me that it would help some if readers were notified that they must be careful not to erase. I have known people who read in such a way that a book once read by them could not be read again except by an experienced reader who was imaginative enough to figure out what letter should have been where one is changed or wanting."

One of the readers finds it helpful to place a thin pasteboard under each page as it is read. This throws the letter into more distinct relief and makes it unnecessary to pass the fingers many times over the same letter.

Learning to read. If you are not now able to read an embossed print, alphabet sheets and primers of the systems will be sent to you, and books, magazines and music in the system preferred will be lent to you. Three-fourths of the requests sent to this library are for books, music and magazines printed in New York point, undoubtedly because the majority of the readers have attended the State School for the Blind at Batavia or the New York City Institute for the Education of the Blind. These readers often interest their friends to take up the New York point system and for that reason the following explanation of that system is given.

New York point. All characters are formed by one or more of eight points arranged in two rows of four each (: :: :). For convenience in memorizing, these points are numbered 1 to 8, the odd numbers 1, 3, 5, 7, being used for the upper row and the even ones 2, 4, 6, 8, for the lower row; thus, "e" (·) is point 1, "t" (.) is point 2, "a" (· ·) is points 1 and 3, "n" (. .) is points 2 and 4, "d" (· ·) is points 1, 3 and 4, etc.

In the primer eight letters (a-h) are given on the first page, being followed by words in which these letters are used; six additional letters are given and used on the second page, etc. The word signs (groups of points representing frequently used words, such as "and," "the," "of," etc.), numerals and marks of punctuation, are on pages 5, 6, and 7 of the primer.

The groups of points representing numerals and marks of punctuation are the same as those for some of the letters. When used as numerals they are preceded by the number sign, formed by the first six points; for example, the number sign followed by a space and points 2 and 3 (: :: : ·) represents "7" while points 2 and 3 without the number sign (: ·) represent "o." When used as marks of punctuation, extra space precedes and follows the characters.

it sufficiently sensitive. One of our readers, finding that the third finger of the left hand was the only one he could use, learned to read with that.

For those learning any of the systems it is suggested that a seeing member of the household become familiar with the characters of the systems so as to recognize them by sight and thus be able to give ready aid.

Moon type. The Moon type is easily learned, all except five of the letters having some suggestive lines of the corresponding letters in ink print. The first letters to be learned should be o, c, l, j, and n. On the alphabet cards the ink letters above the embossed ones are partly dotted, the solid lines indicating the raised parts of the letters. In this system the reading is from left to right and right to left in alternate lines, a curved line guiding the finger at the end of each line to the beginning of the one following.

An extract from the letter of a reader 84 years old is here given: "On the 27th of July, 1906, I made the acquaintance of ———, who has been blind for 13 years, two years longer than myself. My object was to help her, if need be, with the Moon type. I found that she lacked but two months and one day of being 70 years old. She had never felt an embossed letter and was not acquainted with the facilities that New York State and other states give to the blind. I the same day loaned her the Sermon on the Mount, and made her acquainted with the facilities extant for the blind, of which she at once availed herself. One month after, on the 27th of August, she had read the Sermon on the Mount twice and the Gospel of St Mark and one or two other books once. I hope this may encourage many others afflicted with blindness to try to learn the Moon type, which is easy with a little perseverance."

Another word of appreciation and pleasure: "Today I am returning Lincoln's Love Story. How beautifully it is written! I have enjoyed this book most of all my finger reading. Oh! this reading, 'tis going to give me such an independent comfort."

American Braille. American Braille is also a popular system in which the library has many books, magazines and pieces of music.

English Braille. English Braille has the most contractions and word signs and is used in stenography. The library has quite a large collection of books in this system.

Line letter. There are many interesting titles in the Line letter but it is the most difficult to learn and is the only system which can not be written. Books are no longer printed in this system.

Correspondence. Letters may be written in New York point or in American Braille to the librarian for the blind.

Cooperation. Word is received from new readers of the large number who would enjoy books from the State Library but who do not yet know that they are available. Will every one who reads this kindly send to the librarian for the blind the addresses of all blind persons known to him, living in New York State.

The librarian for the blind would also be very glad to receive addresses of seeing persons, one or more in each town, who would cooperate with the State Library by visiting the blind and explaining the plans of the library.

A SELECTION FROM THE BEST BOOKS OF 1914 WITH NOTES

PREFATORY NOTE

"BEST BOOKS" AND HOW IT IS MADE

What it is. The list, Best Books, which has been prepared and published annually since 1897, is the chief regular work of the book selection section of the State Library. It includes 250 titles chosen from the publications of the preceding year and recommended to the smaller libraries of the State. One hundred of these books are starred as suggestions for first purchase. They are the books which will probably receive the widest reading or will be the most generally useful, but the selection in each case will vary and must be made to fit the needs of the community.

Each entry in the list gives author, title, publisher, price, series (if any), classification number, Library of Congress order number, references to the best available reviews and a descriptive or critical note. When several good books on the same or closely related subjects have appeared, one is chosen to head the group, and the others are described in appended notes which attempt so to characterize each of the books that the librarian may select the one best adapted to her need; for example, Miss Taylor's The man behind the bars under which are mentioned Osborne's Within prison walls and Henderson's Cause and cure of crime. Occasionally a book too expensive to recommend directly is referred to in a note as Worcester's The Philippines, 2v., $6 n, which has been included under Crow, America and the Philippines. These more costly books may often be purchased at greatly reduced prices through second-hand or remainder sales if the librarian will take the trouble to read book catalogs. Through these subentries 50 or more books in addition to the 250 are brought to the librarian's attention each year.

How it is compiled. The first step is to check, in each number of the Publishers' Weekly, all entries of new books which promise to repay further investigation. These checked items are mounted on separate slips and kept on file. Twice during the year they are gone over and all available information is brought to bear upon them. Reviews are consulted in the magazines indexed in the Book Review Digest; the section's own notes which have been written on many of the books are referred to as well as opinions expressed by reliable readers outside the section. Unpromising books are weeded out, and those not on hand which seem to be worth examination are solicited from their publishers. A number of publishers find it worth their while to send their new books to the section as published. There is considerable routine work involved in the correspondence with publishers and in the keeping of accurate records of the books received. During 1914, 10175 books were published in the United States. Of these, 1638 came to the book selection section and were either read or examined, many of them by several people, and descriptive and critical notes were written. A tentative selection was then made of 717 books, grouped by 20 subjects. These tentative lists were sent for votes to two classes of people: specialists in their subject, who gave their opinions on the reliability and value of the book; librarians of small libraries and those who know small library conditions, who gave information on the practical usefulness and popularity of the book in the library. Special pains are taken with the selection of the children's books. Twenty experienced children's librarians throughout the country, such as Miss Hunt of Brooklyn, Mrs Edna Lyman Scott of Illinois, Miss Hewins of Hartford, give us the benefit of their knowledge and use of the various juveniles. Their decisions with the section's own careful examination unite to make the selection. When the returns come in and have been tabulated on slips, the final selection of 250 is made by the head of the section. As the titles are chosen they are annotated by the assistants in the section, references to reviews are verified and the list is edited by the section's head. This list for 1914 has been prepared under the direction of Miss Mary Eastwood. It is our belief that a list compiled with the care and competence described above is not only a reliable guide for current purchases but has an enduring reference value.

Uses of "Best Books." The list as has been said is prepared with a view to meeting the needs in book selection of the small libraries of the State. It is sent free to every registered library and is intended to supplement the A.L.A. Catalog 1904, and its Supplement 1911, and to narrow the more inclusive suggestions made by the A.L.A. Booklist, which lists over 1000 books a year. While some current books may be safely bought by the small library when published, in general most small libraries will find it wiser to wait till the publications of the year may be seen in perspective, and till a choice can be made under the guidance of a narrowed selection. Best Books can be used not only to direct current purchases but should be kept on file and used for rounding out subjects on which the library has a deficient collection.

The list may be used also in compiling reference material for schools and study clubs. It may serve also as a catalog of recent purchases, if the librarian writes call numbers against titles of books lately purchased and places it accessibly to patrons of the library. The annotations for such books as the library buys or owns may be copied on the catalog cards or on slips pasted on the inside cover of the books.

While all the titles listed (notably fiction) can not be recommended for school use, the bulletin should still be of much service to school libraries. All titles under the heading "Children's books" are recommended to those school libraries which undertake to provide wholesome entertainment as well as useful information.

- 327.42 Cramb, J. A. Germany and England. Dutton $1 n
14-17232 Lectures delivered in 1913 in which an English historian, familiar with the conditions and ambitions of both countries, gave his reasons for considering a war between England and Germany inevitable.
Nowhere else are the forces which led to the war so clearly set forth.
Lord Roberts
- 14-18727 A. B. Hart's The war in Europe (Appleton $1 n 940.9) is a convenient handbook in two parts. The first is devoted to a crisp description of the general international situation in Europe on the eve of war. The second part contains an account of the outbreak of the war with chapters on the psychology of war, the question of neutrality, possible terms of peace, etc. A very fair and substantially accurate piece of work. Dial, 58:46
No index.
- 14-22012 The new map of Europe 1911-14 (Century $2 n 327.4) by H. A. Gibbons aims also to show causes of the war but gives a much fuller treatment than the preceding volumes and places more emphasis on the part played by the Balkan wars and the "Eastern question" which follows naturally from the author's residence in Constantinople. Closes with England's declaration of war. Somewhat anti-German in sentiment but aims to be fair. 6 maps. No index.

- 14-19685 Edmund von Mach's What Germany wants (Little $1 n 943.08) is the most balanced, restrained and persuasive of the attempts to place the German position in a favorable aspect before American opinion. Author, an American citizen of Prussian birth, contends that Bernhardt does not voice popular sentiment in Germany.
- 14-30977 The Handbook of the European war (Handbook ser. H. W. Wilson Co. $1 n 940.9) edited by S. S. Sheip is valuable for quick reference to material not otherwise easily accessible. Arranged by countries, it includes historical summaries, diplomatic papers, digests of important books, speeches and articles, chronology of events to November 1, 1914, maps, and selected bibliography by Corinne Bacon.

- 940.9 *Powell, E. A. Fighting in Flanders. Scribner $1 n
14-22578 Vivid account of what the author, special correspondent for the New York World, saw of the European war in Belgium. Describes chiefly the destruction of Belgian cities ending with the fall of Antwerp. Decidedly pro-Belgian. Illustrations from photographs.
- 14-22662 With the allies (Scribner $1 n) by Richard Harding Davis, also the report of an eye-witness, describes graphically and not without humor the early campaigns of the war as seen by him in Belgium and France and his own experiences, particularly while he was held as a spy by the Germans. Strongly anti-German. Illustrations from photographs. Appeared in Scribner's Magazine.

- 949.6 Schurman, J. G. The Balkan wars 1912-1913.
Princeton Univ. Press $1 n
14-22287 Two lectures one of which deals with the conflict between Turkey and the Balkan states, exhibiting its cause, sketching its course, and summing up its results, the other tells the story of the war between the allies that followed close upon the successful movement against Turkey. N. Y. Times, 19:407, Sept. 27, '14.
Sketch maps of the region before and after the wars.
- 970.4 Skinner, Alanson. The Indians of Greater New York.
(Little histories of North American Indians)
Torch Press $1 n
15-5357 The history and customs of the Delawares, Mahikans and Mohegans who inhabited the region now known as Greater New York. In part a compilation from the records of early explorers and settlers and in part description of the relics found in shell heaps examined by the author. Interesting and reliable. Map, bibliography and index.
- 973 *Stevens, W. O. Story of our navy. Harper $1.50 n
14-18565 Spirited history of the United States navy from beginnings to present time (1914). Treats of services in time of peace and historical significance of naval battles as well as of the battles themselves. Will interest older children as well as adults. Illustrated.
- 14-12301 Our many-sided navy by R. W. Neeser (Yale Univ. Press $2.50 n, 353.7) is an enthusiastic description of the United States navy; its organization, work and the daily life of its men. Written to give the landsman "an inside and accurate view." Well illustrated from photographs.

Longmans 2v. v.1 (1912) $2 n; v. 2 (1914) $2.25 n

12-14722

Concluding volumes of author's former works: Early history of Charles James Fox (A. L. A. Catalog 1904) and The American Revolution (Best Books 1903, p. 455).

Vivacious and accurate narrative history covering the period from 1778 to the fall of Lord North's ministry a few months after the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. Although chiefly concerned with events in England there are chapters of exceptional interest devoted to the course of affairs in America.

Its essential characteristic is justice to both England and America.

A14-862

Fantastic but delightful story with the fairy tale situation of the cruel stepmother and idyllic background of Swedish country life some thirty years ago.

Bookman, 39:209; Nation, 98:239.

Lea, F. H. Sicily Ann. Harper $1 n

14-17813

Light and pleasantly humorous tale of a pretty, childish, irresistible Virginia girl and her love affairs in Honolulu. Good for hammock reading.

Lincoln, J. C. Kent Knowles: Quahaug.

Appleton $1.35 n

14-18497

Told in the first person by the hero, a novelist who is called the "quahaug" or clam by his Cape Cod neighbors on account of his supposedly unsociable disposition. He goes on a trip to England accompanied by his elderly cousin, Hephzibah, a spinster of the best New England type. Their adventures and his love story make the tale. Somewhat too long.

Bookman, 40:560; Nation, 99:633; N. Y. Times, 19:516, Nov. 22, '14.

Locke, W. J. The fortunate youth. Lane $1.35 n

14-5512

A gay romance the action of which takes place nominally in the England of 1890-1910, but really in that fairyland east of the sun and west of the moon where the beggar-lad seeks his fortune and finds it.

Bookman, 39:217; Lit. Digest, 48:1119.

London, Jack. The mutiny of the Elsinore.

Macmillan $1.35 n

- 14-15176 Relates in the author's usual vigorous style the story of the voyage of a modern American sailing vessel round the Horn contending against bad weather and a mutinous crew. A slight love interest.

- E13-1030 Well-selected fairy and folk tales, fables, stories and poems, prettily illustrated. So far the most attractive of the series which comprises Primer and Book one (1913 30c n ea.), Book two (1914 35c n).

537 Shafer, D. C. Harper's everyday electricity. (Harper's "tell me how" books) Harper $1 n

- 14-17870 Tells how to make and use familiar electrical apparatus with sufficient detail to be useful to older boys and adults. More advanced than author's Harper's beginning electricity (in same series) which treats more fully of theory and history.

- 14-14613 The boy electrician (Lothrop $2 n) by A. P. Morgan covers much the same ground but is simpler and explains principles. Both books are fully illustrated.

591.5 Sharp, D. L. Beyond the pasture bars. (Wild life ser. of graded nature readers) Century 50c n

- 14-2774 Twelve delightful essays adapted to children's interest, on wild life. Most are about birds but skunks, 'possums and squirrels are also included. Seven of the essays have appeared in author's Roof and meadow. Illustrations by Bruce Horsfall.

- 14-9502 | His Summer (Dallas Lore Sharp nature ser. Houghton 60c n 570.4) completes the series of the four nature study readers begun by author's Fall of the year (Best Books 1912, p. 45). This book which is similar to the others in size, illustrations and arrangement, contains twelve chapters in his usual lively and interesting style, on what can be done, seen and heard on a summer vacation.

The four books paged separately may be had in one volume under the title The whole year round at a slightly decreased price (Houghton $2 n 570.4). This is heavy to hold, has conventional marginal decorations, and wider margins, and retains all illustrations but omits notes for teachers.

- 595.7 Fairchild, David & Marian. Book of monsters.
National Geographic Society $2

- 14-16725 A remarkable series of large photographs of insects taken with a special 5 x 7 camera. Includes a slight, rather unimportant descriptive text and account in preface of the method of securing the pictures.

- 620 Bond, A. R. Pick, shovel and pluck. (Scientific American boy ser.) Munn $1.50 n

- 14-20247 Sequel to With the men who do things (same ser. 1913). Instructive story of engineering feats, in which two boys visit the Panama canal, Keokuk dam and other big works. Describes many undertakings with accurate data. Many illustrations, from photographs, with a few drawings. Index.

- 636 Comstock, Mrs Anna (Botsford). The pet book.

Comstock Pub. Co. $2.50 n

- 14-22652 Rather large volume, attractively illustrated from striking photographs, which describes the housing, food and care of some seventy animals, including wild animals which a child can tame. Makes special efforts to interest children in natural history and contains references to other books about the various animals.

Independent, 81:214; Lit. Digest, 50:493.

- 649.55 Rich, G. E. When mother lets us make paper box furniture. Moffat 75c n

- 14-12640 Suggestive book showing by clear directions and helpful diagrams how to make quite elaborate toy furniture out of pasteboard boxes of various sizes and kinds.

- 14-18480 Patten Beard's Jolly book of boxcraft (Stokes $1.35 n) is more ambitious and comprehensive, explaining how to make a dolls' model village and toys as well as furniture. Illustrated from photographs.

Rich, N. Y. Times, 19:299, July 5, '14.

Beard, Nation, 99:695.

- 796 Beard, D. C. Shelters, shacks and shanties.

Scribner $1.25 n

- 14-15383 Tells, largely by means of self-explanatory diagrams and illustrations, how to build all kinds of Indian houses and hunters' camps from a one night shelter to a permanent log cabin. Contains much good advice on camping. Of special value to Boy Scouts.

- 796 Cave, Edward. The boy's camp book.

Doubleday 50c n

- 14-9845 Complete directions for a Boy Scouts' annual encampment given in entertaining style. Companion volume to the Boy Scout's hike book by the same author. Illustrated.

Nation, 99:665.

- 796 Eastman, C. A. Indian scout talks. Little 80c n
14-17879 Describes interestingly for Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls, Indian methods of hunting, camping, canoeing and other customs and sports. Adapted from personal experience. Diagrams and lists of Indian names for boys and girls.
- 796 Miller, C. M. Kitecraft and kite tournaments. Manual Arts Press $1
A14-1494 Describes, with many illustrations and diagrams, the making and flying of a surprising variety of kites, from the simplest designs to balloons and model aeroplanes. Intended for both teachers and children. Bibliography. Strongly bound.
- 797 McGraw, J. J. How to play baseball. Harper 60c n
14-13667 Discusses each position separately, besides batting, base-running, training and general team work. Makes no pretense to literary excellence or advanced technic, but is full of wholesome advice and well-thought-out suggestions within understanding of even grammar school players. Illustrated from photographs of big league players in action.
- 808 Olcott, F. J. ed. Good stories for great holidays. Houghton $2 n
14-19135 Excellent collection of one hundred and twenty stories for seventeen holidays arranged for story-telling and reading aloud and for the children's own reading. They are "grave, gay, humorous or fanciful" and include myths, legends, tales and historical stories from many sources. Contains reference list for the same holidays in which school grades are indicated. Indexes of subjects, titles and authors. Four attractive colored plates.
 Lit. Digest, 49:1131; School Arts Mag., 14:445.
- 812 Walker, A. J. Little plays from American history for young folks. Holt $1 n 14-15432 Three short plays: Hiding the regicides; Mrs Murray's dinner party; Four scenes from the time of Lincoln, illustrating the colonial, Revolutionary and Civil War periods. All are well suited for school acting, require only simple scenery and costumes, which are described, and demand no great dramatic powers.
- 14-14252 Dramatic readings for schools (Macmillan 50c n 808.8) by M. F. Lansing contains selections and adaptations from standard fairy tales and children's stories intended to be dramatized by the children themselves. Suggestions for dramatization are given for each. Pretty illustrations.
- E14-819 Dramatic stories for reading and acting (Amer. Bk Co. 35c n 808.8) by A. M. Skinner is for somewhat younger children, consisting of poems and versions of fairy tales, legends, fables and stories chosen for action and dramatic quality. No suggestions for acting are given but the selections are nearly all in dialogue. Illustrated.
- 914.4 Portor, L. S. Genevieve. (Little schoolmate ser.) Dutton $1 n 14-18803 Story of the home and school life of a little French girl living in Paris, bringing in much history and description in an attractive way. Colored frontispiece and four line drawings.
- 14-19134 E. M. Green's The laird of Glentyre 914.1 in the same series describes the visit of an English brother and sister to their boy cousins in a castle in Scotland, where they help discover a hidden treasure and hear many stories from the history and traditions of the country.
- 14-18808 Elsbeth 914.3 (same ser.) by Margarethe Müller, less interesting as a story and for somewhat older children, gives considerable information about German life. The scene of the first part is on ship board; the latter part describes a German school and the German celebration of Christmas. Includes German songs with music.

- 914.92 Hall, M. E. Dutch days. Moffat $1 n
14-8699 Pleasant account of quaint towns and historic sites in Holland as seen by an American boy and girl traveling with their parents. Illustrations from photographs.
 N. Y. Times, 19:462, Oct. 25, '14.
- 919.8 Perkins, L. F. The Eskimo twins. Houghton $1 n; School ed. 50c n
14-30980 Describes simply and with quaint humor the daily doings of the twins, Menie and Monnie, aged five, their dogs Nip and Tup, their parents and the rest of the Eskimo village. Illustrated by the author's sketches. The school edition is smaller, but has same illustrations and is satisfactory.
W15-39 N. Y. Times, 19:524, Nov. 24, '14.
- 943 Marshall, H. E. History of Germany. Doran $2.50 n
A14-2778 The most picturesque and romantic events of German history told in an interesting manner for older children. A bulky volume, with broad margins, and colored illustrations.
 Outlook, 106:321; Spec., 111:951, Dec. 6, '13.
- 970.3 Schultz, J. W. On the warpath. Houghton $1.25 n
14-20776 Recounts the exploits of the young Indian Pitamakan in defending the herd of horses he won in the Quest of the dog-fish skin (Best Books 1913, p. 46) and his rescue of a hostile tribe's prisoners. Illustrations by George Varian.
- 14-18403 Indian days of long ago (Indian life and Indian lore, World Bk Co. $1 970.1) by E. S. Curtis gives in story form, as the experiences of the boy Kukúsim, an intimate view of Indian life in the old days among the western tribes. Includes folk tales. The illustrations, many from photographs, are especially noteworthy.
 Curtis, Nation, 99:501; School Arts Mag., 14:303.
- 973 Abbot, W. J. The story of our army for young Americans. Dodd $2 n 14-17274 Interesting narrative history, for older children, of land operations in our country's wars from colonial days through the surrender of Manila. The Civil War is treated in greatest detail. Illustrations are from photographs and old prints and are not well reproduced.
 Nation, 99:665.

FAIRY AND FOLK TALES

- 398.2 Darton, F. J. H. ed. The seven champions of Christendom. Stokes $1.35 n Spirited version of the romance of this name written before 1597, recounting the knightly adventures and love stories of St George of England, St Denis of France, St James of Spain, St Anthony of Italy, St Andrew of Scotland, St Patrick of Ireland and St David of Wales, none of whom is connected with the saint whose name he bears. Attractively illustrated.
- 398.4 Brock, H. M. illustrator. The old fairy tales; comprising Hop-o'-my-thumb and Beauty and the beast. Warne $1 n
 A delightful thin quarto edition in boards with large type, good paper, picture cover and end papers and for each story several black and white illustrations and eight richly colored, full page plates.
 Walter Crane's Picture books; new miniature edition (Lane 25c n ea.) presents in greatly reduced size and price, his well-known and still attractive illustrations to old fairy tales. Three volumes issued in

- 14-18741 1914; Puss in boots and The forty thieves; Sleeping beauty and Blue Beard; Three bears and Mother Hubbard. The stories are given in condensed form in rhyme.
- 14-20741 Perez the mouse (Lane 35c) adapted from the Spanish of Luis Coloma by Lady Moreton is a pretty little modern fairy tale of a boy king and his adventures among the mice. Appropriate silhouettes and colored illustrations by George Howard Vyse.

398.4 Curtin, Jeremiah, tr. Fairy tales of eastern Europe.

McBride $1.50 n

- 14-19873 Nineteen tales, interesting variants on familiar themes, collected from Hungarian, Bohemian, Russian and Serbian sources. 4 colored illustrations by George Hood.

BIOGRAPHY FOR CHILDREN

Akbar. Steel, Mrs F. A. The adventures of Akbar.

Stokes $1.35 n

- 13-22508 Adventures, founded on fact, which befell the little Prince Akbar who grew up to be the greatest of the Mogul emperors. Gives a vivid picture of Indian court life three hundred years ago. 8 illustrations in color.

Ath. 1913, 2:474; Independent, 76:359; Spec., 111:955, Dec. 6, '13.

Gilbert, Ariadne. More than conquerors.

Century $1.25 n

- 14-17634 Well-written biographical sketches for older children. Noteworthy facts of personal and family life and difficulties overcome in the careers of Beethoven, Lamb, Scott, Irving, Emerson, Agassiz, Thackeray, Livingstone, Pasteur, Phillips Brooks, Edwin Booth, Stevenson, Saint-Gaudens and Lincoln. Published in St Nicholas. Portraits.

Lit. Digest, 49:1129; Nation, 99:666; N. Y. Times, 19:417, Oct. 4, '14.

Holland, R. S. Historic heroes of chivalry. (Historic ser. for young people)

Jacobs $1.50 n

- 14-17833 These include Roland and Oliver, the Cid, St Louis, William Tell, Bertrand du Guesclin, Francisco de Bazan and Antonio de Cueva, Giovanni dei Medici, Gustavus Vasa, Drake, Montrose, Louis Grand-pré and General Gordon. Will appeal to older children. Illustrated in part from old prints.

Jeanne d'Arc. Wilmot-Buxton, E. M. Jeanne d'Arc. (Heroes of all time)

Stokes 75c n

- 14-17308 Sympathetic account, historically accurate and popular in style. Illustrated.

- 14-13930 Other volumes (1914) in this series are: Sir Walter Raleigh by Beatrice Marshall, interesting and impartial but poorly illustrated and Augustus by René Francis, "a political more than a personal history" better adapted for older children or adults. Map of the Roman empire and illustrations.

14-15728

Francis, Ath. 1914, 2:276.

Marshall, H. E. Boy kings and girl queens.

Stokes $1.75 n

CHILDREN'S STORIES

- Altsheler, J. A. The guns of Bull Run. (Civil War ser.)
Appleton $1.30 n
14-4303 The first and much the best of the series so far published (1914). Gives a fairly accurate picture of the exciting period from just before the firing on Fort Sumter to the battle of Bull Run. Follows the lively experiences of Harry Kenton, Southerner.
Independent, 80:418; Lit. Digest, 49:1133.
- Brown, A. F. The lucky stone. Century $1.25 n
14-16943 Story of the wonderful adventures of a little tenement girl, who believes in fairies, and the brother and sister on whose farm she visits. Some critics object to the wealth and elaborate machinery required to accomplish the results, and to the love story foreshadowed for the adult wonder workers.
Lit. Digest, 49:1127.
- *Brown, E. A. When Max came. Lothrop $1.20 n
14-6285 A group of very natural boys and girls, including Max who has been brought up in England, spend the summer camping and rowing in Maine.
- Camp, Walter. Captain Danny. Appleton $1.35 n
14-16209 Wholesome story of school baseball in which the influence of the captain of the team who knows boys is compared with that of the professional coach who knows only the game.
- Gilchrist, B. B. Helen and the Findout Club.
Penn $1.25 n
14-13021 Helen overcomes her loneliness in the absence of her elder brother and sister by forming a club among her friends to cheer a strangely reserved new neighbor and help her solve the mystery of her identity. Sequel to Helen and the uninvited guests.
- *Harrison, Herbert. A lad of Kent. Macmillan $1.25 n
14-11801 Experiences of an English school boy in the early nineteenth century days of smuggling, sheep-stealing and the press-gang. Abundance of exciting adventure and a style above the average.
Nation, 99:255; N. Y. Times, 19:282, June 21, '14; Sat. R., 118:21.
- *Hopkins, W. J. The doers. Houghton $1 n
14-18904 To be read aloud to quite little children. Describes all the processes of building the house next door as watched by David (nearly five). Like the author's Sandman stories, contains the repetitions which children like. Attractive both in style and illustrations.
- *Lucia, Rose. Peter and Polly in winter.
American Bk Co. 35c n
14-3909 Simple stories for little children of the winter doings of a brother and sister in the country. Companion volume to Peter and Polly in summer. Good illustrations.
- Peck, R. M. The wolf hunters; ed. and arranged by
G. B. Grinnell. Scribner $1.25 n
14-15753 Tells in story form the true adventures of three ex-cavalry soldiers who spent the winter of 1861-62 wolf-hunting on the plains. For older boys and adults.
N. Y. Times, 19:387, Sept. 20, '14.
- *Pier, A. S. Grannis of the fifth. Houghton $1.25 n 14-15737 Good tale of athletics at a boys' school and of how two very different new boys become friends.

- 14-15368 Stein, Evaleen. The Christmas porringer. Page $1.25 n
An earthenware porringer, bought by a little Flemish girl of Bruges as a gift for the Christ child and stolen by Robber Hans, finally brings much happiness to her and her grandmother, the lace maker. Pittsburgh Monthly Bulletin
Printed in large type.
- 14-15738 Wallace, Dillon. The gaunt gray wolf. Revell $1.25 n
Experiences of two boys trapping in Labrador during the "hungry winter" of 1890-91 when the caribou failed and over one-third of the Indians of the district perished. Sequel to Ungava Bob.
Dial, 57:391; Lit. Digest, 50:158; N. Y. Times, 19:371, Sept. 6, '14.

LIST OF BOOKS FOR PRISON LIBRARIES

Part I—FICTION

PREFACE

In November and December 1913, at the request of Mr Thomas Mott Osborne, chairman of the Commission on Prison Reform, officials from the State Library made an examination of the libraries in Auburn, Great Meadow, Clinton and Sing Sing Prisons, in the reformatories at Elmira, Napanoch and Bedford and the State Hospital at Matteawan. It was everywhere apparent that far too little attention has been given either to intrinsic merit in the choice of books or to selecting books adapted to the exceptional constituencies found in these institutions. These constituencies embrace men and women, young and old, native and foreign born (of numerous and diverse races, many of them unable to read English) with no education and with considerable, and all these bound by the pathetic, common tie of having offended against society. Obviously a choice of the best books for such people must take all these considerations into account. It is essential not only to know books so intimately as to be able surely to separate the fit from the unfit, but to be able to sense the therapeutic qualities which shall particularly adapt them to such readers.

Recognizing this, and acting upon facts set forth in the report of the Commission on Prison Reform, the Superintendent of State Prisons requested the State Library to prepare a list of books which might be used with confidence by the penal and reformatory institutions of the State. The present list is the first part of this undertaking. It contains 480 carefully chosen titles of general fiction, including 95 which are regarded as specially suitable for young men, and there is added a supplemental list of 37 titles of fiction for women. These 500 titles will be followed by a classified general list of about equal length.

The best way to achieve the steady purchase of good books for the 10,000 inmates of penal and reformatory institutions in this State and to bring these people (with their abundant leisure) into fruitful relations with their books is to have a properly qualified and sympathetic person as supervisor of this work in all the prisons and reformatories. Some one should visit each institution once or twice a month and have behind him the assurance of approval and support from the State and local authorities. In this way an incalculable improvement can be wrought in existing prison library conditions. Fruitless efforts have been made in each of the past two years to get the Legislature to provide such a supervisor. The Prison Department favors it, the State Library has urged it, but so far without result.

Pending the publication of this list and through an understanding with the Superintendent of Prisons, all lists of books recommended for purchase by the chaplains and wardens of the four prisons are first submitted to the State Library for approval.

In preparing this list the book selection section of the New York State Library gratefully acknowledges the help of both library and social workers in all parts of the country who have specially studied the book conditions in prison libraries and have in addition actually served such institutions and their inmates through their libraries.

A SELECTION FROM THE BEST BOOKS OF 1915 WITH NOTES

PREFATORY NOTE

"BEST BOOKS" AND HOW IT IS MADE

What it is. The list, Best Books, which has been prepared and published annually since 1897, is the chief regular work of the book selection section of the State Library. It includes 250 titles chosen from the publications of the preceding year and recommended to the smaller libraries of the State. One hundred of these books are starred as suggestions for first purchase. They are the books which will probably receive the widest reading or will be the most generally useful, but the selection in each case will vary and must be made to fit the needs of the community. Best Books is frankly conservative and sets wholesomeness before literary merit when the latter is joined to dubious ethics or excessively unpleasant realism.

Each entry in the list gives author, title, publisher, price, series (if any), classification number, Library of Congress order number, references to the best available reviews and a descriptive or critical note. When several good books on the same or closely related subjects have appeared, one is chosen to head the group, and the others are described in appended notes which attempt so to characterize each of the books that the librarian may select the one best adapted to her need; for example, Sibert & Stevens's Construction of the Panama canal under which are mentioned Pepperman's Who built the Panama canal? and Goethal's Government of the Canal Zone.

Occasionally a book too expensive to recommend directly is referred to in a note, as Priestley's Antarctic adventure $5 n, which has been included under Turley's Voyages of Captain Scott. These more costly books may often be purchased at greatly reduced prices through secondhand or remainder sales if the librarian will read book catalogs. Through these subentries 50 or more books in addition to the 250 are brought to the librarian's attention each year.

How it is compiled. The first step is to check, in each number of the Publishers' Weekly, all entries of new books which promise to repay further investigation. These checked items are mounted on separate slips and kept on file. During the year all available information is brought to bear upon them. Reviews are consulted in the magazines indexed in the Book Review Digest; the section's own notes which have been written on many of the books are referred to as well as opinions expressed by reliable readers outside the section. Unpromising books are weeded out, and those not on hand which seem to be worth examination are solicited from their publishers. A number of publishers find it worth their while to send their new books to the section as published. There is considerable routine work involved in the correspondence with publishers and in the keeping of accurate records of the books received. During 1915, 8349 books were published in the United States. Of these, 1835 came to the book selection section and were either read or examined, many of them by several people, and descriptive and critical notes were written. A tentative selection was then made of 979 books, grouped by 22 subjects. These tentative lists were sent for votes to two classes of people: specialists in their subject, who gave their opinions on the reliability and value of the book; librarians of small libraries and those who know small library conditions, who gave information on the practical usefulness and popularity of the book in the library. Special pains are taken with the selection of the children's books.¹ Sixteen experienced children's librarians throughout the country, such as Miss Clara W. Hunt of Brooklyn, Miss Alice M. Jordan of the Boston Public Library, Miss Annie Carroll Moore of New York, gave us the benefit of their knowledge and use of the various juveniles. Their decisions with the section's own careful examination unite to make the selection.

When the returns come in and have been tabulated on slips, the final selection of 250 is made by the head of the section. As the titles are chosen they are annotated by the assistants in the section, references to reviews are verified and the list is edited by the section's head. This list for 1915 has been prepared under the direction of Miss Mary Eastwood. It is our belief that a list compiled with the care and competence described above is not only a reliable guide for current purchases but has an enduring reference value although of course no claim is made that it is an ultimate or definitive estimate of the books listed.

Uses of "Best Books." The list as has been said is prepared with a view to meeting the needs in book selection of the small libraries of the State. It is sent free to every registered library and is intended to supplement the A.L.A. Catalog 1904, and its Supplement 1911, and to narrow the more inclusive suggestions made by the A.L.A. Booklist, which lists over 1000 books a year. While some current books may be safely bought by the small library when published, in general most small libraries will find it wiser to wait till the publications of the year may be seen in perspective, and till a choice can be made under the guidance of a narrowed selection. Best Books can be used not only to direct current purchases but should be kept on file and used for rounding out subjects on which the library has a deficient collection.

The list may be used also in compiling reference material for schools and study clubs. It may serve also as a catalog of recent purchases, if the librarian writes call numbers against titles of books lately purchased and places it accessibly to patrons of the library. The annotations for such books as the library buys or owns may be copied on the catalog cards or on slips pasted on the inside cover of the books.

While all the titles listed (notably fiction) can not be recommended for school use, the bulletin should still be of much service to school libraries. All titles under the heading "Children's books" are recommended to those school libraries which undertake to provide wholesome entertainment as well as useful information.

Harris, Am. Econ. R., 5:619.

- 338.5 Clark, W. E. The cost of living. (National social science ser.) McClurg 50c n

- 15-11483 Simple, brief explanation of rising prices, their effects and remedies. Traces their cause not to the trusts but to the question of supply and demand and the depleted gold standard. Popular, yet deserving respect of the professional economist. Less technical than Fisher's Why is the dollar shrinking? Tables of food prices, references, index.

- 15-24950 Cost of living (American books Doubleday $1 n) by Fabian Franklin is similar in scope, though less theoretical than Professor Clark's book. Discusses informally increase of prices in the last eighteen years, the rise in standards of living, effect of the war on cost of living, and other topics of interest to wage earners.

- 15-6039 Lower living costs in cities (National municipal league ser. Appleton $1.50 n) by C. L. King is a clear, comprehensive, up-to-date analysis of urban food and other living costs. Concludes that high prices are largely due to community inefficiency, and presents a constructive social and economic program for minimizing the cost of the city's private and public utilities. Index.

- 15-4679 The present military situation in the United States by Gen. F. V. Greene (Scribner 75c n) is an expert's address presenting the possibilities of invasion, and our condition of unpreparedness and urging nonparty support of the recommendations of Ex-Secretary of War Garrison and the General Army Staff.

- 15-8961 R. M. Johnston's Arms and the race (Century $1 n) discusses the subject against a background of sound historical study, pointing out changes in warfare since the eighteenth century and the reforms necessary to make our army sufficient for our needs.
- 15-7069 Gen. W. H. Carter's The American army (Bobbs-Merrill $1.50 n) is a comprehensive survey by an authority, of army history and policy and of the present conditions and needs of all branches of our army organization. Cleveland Open Shelf.
Quotes many authorities and statistics and is better suited to the student than the general reader.
- A15-24525 F. L. Huidekoper's Military unpreparedness of the United States (Macmillan $4 n) is the best and most ambitious of the numerous books on the subject. It is a massive volume chiefly devoted to the military history and policy of the United States. The portion dealing with the subject up to 1862 is a recasting of General Emory Upton's well-known Military policy of the United States; the portion since that date is original and much fuller. Dial, 60:217.
Suggests reforms of a wider scope than the book by General Carter. 16 maps, index.
- 15-7056 Emphasis on the navy's preparedness is laid in Our navy and the next war by R. W. Neeser (Scribner $1 n 353.7) a readable, earnest book which discusses questions of peace preparation, policy, organization, administration, personnel etc. and urges especially the necessity for the improved equipment of the Navy Department.

15-1507

Comprehensive and suggestive. Views play in its physical, mental and moral aspects, points out that it is essentially an educational problem, studies its possibilities in primary, secondary and college education and compares the play systems of American and European schools.

15-9323

Play in education, by Joseph Lee (Macmillan $1.50 n), considers the place of play in each of five successive periods of child life, restating old matter with new and attractive emphasis. Insists particularly on the importance of the right play at the right time.

Both volumes are by authorities and will be of value alike to parents, teachers and municipal authorities.

- 741 Smith, F. H. Outdoor sketching. Scribner $1 n 15-5790 Informal, enthusiastic discussions on composition, mass, water-colors, and charcoal. Valuable to art students, but so nontechnical and delightfully autobiographic as to interest any admirer of the author. Contains four of his illustrations.
- 745 Rankin, H. A. & Brown, F. H. Simple art applied to handwork, v. I. Dutton $1.25 n 16-26141 Handbook for teachers which, in spite of English methods, will be very useful to the inexperienced on account of the numerous and definite illustrations in halftone and color showing how to conventionalize plant, animal and other forms and to apply these designs to handwork. Chapters on stenciling, needlework and lettering.
- 15-18923 J. C. Chase's Decorative design (Wiley technical series for vocational and industrial schools Wiley $1.50 n) is a practical textbook for more advanced students with emphasis on commercial design. Treats of posters, book covers, bookplates, advertisements, lettering etc., the instructions, as in the other book, being given chiefly by means of graded illustrations. Index.
- 747 Parsons, F. A. Interior decoration. Doubleday $3 n
 15-21595 Expounds for the general reader the principles of color and form harmony as applied to the furnishing and decoration of rooms, explains the essential qualities of the decorative periods and shows how personality may be expressed in modern houses. The numerous and excellent illustrations from photographs and drawings are usually of very expensive houses.
- 15-9938 Inside the house of good taste edited by Richardson Wright (McBride $1.50 n 645) contains seven brief articles by different authors, each dealing with one room of the house. The text serves as accompaniment to numerous good photographic illustrations displaying the possibilities of these rooms.
- 15-14882 Inexpensive furnishings in good taste by Ekin Wallick (Hearst $1.25 n 645) consists chiefly of illustrations in color and black and white, from photographs and drawings, of rooms or individual pieces of furniture, with explanatory text. Prices are given.

- 759 Turner, Winifred. Great schools of painting.
 Sidgwick & Jackson 5/ n Lippincott $1.50 n
 15-26768 Good beginner's book for older children or adults. Treats in popular style the schools of Italy, Germany, the Netherlands and Spain from the thirteenth to the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Gives the stories of the subjects of pictures as well as comment on the pictures themselves and their painters. Thirty-two halftone reproductions, bibliographies at chapter ends, chronological table, glossary and index.
 Ath., 1915, 1:363; Nation, 101:789.

GARDENS AND GARDENING

- 716 Shelton, Louise. Continuous bloom in America.
Scribner $2 n
- 15-18425 Excellent book for the advanced amateur in the region of New York City, who desires a succession of flowers from May 1st to October 1st. Includes alphabetic lists of annuals and perennials with descriptions and directions, eleven planting charts, many reproductions of garden photographs and index.
- 15-9709 The well-considered garden by Mrs Louisa Yeomans King (Scribner $2 n) is a good companion volume, the emphasis of which is on color harmony in the garden. Less definite but more readable than Shelton. Color charts, 32 beautiful photographic reproductions, index.
- 15-21591 The pleasures of amateur horticulture have seldom been so alluringly depicted as in J. H. McFarland's My growing garden (Macmillan $2 n 710), a chatty and familiar record of the author's experience on a modest suburban estate at Harrisburg, Pa. Four pictures in color and 32 in sepia accompany the reading matter.

MUSIC

- 780 Elson, Arthur. Book of musical knowledge.
Houghton $3.50 n
- 15-25834 Comprehensive, authoritative reference book, giving a brief history of music, descriptions of musical instruments, sketches of the work of the great composers, and an outlined course of study with references. Useful primarily to music lovers, students and teachers, though intelligible and interesting also to the lay reader. Glossary and index.
It brings together in its 600 pages information for which one usually has to consult a dozen or more monographs, biographic, historic and technical. Nation, 182:442.
Dial, 59:620; Independent, 84:480.
- 786.3 Brower, Harriette. Piano mastery. Stokes $1.50 n
- 15-18932 Interesting and valuable record of author's interviews with some thirty master pianists and teachers, revealing what each considers the essentials of piano mastery. Much of the material appeared in Musical America. Excellent photographs.

AMUSEMENTS AND SPORTS

- 793 Mackay, C. D'A. How to produce children's plays.
Holt $1.20 n
- 15-26132 Practical suggestions for the stage-directing, costuming and setting of plays for children between six and fourteen, together with a brief history of the children's play movement, a graded, annotated list of plays for schools and other lists for special occasions and groups.
- 15-25989 Her Costumes and scenery for amateurs (Holt $1.75 n), enlarged from two chapters of the above, is a useful working handbook covering the costumes and scenery most used. Includes references to illustrated books, many plates, and definite directions for materials and patterns. Chapter on properties and special emphasis on children's costumes. Index.

- 14-13977 * This is well supplemented by Melicent Stone's The Bankside costume book for children (Gardner 2/6 n Saalfeld $1 n 391) which is equally good for adults. Limited to the countries and periods represented in Shakspeare's plays, but for these there is a much greater variety of costumes and a more authoritative treatment than in the preceding book. Chapters on properties. Scenery is not treated and the materials and dealers mentioned are English. Illustrated by good drawings; methods of cutting indicated. Index.
- 15-20782 * Plays for amateurs; arranged by J. M. Clapp (Drama League of America paper 25 c 016.8088) is an annotated list of nearly 200 plays, long and short, by English, American and foreign authors, chiefly realistic plays of modern life for adults. With each play is given a summary of plot; time needed to act; number of characters; degree of difficulty; nature of scenes etc. Helpful introduction; no index.
- 15-5526 Plays for children; arranged by Kate Oglebay (Drama League of America paper 25 c 016.8088) comprises a classified list of recent plays in English, French and German, simple and elaborate, for children from six to sixteen. The brief notes mention: age to which plays are suited; number of characters and scenes; time needed to act. Lacks an index.
- 15-8739 Plays for school children; edited by A. M. Lütkenhaus (Century $1.25 n 812) contains twenty short plays especially designed for school performance with simple costumes and no scenery. Some are versions of well-known stories, Master Skylark, Through the looking-glass, The lady of the lake etc. and some, such as A grammar play and Four queens of England, are intended as a means of teaching lessons—the principles are explained in the introduction by Margaret Knox—and are better as suggestions for teachers than for actual learning by children. Includes programs for school celebrations.
Lütkenhaus, N. Y. Times, 20:283, Aug. 8, '15.
- 796 *Burns, James. How to play tennis. (Outing hand-books) Outing 70c n
- 15-14211 Useful book of advice, describing different positions, methods of defense, strokes, and warning against common faults. Non-technical, but presupposes a knowledge of the game itself. Excellent diagrams and photographs.
- 797 Clarke, W. J. & Dawson, F. T. Baseball. Scribner $1 n
- 15-9933 Exposition by two college coaches, of the scientific, professional game of the major leagues. Describes proper plays for each position, and batting, base-running, and team plays, with hints to coaches and spectators. Especially valuable for school and college teams. Excellent photographs and diagrams.

- 15-18775 Five readable essays entitled Books as roommates; The art of browsing; A literary laboratory; The boy and the book; Recuperative bibliophily. Author's main theme is that "an American's private library must be born of personal interest and fed upon love." Reprinted from the Bookman, 1913-14.
Dial, 59:280.

- 028.5 Hunt, C. W. What shall we read to the children?
Houghton $1 n
- 15-20627 Pleasant chapters of expert advice on what to choose and what to avoid in selecting books for little children and on the advantages of reading aloud. Includes a good, though short, classified bibliography arranged by ages from three to seven.
Independent, 84:394; Library Journal, 41:137.
- 070 Thorpe, Merle, ed. The coming newspaper.
Holt $1.40 n
- 15-26503 Interesting collection of articles by well-known journalists on the character, policy, ethics and advertising of newspapers, expressing the ideals of present-day journalism.
Dial, 59:160; Nation, 101:387.
- 808.5 Esenwein, J. B. & Carnagey, Dale. Art of public speaking. (Writers' lib.)
Home Correspondence School $1.62 postpaid
- 15-5450 Good advice for beginners; informal but clear with many examples and exercises. Emphasizes the importance of enthusiasm, personality and practice above the technic of composition and elocution. Subjects for speeches and debates and 112 pages of prose selections are given in appendix. Index.
- 810.9 Pattee, F. L. History of American literature since 1870. Century $2 n
- 15-23795 Discusses most readably the development of American poetry, fiction and essays from about 1870 almost to the end of the century. In spite of strong prejudices—for instance against New England authors and any literature showing European influence—it is the most competent and original treatment of this period. Bibliography at chapter ends. Index.
Even those who dissent most sharply from his judgments will, however, value his criticisms for their frankness and consistency. Nation, 102:77. Dial, 60:32.
- 814 Erskine, John. The moral obligation to be intelligent, and other essays. Duffield $1 n
- 15-23793 Four clever, witty essays, original in viewpoint, differing in subject matter, but having as a central theme "the moral use to which intelligence might be put in rendering our admirations and our loyalties at once more sensible and more noble."
Bookman, 42:727; Dial, 60:117.
- 814 Matthews, Brander, ed. Oxford book of American essays. Oxford Univ. Press $1.25 n
- 14-22692 Thirty-two representative examples of the American contribution to English literature in essay form, ranging in time from Franklin to Crothers, and making a notable record of the attitude of the American mind in its serious and humorous moods.
Ath., 1915, 2:56; Nation, 100:227; N. Y. Times, 20:5, Jan. 3, '15; Outlook, 109:793; Spec., 114:686, May 15, '15.
- 814 Woodbridge, Elisabeth, (Mrs Elisabeth Morris). More Jonathan papers. Houghton $1.25 n
- 15-25259 Further breezy and refreshing chapters of outdoor life and recreation, the engaging personality of the chronicler making the unpretentious history peculiarly enjoyable. Dial, 59:505 (adapted).
Published in the Outlook.
Bookman, 42:724; Nation, 102:52.

- 821 Phelps, W. L. Robert Browning; how to know him.
Bobbs-Merrill $1.25 n
- 15-18766 Good, popular introduction to Browning. Discusses his poems in groups by character, explains simply and enthusiastically their meaning and quotes over fifty of the shorter poems entire. The opening chapters give an account of Browning the man, and his theory of poetry.
Dial, 60:82; N. Y. Times, 20:419, Oct. 31, '15; Spec., 115:743, Nov. 27, '15.
- 822 Schelling, F. E. English drama. (Channels of English literature)
Dent 5/ n Dutton $1.50 n
- 14-18042 Traces the development of English drama from the miracle play to Sheridan's Critic, 1779, with a sketch of its history since that time. Scholarly, reliable and not too much condensed for personal comment. Index.
Dial, 58:151; Nation, 100:257; Outlook (Eng.) 34:632.
- 824 Perry, Bliss. Thomas Carlyle; how to know him.
Bobbs-Merrill $1.50 n
- 15-19283 Designed as an introduction to Carlyle. Consists chiefly of well-selected extracts from Carlyle's own books and letters, with skilful introductory comments and a brief sketch of his life and character.
Dial, 59:483; Independent, 84:278.
- 891.44 Rhys, Ernest. Rabindranath Tagore.
Macmillan 5/ n $1 n
- 15-8254 This and Rabindranath Tagore (Dodd $1.25 n) by Basanta
15-10513 Koomar Roy supplement each other to a degree. Mr Rhys in his thoughtful study brings a trained critical mind to his task and gives us sympathetic interpretations of the poet's varied work and the reaction of the European mind to a new voice from the East. He includes the best account of the development of Tagore's educational theories. Six illustrations from photographs and two facsimiles of his manuscript.
In Mr Roy's essay, on the other hand, we get a much clearer idea of the poet's life with interesting sidelights on the attitude of his own countrymen toward him. As criticism it is negligible. It owes much of its vividness to the fact that he allows Tagore, to a great extent, to tell his own story. Six halftone portraits, one facsimile, list of works. N. Y. Times, 20:269, July 25, '15 (adapted).

Frost, Robert. North of Boston.

Nutt 3/6 Holt $1.25 n

14-14906

Tense, simple dramatic dialogues and stories of rural New England life, by a master of blank verse; marked by psychologic insight, a keen feeling for situation, quiet passion and spiritual tenderness and beauty. Edward Garnett in Atlantic Monthly, 116:214 (adapted).

Dial, 57:254; New Repub., 2:81; N. Y. Times, 20:189, May 16, '15.

Neihardt, J. G. The song of Hugh Glass.

Macmillan $1.25 n

15-23323

Striking narrative poem based on an episode of western frontier life in the 1820's. The old hunter, Hugh Glass, lying wounded and unconscious on the prairie, is deserted by his friends and crawls back to the settlements to be revenged on them.

Rev. of Rev., 53:122.

Teasdale, Sara. Rivers to the sea. Macmillan $1.25 n

15-20000

Measured against the verse of this or any single year, these poems are outstanding for their delicate and precise artistry, their lyric quality and their drawing of nature.

Bookman, 42:457; Nation, 102:12; N. Y. Times, 21:22, Jan. 16, '16.

811.08

Braithwaite, W. S. ed. Anthology of magazine verse for 1915. Gomme $1.50

15-26325

Contains 101 poems selected from those published in periodicals during 1915, also The year book of American poetry which consists of lists of the books of poetry, books about and reviews of poetry appearing during the year and an index of the poems appearing in thirteen American magazines. Some English books are included. Index.

While it doubtless contains most of the best work of the year, its usefulness is as a reference volume rather than as a collection of noteworthy verse for the reader. Its value for both purposes is marred by the omission, through the compiler's personal pique, of poems from the Atlantic Monthly.

Rittenhouse, J. B. ed. The little book of American poets, 1787-1900. Houghton $1.25 n

15-24877

Attractive little anthology presenting in chronological order the best and most characteristic short poems of 140 nineteenth century American poets ranging from Freneau to Paul Laurence Dunbar. Indexes of authors, titles and first lines.

Dial, 59:579; N. Y. Times, 20:474, Nov. 28, '15.

Brooke, Rupert. Collected poems. Lane $1.25 n

15-24726

Of chief interest as the work of the young English poet and soldier who died in the Aegean in 1915 and for the sonnet sequence "1914" which marks the height of his genius. An appreciative introduction by George E. Woodberry and biographical sketch.

Until August 1914 his work had been sensuous and passionate, but not always simple. In those early days of horror he matured in spirit, found himself, and in his verse expressed the calm clear spirit, with which the English have traditionally accepted the inevitable. L. R. Morris in Independent, 84:386.

- 808.8 Dickinson, T. H. ed. Chief contemporary dramatists. Houghton $2.75 n
- 15-5813 The full text of 20 plays by as many modern European and American dramatists: Wilde, Pinero, Jones, Galsworthy, Barker, Yeats, Synge, Lady Gregory, Fitch, Moody, Thomas, MacKaye, Hauptmann, Sudermann, Brieux, Hervieu, Maeterlinck, Björnson, Strindberg, Tchekhov. Includes bibliography, notes on the authors, and index of characters.
- 16-692 The two volumes of The masterpieces of modern drama edited by J. A. Pierce (Doubleday $2 n each) are divided into English and American plays and Foreign plays. Each contains thirty plays "abridged in narrative, with dialogue of the great scenes," place and date of first performance, general introduction by Brander Matthews and about ten reproductions of photographs of recent performances. Thirteen of the 60 dramas in this collection are given in full in that of Dickinson.
- 15-16404 B. H. Clark's British and American drama of to-day (Holt $1.60 n 822) is a companion volume to his Continental drama of to-day (Best Books 1914, p. 22). It is a convenient handbook for the study of 44 plays of 30 leading modern dramatists.—including Irish—giving biographical notes on the authors, lists of plays, bibliographies, questions and the author's own critical comments with which many will not agree. Needs to be accompanied by the texts of the plays treated. Index.
- 15-15604 Contemporary French dramatists by the same author (Stewart $1.50 n 842) treats in a similar but more informal and readable manner the work of 13 of the most representative French dramatists of the last 25 years. Bibliographies and index.

- 812 Brown, Alice. Children of earth. Macmillan $1.25 n
- 15-2869 A play of New England life relating the belated love story of a middle-aged woman. The characters and setting have the charm and accuracy of the author's stories. Received the ten thousand dollar prize offered by Winthrop Ames for the best play by an American author.
Cath. World, 101:827; Dial, 58:269.
- 812 Dix, B. M. Across the border; a play of the present in one act and four scenes. Holt 80c n
- 15-5686 Impressive play voicing the horrors of war through the experiences of a wounded young lieutenant who crosses the border between life and death and is there shown the evils of the war which he had believed was being waged for humanity's sake. Appeared in Good Housekeeping.
Bookman, 40:549; Dial, 59:111; Rev. of Rev., 51:501.

- 812 Frank, M. M. Short plays about famous authors. Holt $1 n
- 15-5812 Five spirited plays for young people woven about real or imaginary episodes in the lives of Goldsmith, Heine, Fanny Burney, Dickens and Shakspeare.
- 15-19091 The beau of Bath, and other one-act plays by C. D'A. Mackay (Holt $1.20 n) is more serious in tone and requires better acting. It contains "six effective little sketches written in musical rhymed verse of good literary quality. They deal with real or imaginary incidents in the lives of conspicuous figures of the eighteenth century, Beau Nash, Fanny Burney, Horace Walpole, Richard Brinsley Sheridan, Peg Woffington and Romney." Nation, 101:579.
- Four illustrations from portraits and descriptions of scenery and costumes.
- Frank, Dial, 59:118.
- Mackay, Dial, 60:76.

HUMOR

- 817 Fitch, George. Homeburg memories. Little $1.25 n
- 15-3970 Humorous sketches of middle western country town life. A visitor to New York compares the big city with his home town, picturing the arrival of the 4:11 train, the local band, social leaders, weekly paper and other characteristics. Familiar and appealing to those having memories of village life. Illustrated. Appeared in American Magazine.
- N. Y. Times, 20:65, Feb. 21, '15.
- 817 Guiterman, Arthur. The laughing muse. Harper $1 n
- 15-18768 Mr Guiterman not only knows how to get fun out of every incident and aspect of modern American life, but he is a veritable wizard in producing a humorous effect by a clever handling of meters and unexpected rhymes. Branch Library News, 2:179, Dec. '15.

- 15-5352 Intimate, enthusiastic account of the leisurely wanderings of a mother and daughter from Genoa to Sicily, thence to Venice and the Adriatic. Combines description, well-bred but rather perfunctory conversation, a romantic love affair and information about history, archeology, literature, and joys and trials of sight seeing. Sequel to Spell of Italy (Best Books, 1909, p. 27). Illustrations, map, index. Lit. Digest, 51:1362; Nation, 101:602.
- 914.7 *Baring, Maurice. The mainsprings of Russia. Nelson $1 n
- 14-30978 A good, sympathetic survey, for the average reader, of Russian character, government, church, judicial system, etc., introduced by a brief historical retrospect.
- 15-8454 An interpretation of the Russian people (McEride $1.25 n) by Leo Wiener, a Harvard professor of Russian birth, interprets with interest and authority the characteristics of the Russian people through studies of their history, literature, art, music, religion, position of women, peasants, Jews etc. Selected bibliography.
- 15-5628 Stephen Graham's Russia and the world (Macmillan $2 n 940.913) contains detached articles of unequal merit and interest reprinted from English and American newspapers and periodicals. His opinions on international relations are not important but his description of the Russian mobilization as he witnessed it in a Cossack village near Mongolia and of the attitude of the Russian peasants toward the war is striking and sympathetic. Eight illustrations from photographs.

- 15-27603 The way of Martha and the way of Mary by the same author (Macmillan $2 n) is a poetic, discursive, extremely earnest study of the Russian mystical religious spirit, the "way of Mary" that of eastern Christianity, as contrasted with the "way of Martha", the practical Christianity of the West. Colored frontispiece.

Cambridge Univ. Press 2/6 n Putnam $1 n

15-7795 Lectures delivered by a well-known English historian at Cambridge in 1914. As impartial as one could expect from a belligerent but naturally anti-German and devoting more space to the relations of England and Germany than to the other countries involved.

On the side of the political and diplomatic antecedents, one of the best documented and most readable books, but his discussion of social and economic causes is less competent. Nation, 101:295. Cheaply printed. Index.

- 15-14867 Hilaire Belloc's The elements of the great war; the first phase (Hearst $1.50 n) is the first volume of a projected complete history and is largely introductory, considering the causes of the war, the relative strength of the forces opposed and the events from the outbreak of the war to September 1914, the eve of the Battle of the Marne. Omitting merely picturesque incidents it emphasizes tactics and strategy, making them clear by numerous maps and diagrams. Index. English title General sketch of the great war (Nelson 6/n).

- 15-13829 The world in the crucible by Sir Gilbert Parker (Murray 6/Dodd $1.50 n) is "an account of the origins and conduct of the great war" (Subtitle) set forth from the point of view of a loyal British imperialist with all the ardor of the novelist. - 940.913 *Wharton, Mrs E. N. (Jones). Fighting France, from Dunkerque to Belfort. Scribner $1 n

- 15-25358 Sympathetic, notably well-written observations by the American novelist of the spirit of the French people both at home and in the trenches, together with descriptions of the changes in Paris since the war and the desolation of ruined villages. Twelve illustrations from photographs and map. Appeared in Scribner's Magazine.

- 15-8011 Paris waits, 1914 (Putnam $1.25 n) by Mrs M. E. Clarke, an English woman long resident in Paris, gives vivid, impressionistic sketches, based upon her diary, of events and feeling in the French capital from the outbreak of the war to Christmas. Twenty-four illustrations from photographs.

- 15-21463 Paris reborn by H. A. Gibbons (Century $2 n) covers the same period from the point of view of a sympathetic American observer. In diary form, very readable and entertaining. Sixteen excellent illustrations from drawings by Lester G. Hornby. Reprinted from Century Magazine.

- 940.913 *Wood, E. F. The note-book of an attaché; seven months in the war zone. Century $1.60 n

- 15-14288 Author, an American student in Paris, offered his services to Ambassador Herrick at the outbreak of the war and here publishes from his diary graphic impressions of the panic in Paris during the German advance, and things seen on trips to the front and to Switzerland, Germany and Austro-Hungary made in the interests of the embassy. Fifteen illustrations from photographs and 4 facsimiles of official papers.
One of the best and most enlightening of the many personal narratives. Independent, 83:163.
- 15-16508 The campaign of 1914 in France and Belgium (Hodder 10/6 Holt $1.50 n) by G. H. Perris, an English newspaper reporter, is a clear outline of military movements, with many sketch maps of battles, supplemented by records of what the author himself saw in France and Belgium and anecdotes gathered from eye-witnesses. Naturally pro-English. Index. A large book for the price.
- 15-4085 I. S. Cobb's Paths of glory (Doran $1.50 n) consists of a series of vivid articles, containing much admirable reporting, which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, descriptive of what he saw and heard in Belgium, France, Germany and England during the first three months of the war. N. Y. Times, 20:57, Feb. 21, '15.
Judicious in tone but not pro-German. English title The red glutton.
- 15-24256 My year of the great war by Frederic Palmer (Dodd $1.50 n) contains personal observations of conditions in Germany, France and Belgium and especially of trench life. Parts appeared in Collier's and Everybody's Magazine.
The cheeriest book from the trenches. This sole accredited American correspondent with the British army is easily the best chronicler of the admirable spirit and imperturbability of the British soldier. Nation, 101:694 (adapted).
- 15-24698 Arnold Bennett's Over there (Doran $1.25 n) records strikingly what the English novelist saw in France and Belgium, with his usual eye to effective detail and a not surprising animosity against the Germans. Seven illustrations from impressive drawings by Walter Hale of the ruined cities of Belgium. Appeared in the Saturday Evening Post.
- 15-24921 In Mary Roberts Rinehart's Kings, queens and pawns (Doran $1.50 n) an American woman, well known as a novelist, relates dramatically her impressions and experiences at the front in France and Belgium. Nominally an inspector of hospitals for the Red Cross, she also visited the trenches, conversed with royalty, etc. One illustration.

Emerson. Firkins, O. W. Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Houghton $1.75 n

- 15-13330 An interesting work, its excuse the new material provided by the publication of Emerson's Journals. The most thorough and analytical study that has yet appeared but the "fresh materials" are sometimes inadequately treated. The first half is devoted to Emerson's life; the last, to a review and analysis of his prose, poetry and philosophy. Uniform with the Journals and the Centenary edition of the complete works. Dial, 59:214 (adapted).

Nation, 101:436; New Repub., 5:230.

Chesterton, G. K. The wisdom of Father Brown.

Lane $1.30 n

- 14-22553 More ingenious detective tales in which the little Catholic priest solves mysteries with wonderful ability. Less unexpected than The innocence of Father Brown (Best Books, 1911, p. 41) but as entertaining.

Nation, 100:224; N. Y. Times, 20:27, Jan. 24, '15; Spec., 113:597, Oct. 31, '14.

Conrad, Joseph. Victory.

Doubleday $1.35 n

- 15-6336 A detached, introspective Swedish nobleman, known as "Enchanted Heyst" lives alone on an island in the South seas. Pity obliges him to rescue a girl from a traveling "ladies' orchestra" and to take her to his retreat upon which exciting and tragic happenings follow.

A book of wonderful tensivity and fascination, every character of the story stands out with completeness. There is more of action than in most of his books, the style is more direct but the fascination the same. Bookman, 41:322.

Dial, 58:383; Nation, 100:416; N. Y. Times, 20:109, Mar. 28, '15.

Deland, Mrs Margaret. Around old Chester.

Harper $1.35 n

- 15-18566 Contents: "Turn about"; The harvest of fear; The voice; An encore; The third volume; The thief; Miss Clara's Perseus.

Gives in the author's delightful manner, another instalment of tales in which Doctor Lavender acts as the philosopher and friend of all kinds of people. Bookman, 42:608.

All have appeared in Harper's Magazine and two as separate booklets. Illustrated.

Nation, 101:468; N. Y. Times, 20:349, Oct. 3, '15.

Doyle, Sir A. C. The Valley of Fear. Doran $1.25 n

- 15-26138 Sherlock Holmes once more shows his genius in his attempt to solve the mystery surrounding a murder. The first half of the story, with setting in England, is good; the second half, in which the scene changes to America, is distinctly inferior. Wisconsin Bulletin.

Nation, 100:282; N. Y. Times, 20:77, Mar. 7, '15.

Ervine, StJ. G. Alice and a family.

Maunsel 6/ Macmillan $1.25 n

- 15-8086 Humorous, realistic but sympathetic tale of London slum life in which Alice Corken, aged sixteen and a born manager, takes in hand the shiftless family of a widower stevedore and bullies them into industry and prosperity. Some readers will object to the cockney dialect.

Bookman, 41:436; Nation, 100:656; N. Y. Times, 20:178, May 9, '15; Spec., 114:447, Mar. 27, '15.

Ferber, Edna. Emma McChesney & Co. Stokes $1 n

- 15-26558 More episodes in the career of the heroine of Roast beef medium and Personality plus in which, among other things, she takes a business trip to South America, tries domestic life and becomes a grandmother. As breezy, bright and human as the earlier stories. Appeared in the Cosmopolitan.

N. Y. Times, 20:390, Oct. 17, '15.

Fisher, Mrs Dorothy (Canfield). The bent twig.

Holt $1.35 n

- 15-26659 Sylvia Marshall, the daughter of a professor in a middle west state university, is brought up in an unworldly atmosphere of "plain living and high thinking" against which she revolts, but in spite of herself remains true to her parents' standards. A powerful book, full of realistic detail and sometimes disagreeable in its merciless analysis of character. Not for young girls.

- 15-26257 The author's Hillsboro people (same publisher and price) is a collection "of short stories, sketches and character studies of Vermont village folk, some humorous, some poignantly pathetic, but all imbued with a wise understanding and indulgent sympathy." Bookman, 41:552.

Several have appeared in magazines.

Bent twig, Bookman, 42:599; Nation, 101:599; N. Y. Times, 20:426, Nov. 7, '15.

Hillsboro people, Atlantic, 116:499; N. Y. Times, 20:130, Apr. 11, '15.

Foote, Mrs Mary (Hallock). The valley road.

Houghton $1.35 n

- 15-18105 Leisurely, well-written narrative of pleasant family life in California. Follows the fortunes of a civil engineer, his wife and their two children, the slight plot culminating in the San Francisco fire.

Bookman, 42:219; Nation, 101:778.

Galsworthy, John. The Freelands. Scribner $1.35 n

- 15-16896 Admirably written. Typifies in the different members of the Freeland family the various present-day attitudes toward the English land system which allows petty tyrannies over the laborers. An appealing love affair lends a bright touch to a somewhat depressing novel.

Bookman, 42:218; Dial, 59:219; Independent, 84:23; Nation, 101:291; N. Y. Times, 20:297, Aug. 22, '15; Outlook, 111:332.

Gerould, Mrs Katharine (Fullerton). The great tradition and other stories.

Scribner $1.35 n

- 15-6334 Eight unusual stories, keen in psychological analysis of character and faultless in technic, each dealing with some problem of married life. Less gloomy than author's first collection. Appeared in Scribner's and other magazines.

Bookman, 41:435; Nation, 100:358; N. Y. Times, 20:141, Apr. 18, '15.

- *Grayson, David, *pseud. (Ray Stannard Baker).
Hempfield. Doubleday $1.35 n
- 15-21426 Quiet story of great charm which recounts the fortunes of a little group of people who run the local paper in a drowsy New England town. By the author of Adventures in contentment, etc.
Bookman, 42:477; Nation, 101:658; N. Y. Times, 20:389, Oct. 17, '15.
- Harrison, H. S. Angela's business. Houghton $1.35 n
- 15-6339 Entertaining tale of a young tutor engaged in writing a novel on feminism. His acquaintance with two young women, one the old-fashioned homemaker, the type of "womanly woman," the other a modern, independent school teacher, clarifies his ideas, on "woman's business."
Atlantic, 116:501; Bookman, 41:320; Dial, 58:344; Nation, 100:387; N. Y. Times, 20:102, Mar. 21, '15.
- Hawkins, A. H. "Anthony Hope," pseud. A young man's year. Appleton $1.35 n
- 15-18107 Pleasant picture of English life and many well-drawn characters as seen from the changing point of view of a promising but briefless London barrister during a year of waiting for work in which he tries a theatrical venture and has several love affairs.
Bookman, 42:217; Nation, 101:359; N. Y. Times, 20:310, Aug. 29, '15.
- Johnston, Mary. The fortunes of Garin.
Houghton $1.40 n
- 15-21626 Romance of southern France at the time of the Third Crusade, troubadours, and Richard Lion-heart.
Its spirit is of all time—daring for great deeds, bravery and patience for long-continued ills, courage for the day, and high-minded love which endures without reward through many years of dangerous exploits. Wisconsin Bulletin.
Bookman, 42:469; Dial, 60:78; Nation, 101:658; N. Y. Times, 20:402, Oct. 24, '15.
- Knibbs, H. H. Sundown Slim. Houghton $1.35 n
- 15-11001 The tall, lank hero, tramp and cowboy, butt of all jests and given to rhyming, proves himself a man in an Arizona sheep and cattle feud.
Bookman, 41:656; N. Y. Times, 20:230, June 20, '15.
- *Lighton, W. R. Happy Hollow farm. Doran $1.25 n
- 15-20923 Less a story than a graphic, humorous account, told in intimate, colloquial style, of how a magazine writer bought a farm in Arkansas and by scientific management made it support his family in comfort. Illustrated from photographs poorly reproduced.
- 15-16444 Very similar experiences, the scenes of which are laid in New England, are recounted in the three short stories contained in the Red geranium by William Carleton pseud. (Small $1.35 n) all of which are further incidents in the lives of the characters of his earlier books One way out and New lives for old.
- 15-7366 The idyl of Twin Fires by W. P. Eaton (Doubleday $1.35 n) has more love story and less farming, also more pretensions to a literary style. It tells how a young English instructor bought a farm in New England, made over the old house and laid out a garden, plans of which are given. Appeared in Country Life.
Carleton, Nation, 101:122; N. Y. Times, 20:246, July 4, '15.
Eaton, Dial, 58:306; N. Y. Times, 20:140, Apr. 18, '15.
Lighton, N. Y. Times, 20:445, Nov. 14, '15.

Lincoln, J. C. Thankful's inheritance.

Appleton $1.35 n

- 15-13471 An energetic Cape Cod widow inherits a house which, with the help of a pretty niece, she runs as a summer hotel in spite of a disconcerting ghost and an envious millionaire neighbor. Pleasant and humorous.

Bookman, 42:104; Dial, 59:157; N. Y. Times, 20:246, July 4, '15.

Locke, W. J. Jaffery.

Lane $1.35 n

- 15-26351 The hero, a successful English war correspondent, a giant in size and child in simplicity, is torn between his interest in two women—a selfish, conventional little widow and a primitive Amazon from Albania brought up in the Chicago stock yards district. Told with much charm and whimsical humor.

Bookman, 41:551; Dial, 59:63; N. Y. Times, 20:211, June 6, '15.

Marshall, Archibald. The old order changeth.

Dodd $1.35 n

- 15-16231 Leisurely narrative, almost devoid of incident, but rich in atmosphere and characterization, its theme the passing of the old order of English landed wealth. Gives in its last chapters an interesting glimpse of the effects of the outbreak of the European war. English title, Rank and riches.

Bookman, 42:324; Outlook, 111:334.

Montague, M. P. Closed doors.

Houghton $1 n

- 15-19069 Appealing stories of children in a state school for the deaf and blind, written from intimate knowledge and not without humor. Appeared in the Atlantic Monthly.

Dial, 59:427; Survey, 35:303.

Montgomery, L. M. Anne of the island. Page $1.25 n

- 15-15242 Wholesome, vivacious record of Anne's college years and love affairs but lacks the freshness of her earlier experiences. For older girls.

Nation, 101:263.

O'Higgins, H. J. Adventures of Detective Barney.

Century $1.30 n

- 15-2005 Entertaining detective tales in each of which the leading part is taken by Barney Cook, a sixteen year old New Yorker. Appeared in Collier's Weekly.

A more refreshing upstart from the East side never satisfied his longing for thrills and proved his capacity. Independent, 81:255.

Bookman, 41:16; N. Y. Times, 20:38, Jan. 31, '15.

Olmstead, Florence. A cloistered romance.

Scribner $1.25 n

- 15-7736 Leisurely story with much whimsical humor in which the quaint characters in a home for aged paupers supported by the Little Sisters of the Poor, observe with vast excitement the progress of a love affair between a lady visitor and a chance patient.

Dial, 59:65; Nation, 100:600; N. Y. Times, 20:142, Apr. 18, '15.

Onions, Mrs Oliver, "Berta Ruck," pseud. His official fiancée.

Dodd $1.25 n

- A15-318 Delightfully piquant light novel in which a young Englishman, for business reasons, feels obliged to employ his stenographer as his fiancée.

Ath. 1914, 1:739; Bookman, 41:89.

- Parker, Gilbert. The money master. Harper $1.35 n
 15-17981 Against the charmingly sketched background of a little French-Canadian town, the author traces with pathos, yet with whimsical humor, the development of the character of Jean Jacques Bar-bille, miller and money master, whom many misfortunes sadden but can not discourage.
 Dial, 59:496; Nation, 101:410; N. Y. Times, 20:331, Sept. 19, '15; Spec. 115:373, Sept. 18, '15.
- *Phillpotts, Eden. Brunel's tower. Macmillan $1.50 n
 15-5151 Story of the Devonshire potteries and of the remolding of a boy lacking in moral sense who runs away from a reformatory and comes under the influence of a master potter. Somber but notable for its portrayal of character and reflections upon life.
 15-20559 Phillpotts's Old Delabole (Macmillan $1.50 n) depicts life in the slate quarries of Cornwall; its real charm is in its many and diverse characters. Besides being a good story, richly peopled, and brimful of human nature, the book is seasoned with quiet humor and a deal of mellow wisdom. N. Y. Times, 20:414, Oct. 31, '15.
Brunel's tower, Bookman, 41:200; Nation, 100:388; New Repub. 2:240; N. Y. Times, 20:90, Mar. 14, '15.
Old Delabole, Bookman, 42:483; Nation, 101:658.
- *Poole, Ernest. The harbor. Macmillan $1.40 n
 15-2844 New York harbor is the most important "character." Typi-fying to the hero, now change and terror, now efficiency and power, now the sordid lot of the dockman and stoker, it molds his life from boyhood to manhood. A long, restrained auto-biographic narrative with good character drawing and a lovely heroine.
 Atlantic, 116:505; Dial, 58:211; Nation, 100:444; New Repub. 2:187; N. Y. Times, 20:43, Feb. 7, '15; No. American R. 202:134.
- Pryce, Richard. David Penstephen. Houghton $1.35 n
 15-24884 Delicate, skilful study of the growing up of a sweet-natured, sensitive English boy and the reaction upon him of the peculiar conditions caused by the quixotic refusal of his parents to legalize their marriage until after his birth. Delightful in style and fine in quality.
 Nation, 101:719; N. Y. Times, 20:476, Nov. 28, '15.
- Rideout, H. M. White tiger. Duffield $1 n
 15-19968 Lively story of a young American engineer's adventures in the Dutch East Indies, concerned with a mine, a phantom tiger and lastly a pretty love affair. Vivid descriptions of the tropics.
 Life, 67:28.
- *Runkle, Bertha. Straight down the crooked lane.
 Century $1.35 n
 15-19073 Very human pictures of child life in Newport and army life in the Philippines somewhat incongruously combined with the mystery concerning the disappearance of a famous diamond. How-ever, it never fails in interest.
 Nation, 101:521; N. Y. Times, 20:388, Oct. 10, '15.
- Sabatini, Rafael. The sea-hawk.
 Secker 6/ Lippincott $1.25 n
 15-5827 A stirring tale of adventure in the time of Queen Elizabeth. The hero, an English gentleman, is kidnapped to be sold as a slave in Barbary but becomes a famous corsair and wreaks ven-geance on his enemies.

One of the most exciting yarns of its good old-fashioned sort, a thrilling tale which rises steadily to a dramatic climax and comes out in a way to satisfy all our romantic instincts. Dial, 59:329. Nation, 101:233.

- 15-26657 Sidgwick, Ethel. Duke Jones. Small $1.35 n
 "Full of interest and subtlety and finely written" it is the story of a commonplace, undistinguished Englishman, a foil for a group of charming or unscrupulous but always clever people, yet capable of greater chivalry and self-sacrifice than any of them. Sequel to A lady of leisure but complete in itself. Nation, 101:497; New Repub. 5:179; N. Y. Times, 20:458, Nov. 21, '15.

- 15-4582 Singmaster, Elsie. Katy Gaumer. Houghton $1.35 n
 Pretty story of a young Pennsylvania-German girl's ambitions for an education, in a delightfully quaint and accurate village setting. Not a child's book, but older girls will enjoy it. Dial, 58:265; Nation, 100:250; N. Y. Times, 20:98, Mar. 14, '15.

- Strother, Mrs Emily (Vielé). Eve Dorre. Dutton $1.35 n
 15-19072 Charming, idyllic little tale in which the heroine, an American girl brought up in France, describes with great simplicity and naturalness her neglected childhood and happy love affair. A pleasant picture of semi-Bohemian social life, with one or two episodes out of key with the story. Cath. World, 102:401; N. Y. Times, 20:396, Oct. 17, '15.

- 15-3643 Tarkington, Booth. The turmoil. Harper $1.35 n
 A novel of unusual interest and vitality picturing the turmoil of a middle west manufacturing city, with its worship of "bigness," and the corresponding tumult in the family of the great business man who has made the city. A charming love story. Atlantic, 116:506; Bookman, 41:98; Nation, 100:199; N. Y. Times, 20:49, Feb. 14, '15; No. American R., 201:452.

- 15-11872 Tompkins, J. W. Diantha. Century $1.25 n
 A Cinderella tale in which the unbeautiful twin, disciplined to give up everything to her lovely sister, is brought to an even greater beauty and comes into her heritage. Dial, 59:67. Bookman, 41:654; N. Y. Times, 20:334, Sept. 19, '15.

- Vachell, H. A. Spragge's canyon. Smith, Elder 6/ Doran $1.25 n
 15-5555 Leisurely romance of ranch life in California. Describes the devotion of young George Spragge to the canyon and his choice between the quiet country girl whom his mother wished him to marry and the pretty, selfish city-bred girl who has taken his fancy. Good local color and character drawing. N. Y. Times, 20:432, Nov. 7, '15; Sat. R., 118, sup. Nov. 14, '14, p. 4.

- A15-452 Walpole, Hugh. The wooden horse. Doran $1.25 n
 Harry Trojan, after twenty years of active life in New Zealand, returns to the proud, conventional Cornish family of which he is the eldest son. His attempts to find something in common with his relatives make a novel characterized by much excellent character study and local color. Bookman, 41:201; N. Y. Times, 20:58, Feb. 21, '15.

- Ward, Mrs M. A. (Arnold) (Mrs Humphry Ward).
 Eltham House. Hearst's Internat. Lib. Co. $1.35 n
 15-19970 Story of Lord and Lady Holland in a modern setting. Shows what the present-day attitude of society might be toward a young English couple of wealth and position, who, having defied conventions, return to live in London and enter upon a social and political career.
 Dial, 59:422; Independent, 84:196; Nation, 101:437; N. Y. Times, 20:337, Sept. 26, '15; Outlook, 111:335.
 *Webster, Jean. Dear enemy. Century $1.30 n
 15-26656 Engaging romance told in the sprightly letters of Sallie McBride, a society girl whom the heroine of Daddy-Long-Legs has persuaded to undertake the reformation of an orphan asylum. Illustrated from the author's amusing sketches.
 Bookman, 42:479; N. Y. Times, 20:413, Oct. 31, '15.
Widdemer, Margaret. Why not?
 Hearst's Internat. Lib. Co. $1.25 n
 15-18567 A joyous, inconsequential story in which the heroine, who has never had her own way, inherits three thousand dollars and resolves to spend it, not in a sensible manner but in realizing her dreams—a house in the woods, a Livonian bloodhound, ice cream in the morning, and a knightly lover.
 N. Y. Times, 20:445, Nov. 14, '15.
Willsie, Mrs Honoré (McCue). Still Jim.
 Stokes $1.35 n
 15-8425 The struggles and growth of a young engineer in the reclamation service whose inflexible New England standards help him to do honest and successful work but hinder him for a time in his human relations. Cleveland Open Shelf.
 Appeared in Everybody's Magazine.
 Atlantic, 116:509; N. Y. Times, 20:170, May 2, '15; Outlook, 110:153.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS

- 595.7 Beard, D. C. The American boy's book of bugs, butterflies and beetles. Lippincott $2 n
 16-1034 A reference book in popular form. The author's numerous sketches identify almost every insect mentioned and the chatty text points out means of remembering them. Gives directions for collecting and preserving specimens. Index.
598.2 Finley, W. L. & Irene. Little bird blue.
 Houghton 75c n
 15-26652 Pleasing little account of how two children reared an orphan blue bird, giving simple information on bird life. Illustrations from photographs and drawings.

Stokes $1.50 n
- A15-2575 Gives directions for some eighty games, such as "Hunt the slipper" and "Oranges and lemons"; those which demand music have the traditional tunes. The many spirited illustrations both in color and black and white by Margaret Tarrant are delightful and the whole book—a thin quarto—is attractive in make-up though the delicate board covers will soon soil. An English importation.
- 796 *Beard, Lina & A. B. On the trail; an outdoor book for girls. Scribner $1.25 n
- 15-13368 Guide for girl campers giving all necessary directions—with lists of equipment—for living out of doors and including suggestions for amusements, nature study, knot tying, wild food, first aid, etc. Useful to camp fire girls. Illustrated by sketches and poorly reproduced photographs. Lacks an index.

N. Y. Times, 20:291, Aug. 15, '15.

- 796 Rogers, Ethel. Sebago-Wohelo camp fire girls.
Good Health Pub. Co. $1.25 n
- 15-12433 Part handbook, part story, this little volume gives an enthusiastic account of the purposes and customs of the camp fire girls' organization in the record of a summer's camping with the founders. Many photographs, symbols, list of Indian names, etc.
- 808.5 Foster, W. H. Debating for boys. Sturgis $1 n
- 15-17812 Popular in style with several chapters in narrative form and better adapted for the boys' own use than as a reference book for teachers. Gives information on argumentation, parliamentary procedure and organization and a list of subjects for debate. No index. Parts appeared in Youth's Companion and Boys' Life.
Independent, 83:400; Nation, 101:332.
- 808.8 *Dickinson, A. D. ed. The children's book of Thanksgiving stories. Doubleday $1.25 n
- 15-24888 Thirty-one stories, chiefly selected from periodicals similar to his Children's book of Christmas stories (Best Books 1913, p. 48). Distinguishes between those for older and younger children. A descriptive note precedes each story. Excellent both for children and story-tellers.
- 808.8 *Olcott, F. J. & Pendleton, Amena. comp. & ed. Jolly book for boys and girls. Houghton $2 n
- 15-27925 Excellent collection of fairy tales and stories by well-known writers, "selected for their appeal to all kinds of youthful humorous tastes." Six illustrations.
Nation, 102:23.
- 808.8 Smith, E. S. & Hazeltine, A. I. comp. Christmas in legend and story. Lothrop $1.50 n
- 15-16883 Useful book for the children's room of forty not too familiar selections in prose and verse from old and modern sources. About half are poems or carols and two selections are from the New Testament. Illustrations are from famous paintings.
- 15-13561 Little folks' Christmas stories and plays compiled by A. M. Skinner (Rand 75c n) less attractive in appearance, supplements this by 30 tales and poems of a less serious nature chiefly by modern writers. Contains two short plays. Pt 1, Stories children can read; pt 2, Stories to read and tell children.
- 812 *Carter, E. H. Christmas candles. Holt $1.50 n
- 15-25502 Twelve Christmas plays written for the classes and clubs of a small Sunday school, excellent for home or school use. Each serves to introduce Santa Claus and a Christmas tree, some being dramatizations of familiar stories. Good suggestions for costumes and settings. Eight illustrations from photographs of children in costume and short bibliography of carols. Appeared in part in St Nicholas.
- 821.08 *Stevenson, B. E. comp. Home book of verse for young folks. Holt $2 n
- 15-22264 Comprehensive collection of about 500 poems, very attractive in form, arranged under such headings as: In the nursery; Stories in rhyme; My country. An unusual proportion for younger

- children. Includes selections from compiler's Home book of verse (Best Books 1912, p. 27) but is not like that, printed on thin paper. Indexes of authors, titles and first lines. Colored picture endpapers and title-page and other decorations in black and white by Willy Pogány.
Independent, 84:395; Lit. Digest, 51:1376.
- 914.7 Haskell, H. E. Katrinka. (Little schoolmate ser.)
Dutton $1.25 n
- 15-20563 A little peasant girl, whose parents are exiled to Siberia, learns to dance so well in the imperial ballet that she charms the Czar and wins release for her father and mother. Excellent picture of Russian life and customs. Notes explain Russian words used in text. Illustrated.
N. Y. Times, 21:13, Jan. 9, '16.
- 917.2 Perkins, Mrs Lucy (Pitch). The Mexican twins.
Houghton $1 n
- 15-24914 Describes in natural and intimate style the home life and holiday celebrations of two eight-year-old Mexican peon children. The chapter describing the secret meeting of the peons to discuss their wrongs and prepare for revolution is more suited to older children than the rest of the story. Illustrations from the author's delightful sketches.
- 917.29 Verrill, A. H. The cruise of the Cormorant.
Holt $1.35 n
- 15-7370 Readable and informing account of two boys' yachting trip through the West Indies. Many illustrations from photographs and map.
- 943 Aston, Florence. Stories from German history.
Crowell $1.50 n
- A15-2673 Popular history of Germany from the times of Julius Caesar to 1648, emphasizing the life and customs of the periods described and thus differing from Marshall's History of Germany (Doran $2.50 n Best Books 1914, p. 44) which was chiefly devoted to events. Advantages over that book are that it is less bulky, a dollar cheaper, more satisfactorily illustrated (from reproductions of photographs, drawings and old paintings) and has an index. On the other hand, it covers a shorter period and is less attractive in appearance to children.

BIOGRAPHY FOR CHILDREN

- Hale*. Root, Mrs J. C. Nathan Hale. (True stories of great Americans)
Macmillan 50c n
- 15-11017 Sympathetic biography of the young patriot, for older children, verging on the sentimental, and quoting many poems and tributes to his memory. Six photographic illustrations poorly reproduced. No index.
Other volumes of the year in this series which, though not very attractive in appearance, is substantially bound, authentically illustrated and popular in style, are:
- 15-18683 Dudley, E. L. Benjamin Franklin.
15-8449 Gilman, Bradley. Robert E. Lee.
15-18684 Holland, R. S. William Penn.
15-8030 Johnson, Rossiter. Captain John Smith.
15-25325 Rolt-Wheeler, Francis. Thomas Alva Edison.
15-7271 Sutcliffe, Mrs A. C. Robert Fulton.
Johnson, Nation, 100:659.
Rolt-Wheeler, Nation, 102:23.
Sutcliffe, Am. Hist. R., 21:182.

Stevenson. Overton, J. M. Life of Robert Louis Stevenson for boys and girls. Scribner $1 n

- 15-17820 Interestingly told for older children. Sketches Stevenson's career and character largely through extracts from his own writings. Intended as an introduction to his books. Illustrations. Good bibliography.
Nation, 101:500.

CHILDREN'S STORIES

- Brown, E. A. Arnold's little brother. Lothrop $1.20 n
15-7112 Pleasant, amusing story of the responsibilities and complications forced upon a popular football captain when his lively younger brother is sent to the same boarding school. More hackneyed in incidents than author's stories of home life.

- Burnett, Mrs Frances (Hodgson). The lost prince. Century $1.35 n
15-21437 Romantic, imaginative tale of a boy of twelve, living with his father in poverty and hiding, but trained to a fine devotion to the cause of an oppressed kingdom and its traditional lost prince. A story of courage, high ideals and faithfulness to trust. Because of its "New thought" tendencies some children's librarians prefer to place it on the adult shelves with The secret garden.
Bookman, 42:478; Dial, 59:495; N. Y. Times, 20:389, Oct. 17, '15.

- *Kneeland, C. A. Smugglers' island. Houghton $1.25 n
15-24857 A modern Swiss family Robinson in which a girl of eighteen and her younger brothers and sisters are marooned on an island off the western coast of Mexico and support themselves for seven years before help comes. Illustrated.

- *Lucia, Rose. Peter and Polly in spring. Amer. Bk Co. 36c n
E15-1532 Third of the attractive Peter and Polly readers for little children. Tells of good times out of doors in the country when the children gather pussy willows, watch young robins, see the first blue bird, make daisy chains and daisy dolls, etc. Illustrated.

- *Peattie, E. W. Lotta Embury's career. Houghton $1 n
15-18966 A young girl made to believe that she has great gifts as a violinist goes to Chicago to study and turns out to be just an ordinary business girl, attractive and full of good sense. Interesting and in spite of some improbabilities a wholesome, helpful story for older girls.
Bookman, 42:596.

- Seaman, A. H. The boarded-up house. Century $1.25 n
15-19190 Two girl friends in pursuit of a pet cat enter and explore a deserted house. They eventually learn its mystery, and help to bring it to a happy solution. Unlikely but pleasantly thrilling and related naturally.
Bookman, 42:397.

Stein, Evaleen. Our little Norman cousin of long ago.
(Little cousins of long ago) Page 60c

- 15-18276 Boy life in Normandy at the time of William the Conqueror. Describes interestingly though with little plot, customs of castle life, dress, amusements, tournaments and training for knighthood. Reinforced binding.

ATTRACTIVE AND SERVICEABLE NEW EDITIONS, AND A FEW ILLUSTRATED BOOKS FOR TABLE USE

- 398.2 Arabian nights. More tales from the Arabian nights; based on the translation by E. W. Lane, ed. for young people by F. J. Olcott. Holt $1.50 n

- 16-722 Supplements the editor's collection Arabian nights' entertainments (Best Books 1913, p. 47) by 33 stories, familiar and unfamiliar. "Story of Prince Ahmed" and "Story of the Princess Periezade" are edited from the Jonathan Scott translation of Galland's French version. Twelve illustrations in color by Willy Pogány.

Dickens, Charles. A Christmas carol.

Lippincott $1.50 n

- A16-203 An attractive gift edition with excellent type, paper and binding, illustrated end papers and 12 delightful, colored plates and 18 black and white drawings by Arthur Rackham.
Sat. R., 120, sup. Dec. 4, '15, p. 5.

Dodge, Mrs Mary (Mapes). Hans Brinker; or, The silver skates; illustrated by George Wharton Edwards.

Scribner $2 n

- A15-2237 Satisfactory new edition with good paper and binding, decorated cover and title-page, picture end papers, many head pieces in black and white and 8 delicately colored plates.

- 741 Elkin, R. H. The children's corner; illustrated by H. Willebeek Le Mair. McKay $1.25 n

- A15-2674 Fifteen charming pictures of children, dainty in coloring, sympathetic in details, each accompanied by a simple verse on the opposite page. In size and general appearance, a companion volume to illustrator's Our old nursery rhymes and Little songs of long ago (McKay $1.50 each Best Books 1913, p. 47).

Ewing, J. H. Mary's meadow and other tales of fields and flowers. (Queen's treasures ser.)

Bell 2/6 n Macmillan $1

- A16-705 Very pretty and satisfactory little edition though the cover is inclined to warp. Eight delicately colored plates by M. V. Wheelhouse. The other tales are: Letters from a little garden; Garden lore; Sunflowers and a rushlight; Dandelion clocks; The trinity flower; Ladders to heaven.

Irving, Washington. Rip Van Winkle. (Stories we love ser.)

Stokes 50c n

- A15-2675 Will attract children by its large clear type and amusing illustrations—4 in color, 8 in black and white—by Charles Robinson. The light board covers and rather fragile binding are a drawback for library use.

Scott, Sir Walter. The talisman; illustrated by Simon H. Vedder. Lippincott $1.50 n

A15-2678 Excellent edition for young people. Has large, clear type, satisfactory paper and binding and 12 illustrations in color. Includes author's introduction and notes and a new preface and glossary.

A15-2677 Uniform with this (same publisher and price) are: Ivanhoe

A15-2679 illustrated by Maurice Geffenhagen, Kenilworth illustrated by Henry J. Ford. All three may be obtained in reinforced binding from Hunting, Springfield, Mass. at $1.50 each.

Spyri, Johanna. Heidi; tr. by Elisabeth P. Stork.
(Stories all children love) Lippincott $1.25 n

15-21434 Save for the cover design, the most attractive in make-up of the cheap editions of this old favorite, having good type and paper and 8 pretty colored plates by Maria L. Kirk. The new translation will satisfy children unacquainted with the older versions, but others will miss not only their quaintness but many familiar details which are here omitted.

Stevenson, R. L. Treasure Island; illustrated by Louis
Rhead. Harper $1.50

15-23639 Uniform with the Rhead editions of Tom Brown's school days and other volumes and will attract those who care for the artist's drawings in black and white of which there are some 30, all energetic and true to the text. In physical make-up, somewhat superior to the edition in the Washington Square classics (Jacobs $1 n) although the lower price and 7 colored plates of that will cause it to be preferred in some libraries. Neither can compare for beauty with the edition (Scribner $2.25 n) illustrated by N. C. Wyeth.

821 Taylor, Ann & Jane. Poems; illustrated by H. C.
Appleton and F. D. Bedford. (The children's poets)
Stokes 45c n

A16-706 Attractive little book, appropriately illustrated, presenting the best and most familiar of these old-fashioned children's poems such as "Twinkle, twinkle little star" and "Meddlesome Matty." Good for libraries that can not afford author's Little Ann and other poems illustrated by Kate Greenaway (Warne $1).

OFFICIAL PUBLICATIONS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK RELATING TO ITS HISTORY AS COLONY AND STATE

PREFACE

This list is intended to be a guide to the material relating specifically to the history of New York as colony and state (with a few other closely related topics) which has been published by the authority of the State from 1777 through 1912. A few later items have been included but there is no attempt to note all material published later than 1912.

In a large view, of course, all documents printed by New York State relate to its history, and yet it does not accord with the plan of this list to make it a complete check list of the official publications of the State. Its compilation was undertaken at the request of the State Historian and to meet the need of the historical reference work in the State Library. These conditions govern its scope and content. Aside from a few items relating to ecclesiastical, educational and industrial history and a considerable number relating to Indian affairs, the titles are wholly those treating of narrative and political history in the narrow sense of that term.

The main arrangement is alphabetic by subjects. In some of the sections it has seemed best to arrange the subordinate entries chronologically instead of alphabetically. Wherever this variation has been made it has been indicated at the beginning of the section.

Author entry is under personal name whenever this appears, the official nature of the publication being indicated by references to the department report of which it forms a part and to the Collected documents. When no personal name appears, entry is under the issuing office. Entries for material found only in the Collected documents are made in analytic form with the document reference.

In general, reports have not been analyzed, preference having been given to blanket entries for reports which contain historical material, e. g. American Scenic and Historic Preservation Society.

Sale prices are added to titles of which the State Library has a considerable duplicate stock. There is no provision for free distribution to individuals or libraries, but offers of exchange for material not now in the State Library will always be considered.

SOURCES

New York State Senate and Assembly journals, 1789-1829.

Although it is certain that no collected documents were made up into volumes prior to those four volumes of 1830 entitled Legislative Documents, earlier numbered Senate and Assembly Documents are found. The journals . . . from 1820 contain in the body of the text as well as in the appendices those reports later found in the documents. No evidence has been found that the documents contained in the appendices to the folio journals . . . were separately printed.

A BIBLIOGRAPHY CONCERNING VOCATIONS

JAMES SULLIVAN PH.D.

Prepared primarily for the use of the University scholars

PREFATORY NOTE

This list of books and articles, which makes no pretence of being exhaustive, is intended to be helpful to college students in reaching a decision as to their life work. The student is advised to read, first some of the books given under the caption "General" and second, some under the caption "Men" or "Women" as the case may be, and then to turn to some of the works under the particular professions which seem to offer the strongest appeal.

Those parts of the "general" works which treat of special professions are not referred to under the headings for books devoted to any one profession, but students should take note of the fact that many of the books referred to under "General," "General — Men" and "General — Women," have in them parts referring to the individual professions.

Several of the books given refer to occupations which are more generally chosen by young people who have not had the advantage of a college education, but they are included because they have a value even to college men and women.
